ASSOCIATION MEETING.

The Clackamas County Teachers' Association held its regular meeting it

The association was called to order by Superintendent Gibson. The Marquam choir then favored the teachers with "What is good order as applied to a school" was discussed by Miss Edna of "Recreation." He said that in the Cherryville, P. O. country, means of recreation were more easily obtained as the pupil had a better chance for play; but in the city schools the means were limited. Then on Saturday last a man, whose name it would be necessary to have marching, calisthenics, etc. His remarks called as to have a fine white garment returned the pulp machine in one of the mills for quite a discussion. Mr. Hibbard from the laundry yellow and mussy, at Oregon City and was ground to pieces, thought that the teacher ought to have buttons half off, and in a condition not control to a certain extent of the re- fit to wear. The Troy Steam Laundry to do so, if it could be prevented.

Mr. Heckman then talked on the subject. "Should textbooks be furnished free to the schools. He thought they ought to be. He said that in Pennsylvania the state from which he came Salem Statesman notes the 2,000,000 that such was the custom and he thought feet of balm and cottonwood log, which it an excellent plan. He was supported by Miss Ross and Mr. Griffith. for the Oregon City paper and pulp Miss Porter remarked that she did not see why their books should be furnished

The subject of ethics was presented by Mr. Griffith. He thought that a text-book should be used in the public

Mr. Hibbard and Mr. Story took an active part in discussing this subject. They thought that if the textbook was used and the teacher taught the subject by example as well as precept that we would be approaching something like an BELLADONNA.

Miss Porter then presented the subject of drawing. She thought that drawing should be a leading feature in every branch of study. She believed that pupils should also be taught to study nature and draw from it.

The subject of music in the public schools was opened for discussion by Miss Rowen. She said that in order to make a success of music, it would be necessary to make it one of the studies these books are filed small, so that it is truly one of Oregon's greatest curiosities. Ross strongly opposed this measure, but ast much trouble to get them out with DEAF-MUTE SCHOOL - Will reopen for Hibbard and Story. Mr. Story thought out cutting the fish to pieces.
