OUGHT NOT TO OBJECT

There is some reason for the opposition of poor persons to the improvement of Main street at this time when money is close and extremely hard to obtain, and the ENTERPHISE regrets exceedingly that such are to be caused more than the usual trouble gon City Manufacturing Company, an in- come in very useful in prying off the boards; benefits of the city government and paid for and Hall who might have then spent the take it elsewhere for investment and to not stand in dread as their several month's up Oregon City or considered in its conduct | ing at his hostelry must have taught them of affairs what was for the best good of the that they had nothing to lear in that line. community in which it was making its Seriously, the escape of these men should money.

They do not have to walk over the poor and uneven sidewalks and they do not have to drive over the rough and muddy streets, so they do not care to see them Improved because forsooth they will have to go down into their well filled stocking and spend a few of the dollars there stored. Instead of trying to check the growth of this city this company as well as some other of the objectors ought to be seeking ways to build it up.

THE TIDE TURNING.

Under this head the San Francisco Bulletin describes the financial situation as followa

The history of the most notable business depressions in this country confirms the theory that of late years they are of short duration. Some of the effects may be perceptible for a long time, but the season of distrust, which has much to do with bringing on the depression, is usually a short one, and it is succeeded by one of confidence. The country has just been passing through a season of distrust. It took, in some parts of the country, the form of an epidemic. It assailed the banks and forced many of them to suspend business. But it is worthy of note that only a very small proportion of these institutions were forced to go into liquidation. They were pursuing the ordinary course of business. The money had been let out to help along trade. If it they do not believe, is apparently alarmed had been kept in vaults business would have at the prospect of a third paper in Oregon been stagnant. #### At a recent armor test a 12-inch gun, firing an 850-pound projectile at a velocity of 1,858 feet a second, was brought against the 17-inch armor which is to encase the battleships Indiana, Massachusetts and Oregon. The projectile went through the 17inch plate, through three feet of oak backing and 15 feet of earth embankments and thence into the river. The test was determined by the fact that there was not a crack in the plate. As a result 700 tons of the armor were accepted. This armor ought to be proof against even English blunders in the Mediterranean.
