

Clackamas Co. Directory. COUNTY OFFICERS. Judge, Clerk of Courts, Sheriff, Recorder, Assessor, School Superintendent, Surveyor, Coroner, Commissioners.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Miss Mina Kelly, we are sorry to report, on the sick list. Miss Bray, of Seattle, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Rhodes of this city. G. W. Grace the enterprising merchant of Clarkes was in the city on Tuesday.

Wedding and Reception.

Announcement was made last week of the fact that Rev. J. A. Eckstorn had been granted a license to wed in Multnomah county. The sequel to this is of course a wedding which occurred at Trinity church in Portland on Tuesday.

Mrs. N. R. Raber and Mrs. Fisher and daughter Clara, of Corvallis, are the guests of Mrs. Major Thos. Charman. Miss Lu. B. Merrill who is attending business college in Portland was up to spend the Sabbath with her sister Annie.

Mr. Eckstorn met his bride, Miss Fannie P. Hardy at the Union Pacific train on Tuesday morning, she having come from Chicago to join him and a few hours later the Bishop pronounced the solemn word which bound them for life.

I. LeMahieu has gone to eastern Oregon to look after some 500 acres of valuable land which he owns in the Powder River valley.

Rev. Armstrong, of Dayton, occupied the pulpit in the Christian church Sunday morning and evening in the absence of the regular pastor, Rev. Smith.

Mrs. Peter Paquet returned the first of the week from a three week's visit with her sister, Mrs. W. E. Garretson, of The Dalles.

A. B. Little, county surveyor of Columbia county was in the city on Friday inspecting the road work which is being done in and around the city.

Mr. B. F. Mulkey, county clerk of Polk county and a graduate of the State Normal school and Mr. Hawley, of Polk county, addressed the students in chapel last week.

Ned Townsend, accompanied by his mother of Portland, spent a couple of days in the city this week the guests of C. G. Huntley and his mother.

Prof. Bloss of the State Agricultural college delivered Sunday in chapel the first of a series of lectures, which will continue during the winter.

H. E. Smith went up to Jefferson Sunday to join J. H. Walker who was there on business, for a hunt on Monday. They made a good bag of Denny's.

Rev. Armstrong, of Dayton, occupied the pulpit in the Christian church Sunday morning and evening in the absence of the regular pastor, Rev. Smith.

Miss Nellie, daughter of Mrs. Chas. Moenke, who lives on the west side of the river was taken seriously ill last Friday and at last accounts was not improving any.

Last Saturday the Hon. Jas. M. Tracey and his wife returned from their trip to the world's fair and to his old home in the East well pleased with his trip yet glad withal to get back to Oregon. Mr. Tracey says that he always had a sneaking notion that he would like to get back to the East and that it in many respects was better than Oregon, but that his trip has effectually knocked all that out of him and now he is satisfied that there is no country as good as Oregon.
