New Evangelical Church in Canby—A Wedding and Serenade—Sundry Social Items.

CANBY, Aug. 27.—Work began on the new Evangelical church last Monday upon the acre of land donated by Charles Luke. The work is being pushed very rapidly as it is intended to have it completed by the 15th of September.

Rev. C. A. Rice, recently from Arizona, lectured on Prohibition and Good Temperance in the Methodist church last Thursday evening to a large and attentive audience.

James Evans has been refitting one of his buildings recently occupied by H. C. Gilmore. Mr. Evans intends to live in Canby the coming fall and winter so as to send his children to school which begins the 18th of September.

Married, near Canby, Thursday, August 24, Miss Nettie Thomas and Laef Riggs. In the evening the boys gave them an old-fashioned serenade and were given in return a grand treat of good things. The happy couple will make their home near Mackburg.

Thos. McFadden of Molalla has been kept quite busy the past two weeks hauling goods for Robbins & Son of that place.

Rev. J. W. Gardner and Rev. C. Lowther of Canby are attending the annual quarterly conference of the M. E. church at Albany.

Milo Lee returned Saturday from a visit of a few weeks to friends and relatives living near Lebanon.

Miss Emma Whitney left for La Grande, Oregon, last Thursday, where she is engaged to soon begin a term of school.

F. Zollner took a trip on his bicycle last Thursday to the Molalla country.

Mr. Jarisch and wife of Oswego were the guests last Saturday of Mrs. Jno. Roth.

Cal. Ball returned Thursday from a trip of a few weeks to the mountains.

Wm. Birchett, of Marquam, was here among friends and relatives last Thursday and Friday.

John Roth, who has been working at Park Place the last two months, has returned home.

New Era Notes.

NEW ERA, Aug. 29.—The busy hum of the threshing machine is heard on every hand, and farmers are enjoying the benefit of an average crop of all varieties of cereals.

The members of Warner grange held a regular meeting at their hall in this place on Saturday, August 26, transacting the regular routine of business, which was followed by the initiation of some new members into the order.

One day last week John and Will Kaiser were engaged in chopping down a tree when it fell much quicker than was expected. Both jumped to escape the falling tree when the double-edged ax held in the hands of John struck Will on the ribs inflicting a gash about five inches long. Had the ax struck him a few inches lower the wound might have proved fatal.

The pay car of the Southern Pacific company passed over the line on the 28th inst., halting at this station long enough to pay the employees of the company their regular allowance of gold, silver and greenbacks, all of which was very acceptable.

Many are now preparing to engage in hop picking which will commence in about one week.

Herman Anthony gave a pleasant and well attended ball at his hall in this place on the evening of August 26, it being the first of the season. We believe he intends making these balls of frequent recurrence the coming winter.

Mrs. Katie Kehm Smith passed through this place on the morning of August the 28th en route to her home near Rock Island from Wright's Springs where she had delivered a lecture to a large and attentive audience.

Milwaukee.

Connie Harlow returned from Idaho and Montana where he has been traveling for about two months.

Mr. Pfunder, florist of Portland, with his daughters, Misses Rosa and Lillie, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Bonnet Sunday.

Marks Prairie.

MARKS PRAIRIE, Aug. 28.—The weather continues hot and dry with considerable wind and dust, which is very injurious to hops, as they are being dried and ripened too fast. The hopgrowers contemplate to commence picking about September 5th. Some will commence earlier than that if it continues hot and dry in order to save their hops.

The fall wheat is all threshed in the neighborhood except some small jobs. The harvesting of spring wheat and oats is progressing at present.

Mrs. E. E. Cunningham was taken very sick last Sunday morning. Dr. W. W. Geisy of Aurora was summoned and now the patient is rapidly recovering.

Wm. Yoder and family, of Yoderville, were the guests of M. J. John and T. M. Farnsworth last Saturday and Sunday.

J. R. Marks went to Portland last Friday and returned Saturday morning in company with two other young men from that city who put in the remainder of that day and Sunday hunting, and if we were to judge from the number of shots that were fired there are not many birds left for the Marks Prairie people.

C. Koehner thinks that wheat will bring a price sufficient to pay for sacks and freight to Oregon City. That beats wool, for some of our farmers are selling their wheat at that low price and holding their wool. What has become of the party that was going to give the farmers $1.25 per bushel for wheat, and have free wool, and have it high? I don't know where to look for it.

Boring Dots.

BORING, Aug. 26.—J. A. Richey has got him a new twine binder with which to cut his grain.

Mr. Faubion is putting up a new barn in which he intends to keep his hay.

J. A. Sutton has been hauling lumber to fix the house in which he expects to live this winter.

Death has once more come into our midst and claimed Electa Ann Whitney, who was born in the city of Rochester, N. Y., September 24, 1827. She emigrated to Michigan at the age of sixteen; was married to Aaron Preston in 1846; moved to Kansas where she remained eight years; crossed the plains to Oregon in 1879, where she remained until the time of her death. She was taken sick the first of March and at times was a great sufferer. She had taken no nourishment excepting water for forty-one days before her death, which occurred August 21st at the age of 66 years, 11 months and 27 days. She was buried at the Damascus cemetery the following day.

Cherryville.

CHEERRYVILLE, Aug. 29.—Miss Minnie Flynn is just recovering from an illness of ten days.

Claude Baty was brought home a few days ago from East Portland, still convalescing from his long sickness.

Glad to hear of the improvement of Elder Trullinger's health at the asylum. He wrote an interesting letter to his family. Mrs. Trullinger has been visiting friends near Damascus.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Baty have just buried in one grave their twin babes, Asa Elbert and Gracie Alberta, aged five months and 14 days. Elder Rich preached an able and touching burial discourse.

The extreme dryness of all combustibles in the foot hills should make every one careful and vigilant. Small fires in the woods are in sight almost constantly and larger ones are to be expected at any time.

Campers have been uncommonly numerous this month. They seem to enjoy the shade and the murmur of little creeks, but they have a dusty drive to reach our hills.

LANTERN.

Beaver Creek.

BEAVER CREEK, Aug. 29.—Harvesting is nearly completed, and the whistle and buzz of the thresher is now heard in the land.

The oyster supper at Mr. Shannon's last Thursday was a grand success, for which Mrs. Shannon deserves great credit. The proceeds went to the minister.

Miss Jennie Bowen has returned from her trip to the coast.

Beaver Creek school will begin next Monday with A. Strange as teacher.

M. T. Root is erecting a new house and barn on his farm.

Mr. Hickman, who has been pastor of the Presbyterian church of this place the past four months, preached his farewell sermon last Sabbath evening. Mr. Hickman will be a student at the Princeton Seminary in New Jersey the coming year.

James Shannon had the misfortune to be mixed up with a runaway and now has to have the assistance of two canes to help him around.

Clackamas Chatter.

CLACKAMAS, Aug. 30.—Clackamas, as well as other places, needs rain.

Will Not Move.

The Three Sisters of Barlow contain the following item from which one might infer that the Crown Mills were to be moved from Oregon City. It says: "The Crown Mill Company now located at Oregon City, have decided to move their plant to Barlow in the near future. They have about closed a bargain with John Rueck to purchase ten acres of land on the Molalla river. Mr. Barlow having offered a bonus of twenty acres makes it almost a certainty that Barlow will soon have a paper mill employing about thirty hands. It has been ascertained that the Molalla with a fall of thirteen feet furnishes 1200 horse-power. W. P. Hawley, of the Crown Paper mills says concerning this matter that it is not the intention of the company to move their large paper mill from this city as they have too much invested in the plant and too good a location for their business to permit of their thinking of moving. The demand for paper such as their machines are made to turn out requires that they use considerable quantities of wood pulp and it is to provide the paper mill here with this raw material that they will build a wood pulp mill at Barlow as soon as money matters ease up so as to make money obtainable. As financial matters are at present they with all other manufacturers are handicapped and have plenty of trouble to keep their present plants occupied without building new, or enlarging those already in operation.

California Names Ending In O.

Attention has not been called, we believe, to one peculiarity—that is, the number of geographical names in California which end with o. In this respect this state must be awarded the championship medal, as a brief inspection of any list of names of places will show. First, among the 58 counties of California there are no less than 14 which end with the round letter. They are El Dorado, Fresno, Inyo, Mendocino, Mono, Sacramento, San Benito, San Bernardino, San Diego, San Francisco, San Luis Obispo, San Mateo, Solano and Yolo. It is to be observed that only a portion of these are named from masculine saints in the Spanish calendar, Fresno, Inyo, Mono, Solano and others being presumably Indian names, though the termination may have been put on by the early Spanish settlers. When we come to towns in California whose names end in o, their name is legion. There are, among others, Acampo, Alamo, Bernardo, Blanco, Calito, Capistrano, Decoto, Echo, El Casco, Fruto, Igo, Jacinto, Largo, Llano, Milo, Moreno, Navarro, Nicasio, Ono, Palermo, Philo, Rialto, Sausalito, Tropic, Venado and Volcano.

In the compilation of this imperfect catalogue the towns and cities named for saints have been omitted, as the list would be entirely too long, running from San Antonio through most of the letters of the alphabet to San Ysidro. There is said to be a reason for all this, and it is not unlikely that the names given by the early and pious Spanish settlers to their settlements may have sounded pleasant to the gringos who came after them and have influenced them, perhaps unconsciously, to confer upon their own mining camps and villages and towns names ending with the letter o.—San Francisco Chronicle.

A Touch of Fellow Feeling.

"We do indeed have some queer experiences," said the trained nurse, taking off her white cap and giving its dainty bow a few deft, reconstructing touches, "and many interesting and diverting episodes also. Not long ago I was sent for to attend a minister's wife and must confess that I responded to the call with some trepidation and apprehension. It was my first experience in a minister's family, and I was afraid that my patient might ask me to pray with her or read the Bible to her, which most excellent offices would be wholly out of my line and would cause me much embarrassment.

"When I reached my post of duty, I found the minister's wife suffering a great deal, and my first office was to make and apply a mustard plaster. I concocted it with a generous and conscientious hand, and it must have been pretty warm, for several seconds after I had deferentially applied the mustard plaster on the person of the minister's wife she groaned dismally. Leaning over her to discover whether her pain had increased, I heard her murmur softly but energetically:

"Oh, jimmie! It's too hot! I can't stand it!"

"Perhaps you can imagine how my heart leaped toward the dear woman at this touch of nature. We had a delightful time together when she got better. She was a good woman, too, but like the rest of us she had her favorite ejaculations under compelling circumstances."
