What do You Think of It?

A party in search of a desirable location for a home, would have to walk one-half hour from the east end of the suspension bridge in Oregon City to find a lot for $200 and up hill at that. You can walk 30 feet and take passage on a splendidly equipped electric motor car and in six minutes for 2½¢ be landed in the handsomest suburb in the world, where you can buy a better lot for $150, $200, down $10 a month.

In old times it seemed to be thought that a medicine must be nauseating to be effective. Now, all this is changed. Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one of the most powerful alteratives, is agreeable to most palates, the flavor being by no means medicinal.

Nothing pleases a person so well when away from home as to get a well cooked meal served in a clean and appetizing manner. The Portland restaurant by the excellence of its meals and table service can please the most fastidious person. Give it a trial.

City Council Meets.

The regular monthly meeting of the city council was attended by all members but was neither exciting nor burdened with business, other than that of a routine nature.

The application of John Trembath for a renewal of his liquor license was granted.

Relative to the foot bridge across the gulch on Madison street between Tenth and Eleventh, the council instructed the recorder to notify D. C. Latourette that when 75 per cent of the estimated cost of the bridge had been raised that the city would pay the balance. The estimated cost is $312.00.

The Leon W. Washburn Circus and Menagerie

is on its travels and will visit Oregon City, Wednesday, July 19. All the bill boards, dead walls and old barns and deserted houses are placarded with red and yellow posters, emblazoned with the figures of creatures from every clime. Undoubtedly, in popular estimation, the chief attraction of Mr. Washburn's menagerie lies in "Cupid," the little baby elephant, who is only three feet high, three months old and weighs 200 pounds. Cupid is the most gentle and tiniest of elephants, and is never so pleased as when a crowd gathers around him, when he at once begins poking his trunk in all directions for dainties. The visitors give him cakes, candy, apples and fruit, at an average of two bushels a day, and he can digest anything but nails and quids of tobacco, of the latter he is very wary. As a staple food he eats hay, potatoes and bran. He has a constant attendant and keeper in Don Melville, who has been with him since birth. There is also a special groom for his quarter. Altogether he has a pretty good time. He is certainly a great feature, far ahead of any that has heretofore appeared in this city, and Mr. Washburn may well feel proud of so valuable an addition to his already extensive menagerie.

Notice of the Annual Institute.

Notice is hereby given that the Annual Institute for Clackamas county will be held in Oregon City beginning July 31 and continue for one week. Professor J. H. Ackerman, of Portland, has been engaged as an instructor and other good educators are expected to assist.

All teachers are cordially invited and expected to attend. H. S. GINSON, Superintendent of Schools, Clackamas County, Oregon.

Horses Strayed.

Two horses described as follows have recently strayed from my place; one brown 4-year old horse branded on the shoulder with a "Q" and wearing a bell; one sorrel 3-year-old horse with white face, branded the same as above. Any information relative to their whereabouts will be rewarded. JOHN BARRETH Oregon City, Or.

The Beasey children do not have more promised for them than they perform. They are promising little musicians, and what they already accomplish is wonderful for their year.

Misses Metta Brown, Grace Baird, Neita Barlow and M. S. Barlow have been re-elected to the Portland schools.

Cars were run to the Gladstone park on the Fourth, but the regular local car has not yet been placed on the run.

R. Morton of Damascus was in the city on Thursday. He reports very poor weather for haying.

The Fourth at Gladstone.

There were not less than 5000 people at Gladstone on the Fourth and the day was all that could be asked for them to enjoy the celebration. Half-hourly service was established on the electric line and several additional cars for the city travel, besides which the boat company had four boats plying the river making a half hourly, so that the crowd had pretty good accommodations.

The first thing in the morning was an exhibition drill by Company F with platoon and skirmish firing. This was very good and interesting. This was followed by the exercises at the park, Mayor Sullivan acting as president of the day. The exercises included an able and well delivered oration by Hon. Thos. H. Tongue and the reading in an effective manner of the Declaration of Independence by Miss Fannie G. Porter. Then came the basket dinner and in the afternoon the games and contests were watched by a large and interested crowd.

Among the most interesting of the contests were the bicycle race won by Millard Lee of Canby; the fat man's race won by C. Welch of Canemah; the log race won by Spencer and the swimming match won by Paustian. In this Spencer, his competitor, gave out and had to be taken from the water. The ball game was between the firemen and the High school team and resulted in favor of the firemen, the score standing 37 to 24. The tug of war between the Germans and the Americans was won by the Germans by two inches. Altogether the celebration was very pleasant and successful.

Butte Creek Fair.

The Butte Creek Fair Association held an important meeting last Saturday and transacted quite a large amount of business, arranging amongst other things for the immediate printing of the premium list which will be the most complete yet issued, as it includes quite a number of special premiums not heretofore listed. They report prospects for the fair better than at this time in any previous year of its history. Now is the time for all farmers and fruit raisers to make their preparations for an exhibit. It is also the proper time to collect grains and grasses.

Last Saturday S. H. Godfrey's team ran away from E. E. William's barn having been scared by a boat whistle, and ran to 5th street then up to the railroad and turned towards the depot. When near the alley they knocked down a deaf man named Simmons who has been here but a short time, and cut a jagged gash on the top of his head fully 4 inches long and another at the corner of the right eye 2 inches long and a third over the ear 3 inches long. Dr. Ferrin dressed the wounds and the man is getting along nicely.

Last Friday evening Fred Ely sold two dozen fruit jars to a stranger who wanted them left till his wife should call for them the next day. He offered in payment a $20.00 gold piece and asked to leave the balance over $15.00 for his wife to get when she called for the jars. He then left and the next morning Fred discovered that he had given the man $15 in good money and received a bogus 20 in place of it, and a bad bogus at that. No one called for the jars and Fred has $15.00 worth of experience.

The Fourth was spent very pleasantly at Wright's Springs by about 2000 people. The oration was delivered by Hon. Geo. C. Brownell who made one of his happiest efforts. Mr. U'ran of Milwaukee also addressed the large gathering. A basket dinner, dancing, and some races, served to complete a pleasant day.

The residence and grounds of P. F. Morey were elaborately and beautifully illuminated on the evening of the Fourth, electricity and Chinese lanterns mingling and forming a scene of oriental grandeur as viewed from the bridge or lower part of town.

Superintendent G. W. Prosser states that the Portland, Oswego road which has been closed for the past week to repair a bridge is now open for travel again.

"Mayflower," the third of the Beasey children, is a capital little pianist, though she is too short to think of using the pedals. Go and see her on the 8th.

Hugh McDermott died Thursday noon of consumption, aged 23 years and 9 months after a short illness. The funeral occurs Saturday at 10 o'clock.

Chas. Noblett, sr., has placed in Bear creek at his farm near Neely a lot of the young Michigan trout which were recently hatched at the hatchery.

The teachers elected for the 7th street school are, Prof. Powell of Weston, Misses Ednetta Chase, Gertrude Finley and Erma Lawrence.

The celebration at Oswego was broken up just as the people were gathering by a very hard shower which visited that section.

Miss Erma Lawrence has returned from Corvallis, having completed the course at the agricultural college.

Mrs. B. T. Broderson presented her husband with a fine son last week, of which he feels justly proud.

Track laying on the West Side Scenic line has begun at the south end.

Geo. Broughton is building a new picket fence around his premises.

Be Your Own Master.

Few people appreciate how much their impressions, their whims and impulses, and in fact all their mental energy depends on the harmonious action of all the vital organs. A poorly digested dinner may make one quarrel with a friend. A contested liver may bring imaginary gloom and trouble into the sunniest day. A rheumatic pain may keep you from business or work and entirely change some marked out policy. A few doses of Moore's Revealed Remedy will give tone to every function and make you enjoy your friends and your work.
