School Building Removed—Numerous Bids for a New Structure—Pleasant Boating Parties.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 8.—U. S. Howland is all smiles and happy. It's a boy—born Sunday morning. All doing well.

Chaley Fisher has his pottery running in full force. He is now burning several thousand brick and pots.

The old Milwaukee school house that has stood as a landmark for many years has at last been removed to make room for the $1000 school building. Bids were opened Tuesday for the work, but it will not be known definitely for a few days who will be the fortunate one to get the contract. There were in all about forty bidders. The old building will be used for school purposes until the new one is completed which will be in about three months.

Friday evening some of the young ladies and gentlemen gave a boating party in honor of the Misses Daisy and Lula Trueblood of Newberg, who are visiting old acquaintances here. The boats were decorated with Japanese lanterns, and a full stringed orchestra furnished the music. Refreshments were served and every one had a good time. Those present were Misses Daisy and Lula Trueblood, Hattie and Dora Bonnet, Rosa and Anna Scott, Anna Rogers, Anna Wilson, Messrs. Oscar and George Weisinger, T. J. Gary, Charles Mullan, J. C. Hungerford, Robert and James Wilson.

Canby Cullings.

CANBY, Aug. 9.—Elder A. C. McKeever of the First Christian church of Portland commenced a series of meetings at Knight's hall Monday evening, August 7. The meetings will continue through the coming week.

H. C. Gilmore and wife, Chester Hodges, Clyde Phillips and Elvira Lee went to the Little Nestucca to spend a week on the seashore hunting and fishing.

Fred Hampton and wife, George Zeek, Lee Rogers and Blaine White went to the mountains last Wednesday to gather huckleberries, also to hunt and fish.

Mrs. Hodges and Mrs. Kendall went to the springs last Wednesday for an outing of two or three weeks.

Millard Lee and David Cox went on the wheelmen's excursion to Clatsop and Gearhart Beach last Thursday, returning Tuesday evening. Both report having had a fine time on the beach.

Work on the First Christian church of Canby began on Monday. The carpenters have the frame work pretty well under way. They intend to have it finished by the 15th or 20th of September.

Beson and Harnden, of Vancouver, Washington, passed through town last Thursday on their bicycles en route to San Francisco.

N. Doucet, who went to Eastern Washington some five weeks ago, returned to Canby last Thursday. Nick reports things rather dull in that part of the country.

J. A. Chase and wife of Park Place are spending a few weeks on their farm near Canby.

J. Hess who has been away the past year returned to his home near Canby Thursday. Mr. Chas. Schmitt is putting a coat of paint on his new barn.

Miss Alma Gardner went to Portland last Wednesday morning to see her mother who is under the care of physicians in the Portland hospital.

J. A. Cox will start up his threshing machine Monday for the summer run.

S. H. Shull returned from the coast Monday.

Molalla.

MOLALLA, Aug. 7.—Canby and Marquam teams played base ball at the Soda Springs Sunday, resulting in a run of 39 for the former and 29 for the latter.

Uncle Jacob Harless, who sold his farm northwest of town recently for $8,000, talks of going to preaching with the object of "pleasing the boys" if he doesn't convert them.

Carey Herman, who recently got his arm broken in a saw mill, is about again.

Herman Bros. have announced that they will run their threshing machine this season for "2 and 3."

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Parker of Albany are visiting at R. E. Thomas's. Mr. Parker is a son of E. A. Parker of the firm of Bell & Parker formerly of Oregon City, and is the senior partner of Parker Bros. of the Albany bakery.

One day last week W. A. Shaver and W. H. Engle each lost his watch in the harvest field, and before the shades of night hovered around, each was fortunate enough to find his own.

Sore, but still on deck. Ye scribe received the concussion of a falling plank about the ear, fell into the well taking the ends off of two fingers by putting on the brake too suddenly with a rope, got his shin bone sprained by a horse occupying his track too soon, and otherwise damaged his knees, all within a week, yet thinks he is about the luckiest fellow for awkwardness out of town.

Fall grain will be about all harvested this week and will yield all the way from 20 to 50 bushels per acre.

The pastures are getting pretty dry, and hogs are growing thin whetting their teeth for the approaching stubble fields.

Wm. Mackel has sold out his harness shop to Charles Cross and will go into business at Young's Bay.

Sandy.

SANDY, Aug. 5.—Haying is all over and farmers are preparing for the harvest which will be on hand in a few days. Some rye and fall sown wheat are ready to cut.

The apple crop will not amount to much this year, but prunes and plums will be the best ever known in this section of country.

The blackberries are ripe and wagon loads of people are flocking out to the patches to fill their buckets.

H. J. Scherner was out from Portland to spend a few days fishing and was much pleased with this country.

Last Sunday Mr. Cutty's house caught fire. The fire was discovered too late to save the house and in a few moments it was in ashes. Mr. Cutty has had luck with fire. About a year ago his barn burned down, and a little after that the floor of his house burned out, and now all is burned up. It is understood there was no insurance.

Mr. Strowbridge has moved out from town to spend the summer on his place near Sandy.

The travel over the mountain has been small so far.

Only a few campers have gone up to the mountains, but their numbers increase as the warm weather continues.

A party of twenty-five men are coming out from Portland on their bicycles for a pleasure trip through the Sandy country.

F. Elling has moved into his new house which he recently finished.

Some of the Sandy people are again down with the railroad fever as they say the road is to be built this winter. They would better build it soon if they want help, as the people are getting discouraged through waiting so long.

Sandy is in need of a blacksmith. There is no shop in this neighborhood, and a good blacksmith who knows how to shoe horses can do a good business at it here.

Fred Sogg lost his best pony by feeding it too much green clover.

Paul Speelman, while holding a rope on a hay fork, had the misfortune to get his hand in the pulley and having the ends of three of his fingers mashed.

New Era.

NEW ERA, Aug. 8.—Weather is fine and farmers are busy harvesting an average crop of grain.

David McArthur has received from Portland a new Osborne harvester.

Lawrence Ferguson, with the assistance of P. H. Meade and H. S. Howell, is erecting a barn on his farm near New Era.

On the 7th instant the Southern Pacific cars took from here twenty-two car loads of wood for the use of the company.

Road Overseer C. H. Foster is replacing a portion of the floor of Parrott creek bridge at this place with new plank. It was a much needed change.

S. Cox returned to Canby with his steam wood saw during the past week.

Lake Casto, who recently returned home from school at Corvallis, has been acting postmaster and railroad station agent in place of S. C. Newbury who has been absent on business.

The Rev. Fathers of the Catholic church, Hillebrand of Oregon City, Bushalzer, of East Portland, and Leish of Brooks, have visited the church at this place during the past week.

George H. Brown recently returned from east of the mountains where he had been on a business trip.

Mrs. E. Stetinger intends soon to remove to Portland.

Fred Chinn and family have returned home from a pleasure trip to the coast.

Mrs. James Porter will start to her home in Iowa some time this week.

Mrs. Storsburg who has been quite ill of late is rapidly recovering.

On reading concerning the banks of Portland and other cities and towns closing their doors, the average citizen of New Era, while sympathizing with his fellow man, cannot help feeling proud when he calls to mind the fact that no such dire financial calamity as the undue closing of a bank has ever visited your fair town.

Marks Prairie.

MARKS PRAIRIE, Aug. 7.—The harvesting of fall wheat is progressing very nicely on Marks Prairie and a few more days will be sufficient for that crop. The yield will be a good average. Spring wheat will be late and light if rains don't come soon. Early oats will be good but that sown later will be light. Potatoes and garden vegetables are also well at present but need rain to insure a good crop. Hops are doing well, are making a fine growth, and will be a good crop.

J. H. Zwilling has about completed his contract of building a new house and barn tract of building of Aurora. The improvements were on one of the doctor's farms on the prairie. The work has been well done.

Mr. Lee Yoder and Mrs. J. O. Schwartz of Needy were visiting one day last week on the prairie.

George Kinzer of Needy is making his binder buzz on Marks Prairie. The Portland hands may bust but George is all right.

Henry Knight of Canby was making calls on the prairie last Sunday.

Jacob Hanson and family of Salem have been visiting with Mrs. Hanson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Marks. Mr. Hanson said that times were looking rather blue at Salem at this time.

As fall wheat will be about all cut this week the hum of the threshing machine and the whistle of the engine will soon be heard in this section of the county.

Damascus.

DAMASCUS, Aug. 8.—The Damascus farmers are having their grain cut.

Died, August 21, at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Wolfhagen, Miss Henrietta Smathers, aged 17 years, 8 months and 23 days. Her disease was consumption. Her funeral sermon was preached by Rev. J. M. Johnston on the 4th inst. at the Free Methodist church in Damascus.

Mrs. George Dordorf and daughter Ida have gone to the springs to spend a few days.

John Elliott, wife and daughter, Walter, Fanny and Rena Bohna and Hattie Osborn, started to the coast last Friday. Albert Bohna and Ed Elliott have taken charge of the store during John's absence.

J. A. Royer's many friends have gone to help him raise his new barn today.

Mrs. Henry Breithaupt's father and mother from Washington county are making her a visit.

Mrs. Parsons, who has been visiting her relatives and friends in and around Damascus, expects soon to return to her home in Salem.

John Hilleary has purchased a fine new buggy and for the last two Sundays has made a trip up to Cherryville.

Beaver Creek.

BEAVER CREEK, Aug. 7.—Rev. Forbes, of Albina, has been holding a series of meetings at the Presbyterian church. Quite a large interest was manifested.

Tirzah Edwards has been sick but is now improving.

The neck-tie social held at Mrs. Ed.

Hughes's was a grand success. About $7.00 was cleared, the sum to go for the benefit of the young people's Society of Christian Endeavor and the literary society.

Miss Jennie Rowen is going to the coast. She will start some time next week.

Rev. Hickman, who has been in charge of the Presbyterian church for the summer, will leave for New Jersey in about two weeks.

M. Graybill, a son-in-law of J. J. Guyer, has just arrived from Kansas. He reports hot winds and no crops. OBSERVER.

OSWEGO NEWS.

The Furnace Blown Out—About the Roads—Neighborhood Notes.

OSWEGO, Aug. 9.—The furnace is shut down to get lime rock. Pipe works still alive.

Henry Gans and his bride have returned from the World's Fair.

Our friend H. Fox is called on to pay for that calf or show the deer tracks.

Wm. Whitten has returned from the Columbia river well loaded with coin.

Andrew Monroe is up on a visit with his brother James Monroe.

Frenchey, the noted horse shoer, has started a shop in Old Town.

Corner lots are held up but inside lots and rent go down.

The steamer Ajax on the Tualatin rests easy on the bottom. Polk says he thought so.

L. A. Jackson, W. H. Welsh and Jo Willis went up the creek that passes the Wilhoit springs and report hunting good and fishing plentiful.

The people want Supervisor Prosser to sprinkle the roads as they are out of sight under the dust.

James M. Layman is still setting up the cigars in honor of his big boy.

G. W. Prosser reports that the so long isolated Peter Wise bridge is now open and in good condition for travel and the road down the river from the Tualatin to Oregon City will be kept open.

Don't say the bridge is a failure. The grade is no more than three feet to the hundred down the river from the bridge.

The electric company will do all in reason to help the road to Oregon City, and have laid out a new road from the Tualatin to the end of the Oregon city bridge on a good grade, and will apply to the county court to have it made a county road.

Road and school questions seem to bother the people more than the tariff. Cleveland don't say much, does he?

Clackamas.

CLACKAMAS, Aug. 8.—By the last of the week Clackamas will be almost a deserted village as quite a number of its inhabitants started for the mountains this morning for blackberries, and more intend going tomorrow.

The boarding house has changed hands, the former proprietor, Mrs. Spurgeon, having moved out and Mr. Hornburger taken charge.

Miss Katie Cook has returned from a trip to the mountains and reports having had a good time.

Irvin Wilson has purchased a house and lot of Mr. Cummings and has gone to house-keeping.

W. H. Dedman, Jr., who formerly resided in Clackamas, spent his week's vacation among relatives and friends.

Quite a crowd went to the hatchery last Saturday on a picnic, which proved to be one of the finest of the season.

M. Bagly died at his home on Monday the 7th, after suffering sometime with cancer of the stomach.

Lower Beaver Creek.

LOWER BEAVER CREEK, Aug. 8.—Harvesting has begun at last and we can hear the clicking of the self binders.

Wm. McDonald was trying his new horse last week when the horse became frightened and ran away throwing him against a tree and bruising him up somewhat, but not serious.

Mr. Gilbrich has a fine piece of wheat that stands about an ordinary man's head.

Miss Gussie Casto is here from Corvallis visiting old school mates and friends.

The ice cream social at the Leland school house was a success financially, the receipts amounting to $12.

Frank Casto was visiting his father on their farm last Sunday. Late sown grain and potatoes need rain very much.

HAYVEED.

MAPLE LAKE, Aug. 6.—The farmers expect to be through harvesting this week.

Morgan Howell, of South Wales, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Thos. Davies, left for the East last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Prindle of Oregon City were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Shortledge last Wednesday.

Robert McBride of Portland spent Sunday with his uncle A. Mautz.

Will Andersen and Harley Wishart spent Sunday with John Davies.

Mrs. D. J. Finn of Portland is the guest of Mrs. N. W. Richards.

Stafford.

STAFFORD, Aug. 8.—A very pleasant hazelnut party was given by the Messrs. Gages and G. Ritter last week. The main feature of the day was picking hazelnuts of which they got about two bushels. The young folks started from Mr. Gages' at 2:30 P. M. and returned about 4:30 P. M. They played games until 5 o'clock when cake was served by the young ladies and then the young folks went home well satisfied with their

Logan Notes.

LOGAN, Aug. 8.—Miss Matilda Reed commenced her school at the Logan school house last Monday. The attendance was not very great the first day the enrollment being fourteen. This is the third term for Miss Reed in the Logan school. She is well liked by all the scholars and very much respected by all who know her. Her school will continue about four months. After the close of her school she will probably go to college for a short time to renew a few of the higher studies before teaching school again.

La Grippe.

During the prevalence of the Grippe the past season it was a noticeable fact that those who depended upon Dr. King's New Discovery, not only had a speedy recovery, but escaped all of the troublesome after effects of the malady. This remedy seems to have a peculiar power in effecting cures not only in cases of La Grippe, but in all Diseases of Throat, Chest and Lungs, and has cured cases of Asthma and Hay Fever of long standing. Try it and be convinced. It won't disappoint. Free Trial Bottles at Geo. A. Harding's Drug Store.

is what you need. Its production is not an accident, but the result of scientific research. Knowledge of the disease of the hair and scalp led to the discovery of how to treat them. "Skookum" contains neither minerals nor oils. It is not a dye, but a delightfully cooling and refreshing tonic. It stimulates the follicles, it stops falling hair, cures dandruff and grows hair on the head.

Keep the scalp clean, healthy, and free from irritating eruptions, by the use of Skookum Skin Soap. It destroys parasitic insects, which feed on and destroy the hair.

If your druggist cannot supply you send direct to us, and we will forward promptly, on receipt of price. Grower, $1.50 per bottle; 5 for $6.00. Soap, 50¢ per jar; 4 for $2.00.
