Molalla Corners' Expectations—New Saw Mill—Two Broken Limbs—New Dwellings in Prospect.

MOLALLA, July 31.—Our town has great expectations just now for future development on account of a syndicate going to erect a mammoth saw mill east of here for the sole purpose of shipping lumber to foreign markets. This means a railroad at least.

Miss Edith Lilly of Corvallis, who has been visiting for some time with her sister, Mrs. O. W. Robbins, returned home last Saturday.

Several more dwellings will be erected on the triangular block this summer. People begin to see we have the location for homes for comfort, and all that.

A hop house raising accident occurred about 6 p. m. Friday of last week. A young man by name of Williams fell twenty feet from the top of a hop house which was being raised east of Molalla river, striking some timbers and bruising him up generally besides fracturing his ankle. Doctors Leavitt and Paine were on the ground shortly after the accident and reduced the fracture.

Last Thursday at 4 p. m. Cary Herman had the misfortune to have his arm broken at the shoulder by a piece of flooring getting caught in the saw and striking him with the above result. Doctors Leavitt and Paine set the limb the following evening. The patient is resting well.

Wm. Mackell, Molalla's harness maker, has just returned from the seaside, where he has been for a month among relatives and friends. Mack looks well and has been enjoying the salty breezes these sultry days. He reports the temperature quite low enough on the coast for comfort.

Canby.

CANBY, Aug. 2.—Rev. J. N. Dennison, of Portland, who has been attending the camp-meeting at Central Point, Jackson county, Oregon, stopped off at Canby last Thursday to see his family who are taking a short vacation at the campgrounds.

H. C. Gilmore has sold his candy and cigar stand to Mr. Marks from Woodburn who has moved it into the building recently occupied by W. S. Kellogg.

H. C. Gilmore, D. R. Dimick, Doc Porter and Chas. Schmitt went to the mountains on a hunting and fishing tour last Thursday, returning on Monday with 300 fine mountain trout.

The Canby and Woodburn base ball teams played a match game on the Woodburn grounds last Saturday, making a tie game. The tie will be settled by another game in the near future. Each side scored 18.

J. W. Brooks & Son of Carlton were in our town Monday and Tuesday looking after fruit trees. They seem to like trees on this prairie and will probably buy about 30,000.

S. Norton and family who have resided at this place the past year left for their old home near Little Nestucca last Friday.

M. J. Lee left for Eastern Oregon last Wednesday on his bicycle. He will be gone three or four weeks to see what he can do selling fruit trees in that section of country.

I. Rogers and H. N. Cook will soon take a trip to the mountains on a hunting and fishing tour.

Fred Mott has quit railroading and returned to his home near New Era.

O. H. Barber has been laid up with a lame hip the past week preventing him from working on the railroad.

Rev. C. Louthier of Lafayette is in town again looking after the building of his new house.

E. U. Maddock of New Era was in our town on Monday.

The Canby boys are thinking of organizing a brass band.

F. Marks of Woodburn was in town Tuesday to see his brother.

J. C. Walgamot visited Portland last Friday.

Clyde Phillips is on the sick list.

Rev. Stevens of Portland preached in the Christian church Sunday morning.

Miss Ella Knight spent Wednesday in Oregon City.

GOSPEL MEETINGS.

Elder A. C. McKeever of the First Christian church of Portland, late of Garden City, Kansas, will begin a series of gospel meetings in Canby Monday evening, August 7th, in Knight's hall. You are specially invited to come out and hear him.

CANBY LETTER LIST.

The following is a list of letters remaining in the post office at Canby, Oregon, July 31st, 1893: Mrs. Amelia Davis, Lawson Moore, Jesse N. Offield, J. J. Smith, G. G. Walling, Mr. Adam Wright.

Geo. Knight, P. M.

Milwaukie.

MILWAUKIE, August 1.—A very pleasant surprise was tendered Miss Sansom of San Francisco at her friend's, Mrs. Matcheson, home on last Saturday evening. Vocal and instrumental music, numerous games and an elegant lunch were enjoyed by all. Those present were Misses Anna Rogers, Dora and Hattie Bonnet, Rastie and Anna Scott, Anna Wilson, Messrs. I. J. Gary, Robert and James Wilson, J. C. Hungerford, Oscar Wisinger, V. P. Conklin of Portland, Miss and Mr. Sansom of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Courtney, Mr. and Mrs. Matcheson.

The arrangements are now about completed for the erection of the new school house here. The bonds sold at 7 per cent. Bids will be opened at the school house Saturday, the 5th of this month for the building.

Miss Daisy and Lulu Trueblood of Newberg came down to spend a week among their many friends.

Mrs. J. C. Emmel of Newberg is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hoehly.

Maple Lane.

MAPLE LAKE, Aug. 1.—Last Friday Isaac Surfus and family met with a very painful accident. They were preparing a mixture to spray the trees and in heating it the kerosene ignited. In extinguishing the fire

Mr. Surfus, his wife and two children were burnt quite badly. Little Zelma is confined to her bed. Dr. Carll is in attendance. Very little damage was done to the house.

Thomas Davies has completed his new barn. The young people gave a dance Saturday night which was largely attended.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Morris, Mrs. Julia Eaton and little son, were the guests of Mrs. Morris's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Mautz, last Sunday.

Mrs. Arden Cheney of Oregon City spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Flora Richards.

There will be preaching at the school house Sunday at 3 o'clock by Rev. Ernst of Oregon City.

New Era.

NEW ERA, July 31.—Grain harvest has commenced in this locality and promises to be a protracted one on account of so much late sown spring grain. The yield will be about average.

John Schindler is building a new cellar on his farm near Canby.

Valentine Cloe has just completed a new barn the dimensions of which are 54x90. This is the third new barn in this locality since the opening of spring.

Frank Kruse was at the New Era camp meeting on the last Saturday. Frank is looking splendid. We hope he may get entirely well and see no reason why he will not.

Peter Engle has bought a second hand binder from J. L. Kruse.

Thos. Blanchard and Wm. Gutperlett in company have purchased a new binder.

Geo. Blanchard is tearing a house down and will move it on his own place and erect it again.

Peter Rauch and family of Silverton have been in this locality the last week visiting relatives.

John Burns and James Wilkinson are grubbing and clearing a ten acre tract of land for E. C. Maddock.

Justice Briggs and family went to Portland Saturday of last week and returned Sunday.

Mrs. J. L. Mattocks and Miss Mary Engle are at Wilhoit springs for a few days.

I believe the people voted for a "change" last November. Are they satisfied that they got it? I think they have, and got it right where the chicken got the ax.

Stafford.

STAFFORD, July 31.—A short time ago the cry was, "rain! rain! when will it clear off?" Now it is, "I wish we had a shower to settle the dust!"

Old Sol beamed down to the tune of 91 deg. yesterday. Today the mercury stands at 91½ deg. and not a breath of wind stirring. Rather warm for Oregon.

Mr. Wibour's daughter and her husband came on from Dakota on a visit of a few weeks. Their sons, Fred and Willie, were out Sunday to see their sister.

Jake Shatz is having his house remodeled and finished generally.

J. Q. and A. H. Gage left for the coast last Wednesday for a stay of two weeks.

Mr. Shatz has nearly all of the lumber on hand for his new house. He will build as soon as harvest is over.

George Behle is reported to be on the sick list.

Mink Mutterings.

MINK, Aug. 1.—Quite a number of our young folks went to Wilhoit springs last Sunday.

Mrs. Cooper, from Portland, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Wolf.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Moehne went to Portland last Wednesday to see the war ship Monterey.

Mrs. S. G. Jones from Park Place is visiting friends here.

Mr. Staben has purchased a new Osborne binder.

Mrs. F. Fraser is out here from Portland to spend a few weeks with her sister, M. A. Moehne.

Mr. and Mrs. Staben returned yesterday from Portland where they have been visiting friends.

Central Point.

CENTRAL POINT, July 28.—Harvesting of wheat has commenced in full earnest in this vicinity with a little less than an average crop. Oats will be a good crop on the hills but poor on the bottom land unless we have rain pretty soon. Potatoes need rain badly. Apples and pears are almost a failure. Plums and prunes will be plentiful and cheap. Vegetables are drying up for want of rain.

There will be a sociable and entertainment at Brown's school house on August 11, in the evening, for the benefit of our minister. Everybody is cordially invited to attend and bring a well filled lunch basket.

There will be preaching in the church next Sunday at 11 o'clock by Rev. Gardner. Sunday school every Sunday at half past ten.

Carus Happenings.

CARUS, July 31.—Grain harvest is close at hand. Weather clear and hot; 95 deg. in shade.

Elmer D. Cooper has bought forty acres of land of Dr. Goucher. Consideration $2200. Will Jones has just completed a fine piece of slashing containing about twenty acres. Special revival services commence Thursday evening in the Presbyterian church. Rev. Hickman will be assisted by Rev. Forbes of Portland.

Quite a number of Carusites are making arrangements to go to the mountains for an outing and to gather whortleberries, or huckleberries, as you choose to spell it.

Lu Ingram and family were up from Barlows Sunday to visit E. Milo Cooper.

Calla.

CURRINVILLE, Aug. 3.—Unless rain comes soon the late oat crop will be somewhat short.

During the past week quite a number of the men of the community were down working on the new road which is being built up Deep creek.

Mrs. Diona Currin is having a prolonged attack of rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Marrs are taking a trip to Salem and Linn county.

Miss Nellie Basie of Portland is visiting her cousin, Mrs. E. Y. Currin.

Rev. W. L. Molloy preaches his last sermon of the year next Sunday. On Saturday evening preceding there will be a social at the church, consisting of a short program, followed by a lunch.

FRUIT & FLOWERS

STRAWBERRIES.

Suitable Soil and Season For Planting—The Berries of 1893.

In the selection of soil for growing strawberries Greiner gives to a deep, well drained clay loam the preference, although a good crop can be grown on any soil adapted for the production of a good crop of corn. The lay and composition of the land have a great influence upon the season of ripening. Among the chief factors favoring earliness of crop are sandy composition of soil, porous subsoil, southeastern exposure and selection of early varieties. The market gardener who has a variety of soils and situations may make such selections and combinations which suit his particular purpose. By proper selection of conditions the berry season can be greatly lengthened, or the bulk of crop ripened in just such season as the market may be expected to be most favorable.

Early fall, or even summer, is the time usually selected for planting strawberries in the southern states. At the north we often prefer to plant in spring, unless we have a chance to get good plants—the first runners made after the fruiting season—not later than August. If these plants are "pot grown" or taken up with a clump of soil, they may be expected to do all the better, according to Mr. Greiner.

E. P. Powell, commenting upon the varieties of strawberries for 1893 in American Gardening, says the Cumberland is absolutely perfect in shape, is bisexual, will stand neglect, does not run out in a single year or two and makes the very best family berry. Bubach does well almost everywhere and so ranks next to the Cumberland as a great family berry.

The Haverland, a long, finger shaped berry, is an enormous cropper and does best on rather light soils.

The number of new sorts sent out this spring is not so large as usual. Timbrell seems to be emphatically ahead. Greenville is another novelty. E. P. Roe was one of last year's novelties, as also were Gillespie and Van Deman. Swindle is curiously named, but has proved an acquisition in some sections. Beverly and Leader are of the very best.

For a home garden the fruitgrower mentioned recommends to hold fast to Cumberland and Bubach and test such as Beverly, Princess, Leader and Lovett. Mrs. Cleveland is a berry not to be parted with; so also Crawford, Sadie and Pearl. Cyclone, a new berry, is said by good judges to be very fine. Beder Wood holds its own almost everywhere.

A New and Promising Rose.

The American Belle depicted in our illustration is a sport from American Beauty and originated with John Burton of Philadelphia in 1888. During the last two years it has been exhibited at Philadelphia, New York, Boston, Cincinnati and Chicago, winning silver cups and medals. At New York last November it won the Taylor cup for the best 50 new pink roses.

The American Belle, in growth while not quite as vigorous as the Beauty, is a free bloomer of large, handsome roses on long stems, and these roses are highly fragrant. Their color is a rich deep pink, fading with age to a beautiful light silvery pink. The Belle retains its fresh, bright color for several days after being cut. This rose, owing to its large size, is especially suitable for decorations and table bouquets.

Pears For Amateurs.

The characteristics of good market pears—solidity, abundant bearing, standing rough usage and similar points—are not always the best characteristics for a fruit that we would desire to grow for ourselves, according to Meehan's Monthly. The Bartlett, Sheldon, Belle Lucrative, Beurre d'Anjou, Beurre Bosc, Seckel, and, for an early kind, Doyenne d'Été, can seldom be had in the market, but are very desirable for one's own garden. Even kinds like Buffum, taking little room, have advantages for small gardens.

Fruit and Flower Brevities.

The trees of the sweet cherry are the preferable kind for shade, for which purpose they are excellent.

Potash and salt are recommended as a dressing for the quince tree.

BALD HEADS!

What is the condition of yours? Is your hair dry, harsh, brittle? Does it split at the ends? Has it a lifeless appearance? Does it fall out when combed or brushed? Is it full of dandruff? Does your scalp itch? Is it dry or in a heated condition? If these are some of your symptoms be warned in time or you will become bald.

Skookum Root Hair Grower

is what you need. Its production is not an accident, but the result of scientific research. Knowledge of the disease of the hair and scalp led to the discovery of how to treat them. "Skookum" contains neither mercury nor oil. It is not a dye, but a delightfully cooling and refreshing tonic. By stimulating the follicles, it stops falling hair, cures dandruff and grows hair on bald heads.

Keep the scalp clean, healthy, and free from irritating eruptions, by the use of Skookum Hair Grower. It destroys parasitic insects, which feed on and destroy the hair.

If your druggist cannot supply you send direct to us, and we will forward prepaid, on receipt of price. Grower, $1.00 per bottle; 4 for $3.00. Soap, 50c per jar, 4 for $2.00.
