Mr. Al Huggins, the old reliable horse trader will be found at S. F. Scripture's blacksmith's shop where he will be pleased to meet old and new friends alike.

When the hair begins to come out in clumps, it shows a weakness of the scalp that calls for immediate attention. The best preparation to arrest further loss of hair and restore the scalp to a healthy condition is Ayer's Hair Vigor.

J. B. Upton, a former resident of this place was in the city on Wednesday reviewing old acquaintances. He is now a resident of Tillamook county where he is interested in several of the most important enterprises of the county including a cannery.

Thursday was "Pioneer day" at the Portland exposition and it was expected that many of the early settlers who helped to make the history of the state will be there to view the great exposition and visit with each other while comparing the Oregon of today with that which they crossed the plains to find.

W. S. Chapman made an assignment on Tuesday to S. W. Blaisdel of Portland, his assets being placed at $178,100 and his liabilities at $115,000. Mr. Chapman is a member of the firm that is improving Main street but it said that his failure will not affect the construction company in any way.

A child of A. W. Sefton of East Portland was drowned in a peculiar manner the last of the week. He in company with his brother went out in the morning after the heavy storm to see what damage had been done in the vicinity of a sewer which had recently been placed in the neighborhood. He stepped out over the sewer and in a moment had sunk out of sight in the soft mud which had formed from the unpacked covering to the sewer and before aid could reach him he was smothered in the ooze. It is said that suit will be brought against the city and the contractors for damages.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Miss Nellie Ingalls of Portland is visiting Miss Holmes at Rose Farm.

W. J. Rice, an attorney and banker of St. Helens, was in the city Friday on business.

Tuesday evening T. L. Charman and wife took the Union Pacific train for the world's fair with the intention of being absent about three weeks.

J. W. Moffet left on Wednesday evening for the East intending after taking in the World's fair to go back to his old home in New York. He will be gone several weeks.

W. C. Cheney electrician for the Portland General Electric company has returned from the East accompanied by Mrs. Cheney who has been visiting relatives in the East for about four months.

L. L. Porter took his departure for the World's fair and other eastern points on Tuesday evening. While away he will look after some business interests and visit old friends and familiar scenes in Wisconsin.

Chas. Nobilit sr. who was for many weeks seriously ill at his home in Needy has so far recovered as to be able to be out again and is once more receiving congratulations from his many friends about town.

Mrs. E. S. W. O'Bryan and Misses Eva Warren and Mable Davids are the guests of Mrs. C. O. T. Williams. Wednesday evening Mrs. Williams accompanied by her guests and Miss Winnie went down to the exposition.

P. F. Morey and family are on their way home from Chicago to this city and are expected here on Sunday. Mrs. Morey and the young people were as far east as New York and Mr. Morey went as far as Boston on business connected with the Portland General Electric company of which he is president.

Last Saturday evening Mrs. Charles Van Valen, mother of Mrs. W. C. Faulkner of the Electric hotel reached this city from Marshall, Michigan having made the trip alone over the Northern Pacific railroad. As Mrs. Van Valen is over 81 years of age the trip across the continent was quite an undertaking. She expects to spend the winter in this city visiting her daughter.

Mr. Shadinger who has been trying fishing with varied success during the continuance of the storm reports catching with a hook on Wednesday of a quantity of smelt. This is not a usual thing. In the first place smelt have not been known in the Willamette at this point before, and again it has not been a usual thing to gather them in with a hook baited with salmon eggs. For a time they took the hook as fast as it was thrown in then the clubs drove them away.

The woolen mills are preparing to start up on Monday with about one-half of the usual force to work for a time upon orders. Mr. Jacobs is away in California looking after trade in that direction and Gerry is up east of the mountains seeing what can be done in that direction, so it is possible that the mill will be kept busy for a time.

Jas. Roake of the Oregon City Iron Works is having a track put down to connect the shop with the dock so as to enable them to move heavy machinery from the dock to and from the shop. It will prove quite a convenience.

Frank Barlow is having a sidewalk built from his property at Gladstone across to the station.

Wanted, a girl about 12 years old in the capacity of nurse. Inquire at this office.

C. T. Tooze, one of the prominent and successful farmers from up the river was in the city Tuesday having bills printed making announcement of the sale at public auction, on the 4th of November, of his farm stock, machinery and other supplies. Mr. Tooze has sold his fine farm of 200 acres to Alteo Sams for $85 per acre and intends to move to some town where he will handle the money which he has saved in such a manner as will bring him the best returns. Particulars of the sale will be found in another column of the ENTERPRISE.

Senator Mitchell arrived in Portland on Wednesday direct from Washington having come home at this time on account of the serious sickness of his daughter Mrs. Handy who has been confined to her bed in East Portland for some five weeks now. The Senator is uncertain how long her illness may require his presence in Oregon but expects to remain as long as her condition makes it desirable as the senate granted him an indefinite leave of absence.

The Crown Paper mill will be started up the first of the week if the weather will permit the men who are at work on the walls of the canal to close in around the flume of the Crown mill so that it can be used by that time. Much of the time the past week the rain has poured down with such force as to wash the dirt out of the shovels with which the men were digging. The mill has work to keep them employed and is only waiting for the flume to be put in shape.

Wednesday morning four boats passed through the locks bound for the upper river after wheat. With good boating for the next few weeks there will be brought from the upper valley a large part of this year's crop. Boats are able on account of the early and extra high water to ascend the Willamette and its tributaries much sooner and much farther than usual this season, all of which will prove of advantage to the farmer.

Wm. Bohlander has sold his interest in the Portland restaurant to L. Rucanisch who will hereafter conduct that popular restaurant. Billy has made himself quite popular since his connection with the hostelry and many of the boys are sorry to see him go. He expects to remove to Portland.

C. A. Miller who has been stopping up the Valley for some time returned on Tuesday looking as if his trip had agreed with him. He says that he was getting so fat that his clothes would not stay on him and that he had to come back and go to work to reduce his flesh.

Captain J. H. Exon has taken charge of the Toledo for the present and will when practicable run her up the Yamhill as far as McMinnville. Joel P. Geer the owner is doing all that he can to make the Toledo a popular up river boat.

The Grand Army and the Sons of Veteran are organizing a drum corps to furnish music for the gatherings of those bodies. The intention is to have four fifes, four snare drums and one base drum in the band.

E. J. Garrow, head sawyer at the Gladstone sawmill, has the frame up for a new house which he is building on the south side of the electric line in Gladstone.

Street Commissioner Hoberg is employing himself and a force of men these days in getting down temporary cross walks so that it will not be necessary to employ a mud scow in getting across the street.

An Electric Accident.

Fred Miller is going around with his right hand in a sling and well protected on account of an accident the last of the week at the Portland General Electric station where Fred has been at work for some time. About 11 o'clock Thursday evening as he was cleaning the brushes on one of the large alternating current Excelsior machines which carry 5,000 volts he was in the act of placing the brushes back in position when the automatic regulator swung around suddenly and struck his wrist at the root of the thumb completing the circuit through his thumb and forefinger between which he was holding the brushes. The connection was only maintained for an instant but that moment was long enough to cook the flesh of the finger and thumb and to burn off the end of the thumb. For an hour or so Fred suffered untold agonies, but he thinks with all the pain that he suffered that he escaped luckily as that much electricity through his body would have proven instantly fatal. Fred says that he will take hanging every time in preference to electrocution as he is convinced that it is less painful. However he has only tried a taste of one.

Perhaps some of our readers would like to know in what respect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is better than any other.

We will tell you. When the Remedy is taken as soon as a cold has been contracted, and before it has become settled in the system, it will counteract the effect of the cold and greatly lessen its severity, and it is the only remedy that will do this. It acts in perfect harmony with nature and aids nature in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions, liquefying the mucus and causing its expulsion from the air cells of the lungs and restoring the system to a strong and healthy condition. No other remedy in the market possesses these remarkable properties. No other will cure a cold so quickly. For sale by George A. Harding, druggist.
