INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Review of the Building Operations Show Many Improvements.

County Clerk Geo. F. Horton is contemplating building the coming summer on his lots in Gladstone.

Clark Ganong is preparing to build a neat cottage at Canemah which he will occupy himself when done.

Mrs. Augusta Sandstrom of Portland has purchased lots in Gladstone upon which she intends to build at once.

A Mr. Montgomery is erecting a neat cottage in the West Side addition. J. Martin & Sons are doing the work.

Prof. J. W. Gray's new house is rapidly nearing completion, and is beginning to speak for itself in point of neatness.

C. A. Williams began building a neat cottage at Gladstone on Wednesday, which will cost when completed about $1000.

Messrs. Kinnaird & Johnson have just completed surveying and platting an addition of six acres for Geo. C. Ely. This addition will shortly be placed on the market.

The Willamette Land Company are providing for the demand for small tracts by having Kinnard & Johnson plat an addition in acre tracts lying contiguous to Park Place. It contains some beautiful locations.

The rock crusher is being set up on the level space cleared for the bottom of the canal and by the end of the week it will be in operation. A large mass of rock has been accumulated and is ready for the wheels of the crusher to grind upon as soon as power is applied.

Judge Huefat is having an addition built to his house in the south part of the city, comprising kitchen, bed room, bath room and bay window, which will add materially to the comfort and appearance of the place. White Bros. have the contract for the work.

Max Schulpus who recently sold his farm at Wilsonville, has purchased Mrs. Mader's property on Jefferson street, and will immediately remodel the house and make it a modern home. He intends to erect a new cottage just back of the present house, which he purposes renting.

H. M. Foot has the contract for building a very neat six-room cottage for H. T. Sladen at Gladstone, the cost of which will be about $1500. It is to be built just by the electric line, on the east side of the track and north of the Gladstone branch, which will be a very convenient location for Harry, who is looking after business matters for Mr. Cross.

On Tuesday the contract was closed by Company F with T. W. Clark for an addition to the armory to be built on the back. This will be 20 feet deep and as wide as the hall to which it will be joined forming part of the drill hall. Heretofore the front end of the armory has not been of much use as a part of the drill room as it was almost always crowded with furniture of the hall. This space is to be partitioned off into two rooms to be used for company purposes, for meetings and for keeping the uniforms and accoutrements, which have heretofore been abused by being left exposed in the drill room.

Smith & Lovett's ice plant is now in successful operation and they are delivering ice to their customers here and in Portland. The big machine, the largest on the coast, is proving itself amply able to handle from 40 to 50 tons of ice in a day. On Monday they began placing the cold circulating pipes in their cold storage rooms in which Albright & Warner have already arranged to store their meats, and which will be ready for use in a few days. The last of the week a shipment was made by rail and on Sunday the barge was sent down on a trial trip with a small load. This barge is fitted up just like a cold storage room and when once it becomes thoroughly cooled there will be but little melting. The company are supplying families with ice at very reasonable rates, and this industry is calculated to add in no small degree to the quality and freshness of foods that can be served in every household. The proprietors are meeting with so much encouragement in the sale of ice that they are already contemplating doubling the capacity of their plant. They are also planning to build a large store house with a capacity of 400 tons or more in which ice will be stored in winter when orders for domestic use are slack.

The contract was let by Dr. J. W. Welch on Monday for his new two-story store and hall building at the corner of Seventh and High streets, Mullen & Wishart being the successful builders, the figures being a trifle under $2000. The lower story will be divided into two store rooms both of which will be occupied by David Caulfield, one as a grocery store and the other as a meat market. The upper floor will be fitted up by the Falls City Lodge No. 59 A. O. U. W. for a lodge room. The stores are to be ready for occupancy by the first of July, and the contractors have already begun work.

The coffer dam which has caused so much trouble in getting it in place, owing to the sunken logs in the basin above the pulp mill, is at last in place, but it was first necessary to procure the assistance of a couple of divers, Messrs Mason and Tilden from Portland, who spent Friday at work under the water stopping the larger leaks which the company had tried in vain to check by ordinary means, and by noon they had the leaks reduced to such small proportions that the water began rapidly to recede from the lower side of the dam and soon the men were busy almost everywhere below the dam, bracing it up and making it strong so that the work of putting in the headgates could be commenced.

Below the pulp mill the men are still busy clearing away the rock for the canal, but on account of the rapidly rising waters it has been impossible to do much at clearing the foundation for the power station, but very soon another coffer dam will have to be started and built across the old mill basin from near the corner of the wood pulp mill in a northerly direction towards the chemical pulp mill. As the water is quite deep at this point and the bottom uneven it is not unlikely that difficulties will be experienced in getting a dam built that will stand the strain of the outside waters and stop old leaks. Besides this it may trouble the builders to prevent water from coming in from the locks which are away above the bottom of the wheel pits. However in this age of progress there is no doubt but what any obstacles which may be met will be successfully overcome.
