

CURRINSVILLE CULLINGS.

Currinsville a Favored Locality for the Home Seeker—Accident While Plowing.

CURRINSVILLE, Oct. 24.—The news of last week of this place should have been dated Oct. 17 instead of Oct. 7.

Hon. H. M. Wier, of Tacoma, was in town Monday.

Miss McCowen is recovering from sickness.

Miss Lilly Wilcox is visiting friends and relatives at this place.

Garrett Palmater has rented the farm belonging to Mr. Bullard one-half mile south, paying cash rent.

Hugh Currin met with an accident last Friday by which he mashed one of his fingers, since which he has suffered considerable pain.

Mr. Harkenrider, the gentleman who was so severely kicked by a horse, is so that he can hobble around a little.

J. Stone made a trip to Portland last Wednesday, returning Friday evening.

Miss Bertha Bolsett was surprised by her young friends last Monday evening on the occasion of her 14th birthday.

J. Davis & Son, Frank Irvin, and others of this place, have been working the road in Deep creek canyon for the past week. The blasting of stumps could be heard for miles.

Mr. Miller, of Eastern Oregon, who resided at this place over twenty years ago, is visiting some of his old friends who still live here.

A steam laundry is being projected at this place. No Melican man will be employed.

Mr. Wilson, a German living on the banks of the Clackamas, remarked the other day that since Cross's dam was no more salmon will be thicker'n sparrows in the river next spring.

Several real estate transactions have been made in Currinsville in the last week. Mr. Dawty sold thirty acres to John King of Canton, Ohio. Immigrants are coming in and Currinsville is on the move, as this is a good location. Homeseekers should make a note of this.

Dr. Smith of Eagle Creek was in town last Friday.

Prof. Warner of this place and a number of teachers in districts near this village, are expecting to attend the teachers' association next Saturday at the Starkweather school house.

Rob. Currin spent three days last week at the metropolis.

Ben Sarver of this place, and Mr. Ayers of Heppner, who have been in the mountains for the past two weeks hunting gold, returned last evening complaining of having had some "hard sailing." The snow kept them from finding the gold, and the streams were so swollen and bridges washed out that they could not return until almost starved.

Ben Porter and R. A. Wilcox are on the sick list.

Sam Heiple lost a valuable horse last week.

William Currin went to Troutdale today to sell fifty head of fat cattle.

"We have plenty to eat at home," said an old lady yesterday who lives a mile out of this town: "we have good potatoes, nice cabbage, radishes, lettuce and tomatoes, and our evergreen blackberries are as good and ripe as a month ago."

W. H. H. Wade has a Bartlett pear tree that is loaded with the second crop of fruit for this year.

The wheat that was thrashed in the rain in this locality is now being fed to more than 500 hogs, and soon Currin, Wade, Heiple, Lion, Tracy and others will have fat porkers for sale.

Yesterday while Rob. Currin's hired man was plowing his team became frightened and ran away with the plow. The plow struck one of the horses on the hip inflicting a wound so serious that the horse will die.

We are having beautiful weather just now and farmers are improving their opportunity.

Eighteen Postoffice Dont's.

The attention of the public is called to the following "dont's" furnished by the Postal Guide, which, if carefully observed by letter-writers generally, will greatly facilitate the business of the postoffice:

Don't mail any letter until you are sure that it is completely and properly addressed.

Don't place the address so that there will be no room for the post-mark.

Don't fail in the hurry of business, to write the name of the state you intend and not your own—a very common error.

Don't fail to make certain that your manner of writing the name of an office or state may not cause it to be mistaken for one similar in appearance. It is often better to write the name of the state in full.

Don't fail, if you are in doubt as to the right name of the office for which your letter is intended, to consult the Postal Guide, which any postmaster will be pleased to show you.

Don't fail to give the street and house number of the person for whom mail matter is intended in addressing it to a city or large town.

Don't fail to place the stamp in the upper right-hand corner.

Don't write on the envelope "In haste" "Care of postmaster," etc; it does no good, and tends to confusion in the rapid handling of mail matter.

Don't fail to bear in mind that it is unlawful to enclose matter of a higher class in one that is lower; e. g., merchandise in newspapers.

Don't mail any letter unless your address, with a request to return, is upon the face of the envelope; so that in case of non-delivery it will be returned directly to you.

Don't fail to give your correspondents your full address, so that a new postman cannot fail to find you.

Don't fail to notify your postmaster of any change in your address.

Don't trust to the fact that you are an "old resident," "well-known citizen," etc., but have your letters addressed in full.

Don't fail, if you intend to be away from home for any length of time, to inform your postmaster what disposition shall be made of your mail.

Don't delay the delivery of any mail matter that you may take out for another.

Don't fail to sign your letters in full, so if they reach the dead letter office they may be promptly returned.

Don't, when you fail to receive an expected letter charge the postal service with its loss, until you have learned from your correspondent all the facts in regard to its mailing, contents, etc.

HEADACHE, SLEEPLESSNESS, NERVOUS PROSTRATION.

Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind. Gentlemen: I take pleasure in informing you of the very beneficial results which have followed the use of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine in the case of myself and wife. For a year I was subject to a distressing pain at the base of the brain and upper portion of the spinal cord. I was greatly troubled with sleeplessness. Your Nervine was highly recommended to me. My case had been so obstinate that I had no confidence in the efficacy of any medicine. Yet as a last resort I consented to give it a trial. Much to my surprise, I experienced marked benefit; my sleeplessness disappeared; my headache was removed; my spirits and general health greatly improved. I soon gained twenty pounds. All this occurred after learning and well known physicians had failed. My wife is taking the Nervine with the best of results. LOUIS D. VANDEVERE.
