CLUBBING OFFER. The Best County Paper in the State With the Best Metropolitan Paper on the Coast.

The OREGON CITY ENTERPRISE will give all the local news of Clackamas county and Oregon City with the court proceedings and matters that are of vital interest to the farmers of Clackamas county; the Weekly Oregonian will give the news of the state and the nation and the doings of the world each week.

RISE OF THE WILLAMETTE.—The high water experienced in the Willamette during the past week has been unprecedented in two respects. The records show that such a rise has not before occurred so early in the season and no one collects a time when so little rain in the valley produced as great a flood.

LOST AND CAUGHT AGAIN.—Last Sunday while George Broughton and his men were engaged at Rock Island in collecting his big boom of logs there which was in danger on account of the strong current setting in toward the east side of the island a lot of boom sticks and chains which he had just got out for use in getting logs out from the lower boom broke from their moorings above the mill and in spite of the efforts of two men in a boat to catch them went off down the river.

LOCKS IMPASSABLE.—For several days the past week the locks were impassable and the up river boats had to lay up pending the going down of the water.

FOUND IN THE RIVER.—Last Friday a man was raking drift from the rack at the head of the gates his rake brought a bundle of clothes which upon investigation was found to contain the body of an infant of premature birth.

BAD ACCOUNTS FROM SANDY.—F. A. Meinig the popular Sandy merchant was in town Tuesday attending to business and reports the road from Sandy to Portland in a horrible condition on account of the hauling done by the contractors on the pipe line.

MERCURY PUBLISHERS SENTENCED.—Last Monday the motions for new trials in the cases of O. P. Mason and Ben P. Watson, convicted of publishing and circulating libelous and obscene literature, were overruled by Judge Munly and the men were sentenced to one year each in the county jail.

THE JAPANESE FESTIVAL.—The lights the music and the gay costumes made the Japanese Festival at the Congregational church an event not soon to be forgotten. The Sunday school room was a blaze of Japanese effects, in Scotch broom, chrysanthemums and lanterns swinging from the roofs of green pagodas.

AN INTERESTING LECTURE.—Some time since Hon. D. P. Thompson ex-minister to Turkey delivered a lecture entitled "Turkey and the Turks," before the Portland high school and it was pronounced by all to be not only very interesting but instructive as well.

TRACK WASHED OUT.—On Sunday the river above Stringtown got to cutting in on the east bank and by afternoon had cut in under the railroad track so as to make it unsafe for trains to pass.

A VALUABLE FRANCHISE.—The time for which the Wells-Fargo Express company held the contract for the carrying business over the Southern Pacific railroad will expire January 1st and for some time past it has been negotiating for a renewal of the franchise, but had an active competitor in the Adams Express company.

ACCIDENT AT MARQUAM.—The Silverton Appeal notes that Ed. Young of Marquam received a painful gunshot wound in the thigh on Monday. He was helping to slaughter hogs in company with Wm. Doores, and in adjusting a cartridge, the gun was accidentally discharged, the ball taking effect in the thigh, making an ugly flesh wound.

LOOK OUT FOR HIM.—The Eugene Guard describes a petty fraud who with an envelope in his hand enters a business house requesting a two-cent stamp. Supposing that he will pay for it, as he is fairly well dressed, the chap is usually accommodated. Turning on his heel he leaves the place, to call next door. He is said to be in this way accumulating from $2 to $3 per day.

PROTECT YOURSELF.—Insure your property in the Guardian Assurance company of London. Cash assets $25,000,000. F. E. DONALDSON, Agent, Oregon City, Oregon.

SANDY SQUIDS. The Roads! The Roads! The Awful Muddy Roads are Being Cussed.

SANDY, Nov. 30.—Mr. Stone, who has the contract for doing the concrete work at the head works of the Bull Run pipe line, was down last Sunday and says that work is progressing nicely regardless of wet weather. He has a crew of thirty men working on the job now and thinks he will work on till Christmas if possible.

As the rain keeps on our roads are getting worse every day, and in some places they are almost impassable and nobody will fix them. But something must be done soon either by the people or the county. But the question is, who will do it? What this part of the county wants is good roads.

CLARKS CULLINGS. CLARKS, Dec. 5.—Everybody is wishing for a change in the weather.

THE CAPE HORN TELEGRAPH COMPANY have the post holes dug within one mile of Clarks. They have the posts laid as far as the Highland post office.

H. Ringo is very sick with the Grip. The people of this locality contemplate having a Christmas tree at Grace's hall.

Our teacher, Mr. Anderson, is going to spend a holiday week in Portland to attend the teachers institute. We would be glad to have his assistance in getting a program at the Christmas tree.

Elenora Jewell and Harry Gard went to Park Place to visit her relatives last Saturday and Sunday.

Our merchant, G. W. Grace, is going to Portland in a few days to get a supply of holiday goods.

August Bottenmiller has greatly improved the looks of his house by putting in more windows and rustic.

John Kayser, who has been working at Molalla corners for some time, has returned home and is now on the sick list. ALMA.

MAPLE LANE. MAPLE LANE, Dec. 4.—The Maple Lane literary society is again in full blast. The question for discussion next Tuesday night is, Resolved, That the signs of the times indicate the downfall of the nation.

The Jones Brothers, a colored troupe, gave us an entertainment Saturday night which was highly appreciated by all who were fortunate enough to hear them. We would advise all constitutionally or otherwise opposed to laughing to give them a wide berth.

Thos. Davies has been on the sick list, but is around again.

I. D. Surfus's little girl who was so badly burned last fall, and who it was feared would be permanently crippled, is beginning to walk, and we hope she will be all right again.

Phillip Strack has moved in with his brother in his new house.

B. F. Kellogg has a new post and board fence on the front of his place which is quite an improvement.

Miss Kate Mantz is home again after several weeks spent with her sister, Mrs. Morris, in the city.

BORINGS DOGS. BORINGS, Dec. 4.—Rainy weather has again set in and all streams are very high. One of the Deep creek mill dams was washed away, and salmon are coming up.

John Revenue of Sandy, while fording Deep creek on his way home from Portland with a load, decided, as there was so little water up his way, to take some along with him, and found no better way than to mix it with his sugar.

Orville W. Boring, who is attending the Portland University, spent thanksgiving at home and returned to school Monday.

David Hedermann's horse, while running in the corral, slipped and fell on a cross-lay, and sprained his hock joint.

Miss M. L. Fernley spent thanksgiving with Mrs. W. H. Boring. Ask 'em.

HOW'S THIS. We offer One Hundred Dollars reward for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.
