The lecture by Prof. P. L. Campbell at Shively's hall on Tuesday evening was largely attended, the hall being well filled. The lecture was both interesting and instructive, the subject being, "Froebel as a Man and Reformer."

Geo. Plumyca, a member of the Odd Fellows' lodge of this city and who has been a charge on this lodge for the past year, died in Portland last Wednesday.

Portland vs. Oregon City.

Two games of base ball were played on the home grounds the past week between Portland and Oregon City. Saturday's game was but poorly attended and those present spoke of it as a rocky game all around. The score intends that somebody was caught a napping. The runs by innings were as follows.

Score table for Portland vs Oregon City. Columns: Innings 1-9, Portland runs, O. City runs.

Batteries—Portland, Bellinger and Schwartz; Oregon City, Davey and Fennimore.

Sunday's game was livelier and there was a better attendance. The boys on both sides took interest enough in the playing to keep the score within bounds. By innings the game stood:

Batteries—Portland, Bellinger and Schwartz; Oregon City, Davey and Fennimore.

Oregon City is booked to play St. Paul at Gervais on the 6th. A good many are planning to go from here as a good game is expected.

Col. Robert A. Miller, who is to succeed Capt. J. T. Apperson as register of the land office, did not take charge of the office on the first of the month as was expected on account of the non arrival of his commission. Col. Bob, as his many friends call him, has been here for several days and is getting acquainted with his to be fellow citizens. From a long acquaintance with Mr. Miller we can assure the people of Oregon City that they will find him a congenial companion. The ENTERPRISE has only one kick coming, and that is that the democracy did not do better by a man who has borne the brunt of their battles in the state.

The success of Mrs. Annie M. Beam, of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, in the treatment of diarrhoea in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to many mothers. She says: "I spent several weeks in Johnstown, Pa., after the great flood, on account of my husband being employed there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the Diarrhoea very badly. I got some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy from Rev. Mr. Chapman. It cured both of them. I knew of several other cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be excelled and cheerfully recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by GEO. A. HARDING.

Ah Sam, who rents a piece of land of C. Kocher near Canby, was arrested last week on complaint of his landlord for trespass. The case was tried before Judge Fouts on Monday and Ah Sam was convicted and a fine of $16.00 and costs imposed. The strangest part of the case was that Ah Sam borrowed the money to settle his suit from the man who brought the suit.

Mr. J. C. Boswell, one of the best known and most respected citizens of Brownwood, Texas, suffered with diarrhoea for a long time and tried many different remedies without benefit, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was used; that relieved him at once. For sale by Geo. A. Harding.

The "pore folks" concert at the Congregational church on Friday evening was a great success and some of the get ups were perfectly horrible, "don't you know". Everybody had a good time and the receipts showed that folks are not so very poor after all.

G. W. Prosser, superintendent of road district No. 4, is taking the proper steps to secure all the road tax in his district, by having notices prepared to serve upon all delinquents, then when the proper time has elapsed he will collect by stress.

There will be an entertainment for the teachers at Shively's hall on Friday evening to which everybody is invited. Songs, recitations, reading, etc., will be in order. The band will be present and take part. Free—don't fail to go.

W. A. Stratton was in the city on Wednesday giving in his assessment to the county. Speaking of the Main street improvement he said that he had the money to pay for it and was in favor of the improvement.

Attorney Emmett Williams was in the city Wednesday representing the Oregon City Wollen mill in opposition to the street improvement. He met with very poor success in his efforts with the council.

In the line of furniture, carpets, window shades, wall paper, lounges and mattresses you can beat Portland prices by calling in the Oregon City bank block under the ENTERPRISE office. x

Last Friday Mr. P. F. Morey gave a very pleasant party at his park below town in honor of the 12th birthdays of Berry Eastham and Carlton Harding whose birthdays come within a few days of each other. On this account it has become customary for them to have a joint party. Mr. Morey chartered the Altona for the occasion and she took down a party of eighty of the happiest people in town. The day was lovely and everyone had a delightful time.

Last Friday was a blue day in business affairs in Portland, caused by the closing of several banks. The Commercial National, Ainsworth National, Portland Savings' Bank and the First National of East Portland are now closed, but all expect soon to resume. No flurry has been felt here on account of the failures in Portland, and our northern neighbor has again settled down to her usual balance.

L. G. Gurnett intends to spend the vacation which the closing of the mills affords him by running around for business and pleasure. He intends to go to Astoria and the sea shore on Friday to remain till the first of the week when he will run over to British Columbia for a few days, and by the end of next week be ready for a few days fishing up the McKenzie.

The institute will be continued until Wednesday of next week when the quarterly examination will begin.

Mr. Thomas Batts, editor of the Graphic, Texarkana, Arkansas, has found what he believes to be the best remedy in existence for the flux. His experience is well worth remembering. He says: "Last summer I had a very severe attack of flux. I tried almost every known remedy, none giving relief. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended to me. I purchased a bottle and received almost immediate relief. I continued to use the medicine and was entirely cured. I take pleasure in recommending this remedy to any person suffering with such a disease, as in my opinion it is the best medicine in existence. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by GEORGE A. HARDING.

Frankfort, N. Y., Dec. 28, 1891. Mr. NORMAN LIGHTY, Des Moines Iowa. DEAR SIR:—Last summer I procured a box of your "Headache Capsules" from a friend. I found them splendid, but have been unable to find them here; therefore write to you asking you to send me a box as soon as possible, as I do not like to be without them. Please be prompt and oblige.
