EDUCATIONAL NOTES | itors during the month were Mrs. Cline, Miss Smith, Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Crow-

All notes for this column should be Canby, Oregon

The past month has brought, and the coming month will bring to many, both desk, as I did ten years ago.

ant days of our lives. As teachers, we Teacher, selves and our pupils, and very much of for the first time.

pleased with haughty, boisterous, selfasserting ways in a teacher. Neither will they tolerate one who imitates in word or act that which belongs to another. Each place needs a simple, honest, decided individuality, and unless we are ounserves at first and always we cannot succeed as we should or would if we were

The new teacher is an experiment and is watched more closely than she will be If she succeeds all her friends, again. interested or influanced, will say, "I Cal knew she'd succeed It's born in her." If she fails, their tongues will as easily turn the other way "I knew she'd fail, she hasn't the first requisite of a good teacher."

Teachers, if you succeed in any thing, the community and world are ready to help you on, and when you once get started going on is easy enough; but if you step aside you will be crushed in a manner as rapid and harsn as in success you were kindly encouraged.

I cannot outline your actions, and unless you have made for yourselves character as you grew to manhood and womanhood, it were useless to suggest, for you could not, would not, follow. Nothing influences character-and that is what real teaching is-like character. You teach not only by what you do and say, but by what you are. I can, however, assist you in mapping out a little plan for the first day's work.

First : Be prompt to the minute in calling and dismissing school.

Second: Begin doing something at once. Have something written on the board and set every one at work. Call out your advanced classes first and see where they belong and assign lessons while the rest are writing.

Use no time in securing names, but begin with the classes as you have them on your temporary program. During the day the place, standing and names of ston. Number enrolled thirty-five ; aver-Teacher.

Parker, Clara Frasier, and Myra Flynn,

L. T. Anderson one of the painstaking teachers of the county was in from Clarkes on Saturday.

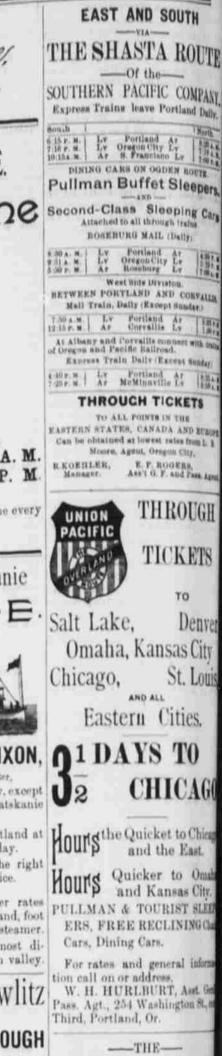

such notes as will add to the interest of

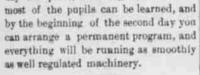

Most of the schools for the fall and winter have got nicely started and quite a number of them have passed the first Chauncey Barney began teaching the Oak Grove school, district No. 91 near Macksburg October 16.

Fred Skirvin began teaching school in district No. 65 near Wilholt October 9.

A. B. Hibbard is teaching the Deardorff school, district No. 99. He reports good attendance during the three weeks taught.

H.G. Lake, principal of the Harmony school, was in town last Saturday and reported the school progressing nicely.

J. C. Palmer, clerk of district No. 6 of Needy was in town last Saturday and reports their school in a flourishing condition under the able management of Chas. Crittenden.

Henry Hammond who has been teaching in Washington during the summer and fall returned last week. He will take charge of the Risley school October 30.

County Teachers' association will be the last Saturday in this month, October 28. All interested in education are Cross invited. The following program was arranged by the committee. Program.

Music.

"How Can I Get the Most Good from the Association ?" Shirley Buck. "Organization and Discipline"J. W. Gray. "What Should We Use for Supple-mentary Reading?" H. G. Starkweather. How Can We Direct the "Out of School" Reading of Our Pupils? ... "Busy Work" Edna Ross.

SCHOOL REPORTS.

District No. 45 for the month ending