

CLACKAMAS COUNTY

THE ENTERPRISE CORRESPONDENTS SWEEP THE FIELD.

Easy Threshers—Return of Hop Pickers—Thrown From a Horse—Other Neighborhood Notes.

STAFFORD, Sept. 25.—Geo. Phillips is the proud father of a nine pound son.

The Johnson & Moser threshing company have got through with wheat and oats and expect to commence threshing clover this week.

Sharp Bros., Schroeder & Co. have such a rush in the threshing business this fall that they are running Sunday and all the days of the week that follow.

A dance was given at T. P. Larson's Saturday night and a royal good time was had by all.

Messlames M. A. and M. J. Gage, Misses M. A., O. Z., and A. B. Gage, and Mr. H. C. Branch returned Saturday from Fulton where they had been engaged in picking hops. They look somewhat soiled but hearty.

Last week as G. Phillips was going to the local blacksmith's, F. Neibauer, on horseback at great speed, his cinch broke and he was thrown under his horse and bruised quite badly on the arms and legs.

Jake Schatz is painting his father's house a beautiful sky-yellow. (?)

Ed. Carpenter and Della Larson have returned from a two weeks sojourn to the coast at Nestucca.

Wednesday last while working around a threshing machine one of the boys ran through the crowd with an open knife accidentally striking Andrew Weiss on the hand making a serious lacerating wound.

Coyotes hum their sweet lullabys these pleasant moonlit nights in the hills adjoining this place.

H. C. Branch has gone to Portland in search of work.

D. R. and J. Q. Gage returned home from Nestucca valley last week with some beef cattle.

Currigsville Cullings.

CURRIGSVILLE, Sept. 19.—Farmers are busy harvesting and threshing. Hugh Currins has yet thirty-five acres to cut.

C. E. Woodsen started last Saturday for Eugene where he expects to attend the school.

Miss Ella Currin who has taught two successful terms of school at this place, left Friday for Park Place where she is engaged to teach, commencing September 18th. We all wish her success.

Miss Ida Surface and Ethel Jones of Garfield visited at this place Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Frankie and Robert Currins will attend the Monmouth school this year. Wilbert Wade, Anna Wade and Ollie Currins will attend the East Portland school. They all left last Friday.

On last Thursday Emerson Surface, a former pupil of Prof. Warner at Garfield, made the school and teacher of this place a pleasant call. He will attend the Portland University this year.

J. Jennings, the popular photographer of Hubbard, Or., is at this place pleasing everybody with his nice photos.

H. B. Sarver returned well pleased with his hunting expedition in the mountains, having killed two wild cats and four bear.

Sam Heiple, Alex. Irven and G. Krigbaum are on the sick list.

Messrs. Jackson and Brown went to Eastern Oregon after horses and returned with a fine drove.

Nearly one hundred teams went through this town last week on their way to the bit huckleberry patch. Some returned reporting a good time and lots of berries.

Mink Mutterings.

MINK, Sept. 25.—The harvest festival at the German Reform church last Sunday was largely attended both fore and afternoon. Rev. A. Banman assisted Rev. Staub in the services. Quite a number from New Era and Stafford visited our church also.

Mrs. M. M. Bluhm of Oregon City, is visiting friends here.

Miss J. Marie Moehnke spent a few days in Oregon City last week.

A number of young folks returned from the huckleberry patch last week brought back lots of berries with them and reported having a good time.

Misses A. A. Peters of Wilsonville and Louise Beckman of Portland were the guests of M. J. Moehnke last Sunday.

The Moehnke boys have got through with their threshing machine for this season. They had a pretty good run.

Highland.

HIGHLAND, Sept. 25.—Threshing is all done in this neighborhood, and the farmers are following after the plow, turning over the soil for fall oats and winter wheat.

Quite a number of Highlanders went over on Eagle Creek to pick huckleberries last week. They returned with sixty gallons and report having had a good time.

Sam Jones, of Park Place, is visiting friends and relatives here.

Mrs. Florence Farr, of Oregon City, is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. Parrish.

G. A. Frost, who had his foot badly hurt last week by a horse falling on it, is slowly improving.

Miss Minnie Harrington left here last week for Monmouth to take a year's course at school.

Clackamas Items.

CLACKAMAS, Sept. 19.—Messrs. Shute & Livesey have disposed of their mill property here to a Mr. White of Woodburn, who intends to commence operations by the first of October. He will run a feed mill for the present and in the future he intends to make it a flour mill also.

Prunes in this vicinity are very plentiful and growers are making arrangements to dispose of their crops.

Marion Johnson and Otto Gengleloch are each building a new dryer which they expect to have running in a few days.

The crowd that went huckleberrying from Clackamas have returned and brought back more huckleberries than blankets, as the fire got in camp and burned up their blankets, etc., and also two overcoats.

HOOD VIEW.

Brilliant Wedding With a Disappointing Sequel—Ministers Ordained—Our Guests.

Hood View, Sept. 25.—Invitations were circulated last week to about thirty of the most intimate friends of Graham's Ferry to attend a wedding ceremony Saturday eve, at the residence of J. W. Graham, not stating who the participating parties were to be, so when the time arrived all were very anxious to learn which one of the three Misses Graham was to be the happy bride, when to their surprise they were entertained in the well lit and decorated parlor halls and lawn, and all joined in games and merry-making until 10 o'clock when tickets were given to each lady and gentleman, corresponding in number, number six being for the bride and groom, then the couple were asked to arise and Mr. Hiram Wood and Miss Lamb, of Michigan, were found to be the lucky couple. After preparing for the occasion they took their places in the arch of a bay window handsomely decorated with autumn leaves and the ceremony was performed by Mr. Wm. Graham which was very comical and in rhyme. The couple then received congratulations and headed the line of young people who took partners as their number called for and marched to the diningroom where a very dainty and delicious luncheon was served. About midnight all took leave in hopes of an invitation to a real wedding next time and declaring it the latest. Come, girls, don't fool us in that way any more or we will take you down to the river and give you a good ducking.

Revs. Mr. and Mrs. Jerome and Dora Barber passed their examination and were after a few moments delay on the part of the committee of delegates, ordained as ministers of the Holy Bible from God to man with great honor and credit. This plainly tells us how our ministers have been working for the past few years to reach this their one aim in life. We all join in congratulations of the highest order of which they are well deserving. At 10 o'clock Wednesday quite a crowd came together and after a few words fitted to the occasion and prayers of thanks were offered, a nice dinner was spread in our grove and all were invited to come and partake and I can truly say all did justice, then a social good time was enjoyed until 3 o'clock when the examinations began before a large audience, the questioner being Rev. C. F. Clapp of Portland and answered by Revs. Jerome and Dora Barber very satisfactorily, then all adjourned to the grove where the services were concluded by several very able ministers from Portland and adjoining neighborhoods and the laying on of hands took place, then another very hearty meal was served by the very kind sisters of our church and a good time in which all joined until 8 o'clock, when again our visiting ministers called our attentions more heavenward for a discourse of one and a half hours ending with prayers from many of the congregation.

Mrs. Dora Barber is very sick and has been moved to Portland to the hospital in hopes of gaining her health. The latest news from her is that four physicians pronounce the case very bad but entertain great hopes of her recovery.

Miss Minnie Boyce of Champoug is visiting Mrs. T. Brown.

Mrs. May Chapman is a guest at the residence of C. T. Toose.

Miss Alice Franklin has returned to her home in Portland.

Hop picking is nearing a close, the majority being entirely through while only a few have to finish.

Mr. Chas. Davis, cashier of the Merchants bank of Portland, is camping a few weeks with his family on his farm.

Mrs. Kate Graham and little Miss Margaret of San Rafael, Cal., have been visiting relatives at Graham's Ferry for the past six weeks.

Miss Kate Holston of Albina, is a guest of Mrs. L. A. Young.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. James Smock of Sherwood is quite ill.

Damascus Doings.

DAMASCUS, Sept. 22.—The farmers of this vicinity are getting nearly through with their threshing.

The grain has yielded about an average crop.

The late rains have caused some of the grain to sprout.

Fruit is very scarce and of a poor quality.

L. A. Read is teaching the Rock Creek school again.

The Damascus school will commence October 20.

Miss Myrtle Brethaupt and Miss Edith Kingsbury of this place, have gone to Portland to attend school.

Misses May and Ella McMurray left for Seattle today where they expect to attend school the coming year.

Miss Mary Mackenzie of Fremont formerly of this place, left for Seattle last week where she will attend school.

Miss Cora Lemon expects to attend school at Oregon City.

Frank Elliott has been quite sick with the measles but is better again.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boring of this place have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Nellie Mulligan of Molalla for the past week.

Mr. Gardner has purchased a new horse-power. He expects to do chopping more extensively this fall and winter. He also makes fine graham flour.

Mulino Notes.

MULINO, Sept. 25.—C. T. Howard is supervising a small force of men repairing the wagon bridge. The old bridge had become dangerous, so they are placing in a new foundation.

A jolly little party left here yesterday morning for Skunk Cabbage and a huckleberry expedition, consisting of Miss Nash, late of Nebraska, Perrie Knotts of Gold Hill, Jack Knotts, Carrie and Lillie, U. E. Nash and N. H. Darnell.

John Darnell arrived home a few days ago from Montana where he was engaged during the summer.

Grandpa Darnell visited Mrs. Kellogg Sunday.

Take your babies to the New York gallery and get a good picture while you have the chance.

MR. MADDOCK EXPLAINS.

To THE EDITOR:—Having noticed in last week's Enterprise the sheriff's reply to Mr. Cross, would kindly ask a little space to correct a slight mistake which encroaches a little on myself. At the same time will say I am not in pursuit of a newspaper controversy, but there is one paragraph in the sheriff's reply that reads as follows:

"Mr. Maddock's tax was small and he would not have been molested if he had not sent in a bantering message asking why I did not levy on his property."

Now I want to say once for all that I never sent in that sort or any other sort of a message to the sheriff or anyone else. I never said to any man living you tell the sheriff anything for me, and I defy any man to make an affidavit that I did. Now certainly if I sent that word I must have told some one to go and tell the sheriff, and that some one should be in existence yet, and I demand his affidavit. Now, mind that I want it clearly stated in the affidavit that I told him to go and tell the sheriff to come and levy on my property.

This whole business reminds me of a little story of a New York Irish policeman who was beating one of his countrymen with his club. He said: "Jamy, I don't bate ye because I hate ye; but I bate ye to show ye my authority."

No, my "tax was small," only $78.40; that was what the sheriff wanted me to pay when he came out and attached my team and arrested Mr. Griesshaber, a faithful man who was in the field working the team at the time; and because Griesshaber wanted to take the team and plow to the barn and ask me about the matter the sheriff got wrathful and attached team, Griesshaber and all, but did not take the cultivator. Of course this caused me to take a trip to Oregon City, and the first thing I saw after I entered Noblett's livery stable was my team in jail, and of course I felt sorry, as that was the only team I ever had in my life, and now to see them in jail. I went to Mr. Cross about how to get them out and told him the circumstances and he advised me to go and pay my taxes, but I told him I didn't think I owed anything and the reason why. "Then," said Cross, "we will go to the sheriff's office and see." So when we looked the matter over we found I had over paid $27.72 on my property tax. So the sheriff had that much of my money for a couple of months, and yet he put my team in jail. Then I paid him $8.68 more, and that was every cent he got out of me. He only fell short about $70 so far as I was concerned. But he cinched one of my neighbors who I had accommodated, and one of the poorest men in the county, by reason of this attachment out of some $48.

In conclusion, permit me to say there is not one man in this county who ever heard me say one word of disrespect of our sheriff, or ever mistreated him in any way, and had he just left my name out of his reply this article never would have appeared. This is my first and last.

E. C. MADDOCK.

NEW ERA, September 25, 1893.

New Era Newslets.

NEW ERA, Sept. 24.—This splendid weather is greatly appreciated and fall plowing is well begun and some fall grain has been sown.

Born, to the wife of George Blanchard, on Sept. 23, a girl. All are doing nicely and George wears a ten-inch grin.

Mrs. G. W. Kidder, of Mount Pleasant, visited friends in this locality last week.

Some of our friends contemplate visiting the Butte Creek fair at Marquam.

Miss Birdie Patton, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. L. Waldron, for the last three months, returned to her home in California last Wednesday.

Miss Issa McArthur got the blue ribbon on her crayon painting at the state fair. These pictures are splendid and well worthy of the first premium.

The late rains have damaged a good deal of late oats which stood in the shock.

Wm. Griesshaber started to the world's fair last Monday, intending to visit a brother in Indiana during the winter. He intends to return in the spring.

Oswego News.

OSWEGO, Sept. 27.—The furnace has been banked up for a short time.

The pipe works are running with a small force of men.

Our school started up Monday.

Judge Hains is kept busy with his court to keep the boys straight.

Sylvia Prosser has returned home from her visit to McMinnville and is very sick. Mrs. Prosser is improving. She was out for a short ride Sunday.

Dr. Sullivan has been on the sick list for the past week.

We have plenty of idle men and boys who want work.

C. W. Fowler has sold his sub-contract for carrying the mail on the Oswego and Aurora route to Mat. Didden.

D. B. Rees & Co. attached and got $60 of the money for an old store account.

The bridge over Spring brook has been made as good as new.

Among the incidents of childhood that stand out in bold relief, as our memory reverts to the days when we were young, none are more prominent than severe sickness. The young mother vividly remembers that it was Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cured her of croup, and in turn administers it to her own offspring and always with the best results. For sale by George A. Harding.

BALD HEADS!

What is the condition of yours? Is your hair dry, harsh, brittle? Does it split at the ends? Has it a lifeless appearance? Does it fall out when combed or brushed? Is it full of dandruff? Does your scalp itch? Is it dry or in a heated condition? If these are some of your symptoms be warned in time or you will become bald.

Skookum Root Hair Grower

Is what you need. Its production is not an accident, but the result of scientific research. Knowledge of the diseases of the hair and scalp led to the discovery of a new and safe hair dressing. "Skookum" contains neither chemicals nor oils. It is a Dye, but a delightfully cooling and refreshing Tonic. It stimulates the follicles, it stops falling hair, cures dandruff and grows hair on bald heads.

Keep the scalp clean, healthy, and free from irritating eruptions by the use of Skookum Hair Soap. It destroys parasitic insects, which feed on and destroy the hair.

If your druggist cannot supply you send direct to us, and we will forward promptly, on receipt of price. Grower, $1.00 per bottle; 5 for $5.00. Soap, 50c. per jar; 5 for $2.50.
