Many people suffer for years from troublesome and repulsive sores, boils, and eruptions, without ever testing the marvelous curative properties of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The experiment is, certainly, worth trying. Be sure you get Ayer's Sarsaparilla and no other.

There is no article of furniture made that is so popular or is used so extensively as an Xmas present as the handsome and luxurious, fancy rocking chair. We all realize this fact and a large number of us realize that no better place exists to buy these rockers than the establishment of Bellomy & Busch.

Since the discovery of a fine bank of clay suited to the manufacture of vitrified brick on the land of Jas. Shaw he has been preparing to have a yard established there, and with that end in view has been building a long bridge from the county road across to the more level land across from the road. He is also having Surveyor Sidney Smyth plat thirty acres adjoining the land set apart for the brick yard which he will place on the market in lots so soon as it is finished and spring opens up.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Matt Kandle of Highland was in the city on business Wednesday.

R. H. Scott of Scotts Mills is serving on the United States jury at Portland.

E. J. Swafford of Salem was the guest of his brother James in this city over Sabbath.

John Beagle of the Hillsboro Independent was in the city the first of the week for a few hours.

Cris Kocher, one of the prominent farmers living east of Canby, was in the city Wednesday on business.

Miss Lulu B. Merrill who is attending the business college in Portland was up to spend the Sabbath with her sister Annie.

Rev. E. N. Condit, president of Albany college will be in the city over next Sunday and will preach at the Presbyterian church.

A. B. Little, county assessor of Columbia county was in the city Wednesday visiting friends and attending to business matters.

Oliver S. Ohlson has gone to work for the East Side Railway company and is now busily engaged in learning the mysteries of running a motor.

Lyman Herrick of Marmot is the only person from Clackamas county drawn to serve upon the trial jury now sitting in Portland to try United States cases.

F. M. Samson of Marquam has a place on the United States grand jury which is now in session. This jury will have to pass upon the cases of the alleged opium smugglers.

C. P. Andrews accompanied by his brother, H. A. Andrews, returned from their visit to the world's fair last Saturday accompanied by Mrs. E. B. Andrews who has been visiting her old home in the East. They met at Pocatello on their way out.

J. B. Rush and his son-in-law, Wm. King, both practical saw mill men from Pennsylvania, have been looking about in Oregon with a view to finding a suitable location and have decided to remain in Oregon City. They have sent back for their families to join them.

Nathan Tingle of Maygers in Columbia county was in the city on Monday having come up to serve on the United States trial jury which is now at work in Portland. If he can not get excused he hopes to be able to attend to his duties in court and stop here where his wife is now stopping on account of her health which is much better here than at their home on the Beaver. She is troubled with asthma, which the dampness of the lower river seems to aggravate very much.

Wedding Anniversary. The thirty-ninth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Coldren's wedding day was celebrated at the residence of their son Elton of Elliott's Prairie Sunday, November 19, 1903. THE TOLEDO BLADE.

And Book Containing all the Nasby Letters for one Dollar.

In answer to a general demand from all parts of the United States, the Toledo Blade has published in one volume, cloth bound, all of the "Nasby Letters" ever written by the late D. R. Locke, omitting perhaps a few unimportant letters on local or important topics. Only a few of these letters were ever published in book form. Everybody has read some of them, but who has read all of them? The book contains over 500 large pages, and all the Nasby Letters written during a period of twenty-five years; also portrait of D. R. Locke from his last photograph. It would sell at one dollar or more, but will never be placed on sale. One hundred thousand copies are now being printed and bound, and one copy will be sent postpaid by mail free to every person who this winter remits one dollar for the Weekly Blade one year. Everybody invited to send for a specimen copy of the Weekly Blade, which will give a full description of the book "The Nasby Letters."

The Toledo Weekly Blade is the best and most popular weekly newspaper published in the country. It has the largest circulation of any weekly newspaper, and goes to every state, territory and nearly every county of the Union. Only dollar a year, including the above mentioned book free. Send postal to The Blade, Toledo, Ohio, for a free specimen copy of the paper. Send the addresses of your friends also.

Oregon's Medals. Oregon secured twenty medals at the world's fair, in the agricultural department alone, while Washington only got four and California twelve. Following is a list of medals awarded Oregon exhibits:

G. W. Belshaw, Eugene, display of wheat.

M. Wilkins, Coburg, grasses, clovers, wheat, oats and barley, (five medals.)

Gardner Bros., Stayton, flour—whitest and purest.

W. L. Simeral, Macleay, wheat—white winter.

D. A. Swank, Aumsville, flour—winter wheat.

Mort Savage, Howell Prairie,—mammoth winter wheat.

H. W. Cottle, Salem, display of grasses.

Kratz & Kirman, McMinnville, flour.

F. M. and M. S. Durlin, Howell Prairie, defiance spring wheat.

Ed. La Fave, Pendleton, blue stem wheat.

W. S. Byers, Pendleton, flour—winter wheat.

David Stout, McMinnville Welcome oats.

Geo. W. Olds, Bellevue, Snohomish oats.

J. F. Allison, Hopewell, King wheat.

Hamilton & Rourke, Pendleton, barley.

Ladd & Read, Broadmead barley.

Three carloads of Oregon's exhibits are now enroute to Portland and carrying banners bearing the following inscription: "Oregon returning triumphant from the world's fair; Oregon is still in the land of the big red apples; Oregon has homes for the homeless and good schools are abundant; Oregon has millions of acres of government land open to the homeseeker; Oregon is the home of the poor man's home, the rich man's paradise. See the medals awarded—agricultural twenty, horticultural sixteen, mining seven fishery six, educational four, forestry two, woman's work two."

Go to Brown's gallery for your Christmas photo's before it is too late.
