The death of Mrs. Jane Armstrong while sitting in her chair at her home three miles northwest of this city was sudden and unexpected as she had been in her usual health previous to her demise. However as she was in her 95th year it is not a matter of surprise that she should depart this life. She was born in Ireland and after living in several places in the east, being at one time in the employ of Abraham Lincoln, she emigrated to the coast in 1849, and took up her residence with her husband, Wm. Armstrong, on the farm where she died. The funeral occurred on Saturday, services being conducted by Rev. Father Hillsbrand.

ROBINSON & MOSHER, Props.

Parties who pay their street assessments to the city treasurer and take his duplicate receipts therefor should on no account fail to file the duplicate receipt with the recorder so that he may enter it on the docket of liens and release the property from the legal lien which the assessment constitutes. If the receipt is not filed with the recorder the assessment remains a lien of record against the property. Don't fail to file your receipts with the recorder.

Sheriff Massie, the populist sheriff of Columbia county who is $3000 short in his account with the county, has not been seen since two weeks ago Friday when he went to Portland "to arrest a man." He was last seen going toward the Northern Pacific train and it is thought he has skipped to Canada. Tom Watts has been appointed sheriff by the county court.

When you are wanting any pure and first class cider you will find it to your interest to call upon James Partlow who makes a business of supplying families with a first class article made by himself from selected stock.

James G. Munro who appears at Shively's Thursday evening is not only a good reciter, but an actor of no mean repute.

The Mock Senate.

Those who were present at the last meeting of the mock senate, speak of the session as a most interesting one. In the absence of the president, Col. R. A. Miller, H. S. Strange was chosen president pro tem. After routine work, the free silver bill of Senator Thorne was taken up and discussed, the senators favoring the measure being Campbell, Rinearson, Hankins, Dresser and Straight, while those opposing were Senators Driggs, Dye, Ferrin, Powell and Hammond. The bill was laid on the table for future consideration. Two bills were made special order for the meeting this week as follows: To forbid alien ownership of land and requiring an educational qualification for all voters.

The state board of equalization have the records before them from the several counties and they show a total assessment for 1893 of $178,815,604 as against $196,604,770 in 1892. But while the total showing for the current year is not favorable the net figures show that after all indebtedness has been deducted the assessment for 1893 is $169,655,513 as against $130,992,396 for the previous year.

A new Methodist church is being built by the people of the Jones' mill neighborhood about half a mile from the mill. It is 54x40 and much of the work is being donated. It is hoped that it will be completed in time for the Christmas exercises which are to be held in the neighborhood. The ground was donated by H. H. Spaulding. The trustees are R. Confair, M. O. Gard, T. C. Livesay, T. W. Welch and P. W. Reas.

Robert De Shazer of Upper Eagle Creek was in the city Thursday attending to business and reports a very little snow at his place when he left Monday, though it had been in sight on the hills a few miles distant for some time. He reports the district in his district under the management of Miss Feathers of Damascus as just closed after a successful term.

It is expected that taxes can be paid by about the first of February and those who have them to pay are already anticipating the event by purchasing county warrants at a discount. With tax time imminent, those having warrants to sell ought to get a little better price than they have been bringing of late.

At a recent meeting of the school land commissioners in Salem an apportionment of 70 cents per scholar was made. As there are 7,240 scholars in this county this will yield $5,068.00 to be distributed to the several districts in the county. This apportionment will come in very handy in this year of no taxes.

A quiet wedding took place at the residence of Rev. Gilman Parker last Saturday evening when that gentleman united in matrimony Mr. John A. Roake and Miss Nora M. Rowan, both of this city. They will live in the house occupied by Mr. Jas. Roake for the few years, at the corner of Jefferson and Eleventh streets.

Col. R. A. Miller accompanied by his wife went to his old home in Jacksonville Saturday evening for the purpose of closing up his business there and to visit a few hours with relatives. He returned to his arduous post as register, the middle of the week.

Barton Jack, president of the Butte Creek Fair Association and postmaster at Marquam was in the city the first of the week and spent some time at the ENTERPRISE office. He states that Marquam, Scott's Mill and Willhoit will have a daily mail after the first of July next.

Sheriff Kelly, Clerk Powell and Treasurer Malarkey, of Multnomah county, who were indicted for not making their semi-annual reports as required by law, have been released as the new law makes no penalty for that offense.
