

OREGON CITY ENTERPRISE.

VOL. 28. NO. 8.

OREGON CITY, OREGON, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1893.

ESTABLISHED 1866

COURTS.
Circuit court convenes first Monday in November and third Monday in April.
Probate court in session first Monday in each month.
Commissioners court meets first Wednesday after first Monday of each month.

K. H. JOHNSON, D. W. KINNARD,
KINSHARD & JOHNSON,
CIVIL ENGINEERS AND SURVEYORS.
Railway location and construction, bridges, plans and estimates for water supply.
Business and street improvement of towns.
Special attention given to draughting and blue printing.

G. E. HAYES,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
OREGON CITY, OREGON.
Will practice in all the courts of the state, office, corner Main and Eighth streets, opposite court house.

W. CAREY JOHNSON,
LAWYER.
Corner Eighth and Main streets, Oregon City, Oregon.

REAL ESTATE TO SELL AND MONEY TO LOAN.

L. L. PORTER,
ATTORNEY AT LAW
ABSTRACTS OF PROPERTY FURNISHED.
Office next to Oregon City bank on 6th street.

C. O. T. WILLIAMS,
REAL ESTATE AND LOAN AGENT.
A good line of business, residence and suburban property.
Farm property in tracts to suit on easy terms.
Correspondence promptly answered. Office, next door to Canfield & Huntley's drug store.

C. H. DYER,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW
Office over Oregon City Bank, OREGON CITY, OREGON.

L. B. JANNEY,
LAWYER, NOTARY PUBLIC & INSURANCE.
Office with W. Carey Johnson.

D. H. C. B. SMITH,
PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON,
Eagle Creek, Oregon.

C. D. & D. C. LATOURETTE,
ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELORS AT LAW
MAIN STREET, OREGON CITY, OREGON.
Furnish Abstracts of Title, Loan Money, Foreclose Mortgages, and transact General Law Business.

H. K. CHURCH,
ATTORNEY AT LAW.
Will practice in all courts of the state.
Real Estate and Insurance.
Office on Main St. bet. Sixth and Seventh, OREGON CITY, OR.

E. M. HANDS,
NOTARY PUBLIC, REAL ESTATE & INSURANCE.
Office in the Post Office Building, Oregon City, Oregon.

GEO. C. BROWNELL, A. S. DRESSER,
BROWNELL & DRESSER
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
OREGON CITY, OREGON.

F. F. WHITE, W. A. WHITE,
WHITE BROTHERS
Practical Architects & Builders.
Will prepare plans, elevations, working drawings, and specifications for all kinds of buildings. Special attention given to modern cottages. Estimates furnished on application. Call on or address WHITE BROS., Oregon City, Ore.

THE COMMERCIAL BANK,
OF OREGON CITY.
Capital, $100,000.
TRANSACTS A GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS.
Loans made. Bills discounted. Makes collections. Buys and sells exchange on all points in the United States, Europe and Hong Kong. Deposits received—subject to check. Interest at usual rates allowed on time deposits. Bank open from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M. Saturday evenings from 5 to 7 P. M.
D. C. LATOURETTE, President.
F. E. DONALDSON, Cashier.

BANK OF OREGON CITY.
Oldest Banking House in the City.
Paid up Capital, $50,000.

PRESIDENT, VICE PRESIDENT, CASHIER, MANAGER.
A general banking business transacted. Deposits received subject to check. Approved bills, drafts and checks, County and city warrants bought. Loans made on real estate and personal security. Exchange bought and sold. Collections made on all points. Drafts sold available in any part of the world. Telegraphic exchanges sold on Portland, San Francisco, London and New York. Interest paid on time deposits.
Sub Agents of THE LONDON CHEQUE BANK.

His Daughter's Letter.

Dear Father:—Christmas is coming; we are all well and happy. The baby has grown ever so much, and has a great deal more sense than it used to have. Hoping the same of you, I remain,
Your daughter,
MOLLIE.

Mollie meant what she said; she had her mind on Christmas. Next time she will write father that Bellomy & Busch are keeping a fine assortment of children's Rocking Chairs, Fancy Rockers, Parlor Suites, Lounges, Bedroom Suites, and an endless variety of Toys.

OREGON CITY IRON WORKS,

New and Enlarged Shop with all appliances for

MACHINE WORK & CASTING.

All work executed in the best manner possible. Promptness guaranteed on all orders.

REPAIRING - A SPECIALTY.

Prices the lowest to be had in Portland. Shop on Fourth Street, near Main, Oregon City, Oregon.

J. ROAKE & CO., Proprietors.

How you Can Save Money

When your children need a laxative or stomach and bowel regulator, buy

BABY'S FRUIT LAXATIVE.

Fifty doses for twenty-five cents. The season for colds and coughs is upon us. In order to be prepared for an emergency, get a bottle of

Baby's Pectoral Syrup,

The best in the market. Price 25 cents. For sale at the CANBY PHARMACY, Canby, Or.

DR. J. H. IRVINE, Proprietor.

OREGON CITY JOBBING SHOP.

—All kinds of—

Tinning, Plumbing and General Jobbing

—DONE TO ORDER ON SHORT NOTICE.—

SEWER AND WATER CONNECTIONS MADE

At the most reasonable rates.

All work is done with a view to last and satisfy all concerned.

A. W. SCHWAN.

Shop on Seventh St., near Depot, Oregon City.

J. JONES & SON,

DEALER IN

Doors, Windows, Mouldings,

DOOR AND WINDOW FRAMES.

Cabinet Work, Fitting up Stores and Repairing of all kinds.

Jobbing Orders Promptly Executed.

PRICES THE LOWEST.

Shop corner Fourth and Water streets, back of Pope & Co's, Oregon City

SEVENTH STREET DRUG STORE.

DR. L. M. ANDREWS, Prop.

A Full Line of Fresh Drugs and Medicines.

Patent Medicines of all Makes, Notions, Optical Goods Full Stock of Machine Oils, Best and Cheapest.

Fine selection of Perfumery and Toilet Soaps. And Leading Brands of Cigarettes and Tobacco. Prescriptions carefully filled.

GEORGE BROUGHTON,
MANUFACTURER OF ALL KINDS OF

FIR AND HARDWOOD
Full stock of flooring, ceiling, rustic and finish. Lumber, dimension stuff and shingles. Special bills cut to order. Mill and yard on the River, Foot of Main Street, Oregon City, Or.

GROVER'S MESSAGE

Upon the Hawaiian Question Sent in Monday.

TRIED TO RESEAT QUEEN LILL.

Minister Stevens Condemned—Treaty Re-Submitted for Rejection—For Governor of Oregon.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—The long wished for communication from the president relative to the Hawaiian situation together with the correspondence relating thereto and the instructions to Minister Willis has been transmitted to congress, but aside from the instructions from the secretary of state to Mr. Willis there is nothing new or startling outside of what has been made public.

Secretary Gresham's instructions were as follows:

FIRST INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN.

"On your arrival you will take advantage of the earliest opportunity to inform the queen of this. Make known to her the president's position regarding the reprehensible conduct of the American minister and presence on land of the United States forces. Advise her of the desires of this government to do justice and undo wrong. You will, however, at the same time inform the queen that the president expects she will extend amnesty to all who are against her, including all who are connected with the provisional government, depriving them of no right or privilege. Having secured the queen's agreement to pursue this policy, you will advise the executive of the provisional government and his ministers of the president's determination of this question, which their action and that of the queen devolved upon him, and that they are expected to promptly restore her constitutional authority. Should the queen decline to pursue the course suggested, or should the provisional government refuse to abide by the president's decision, you will report the facts and await further instructions."

TELEGRAM OF NOVEMBER 24.

"The brevity of your telegram is embarrassing. You will insist upon amnesty and the recognition of the obligations of the provisional government as essential to the conditions of restoration. All interests will be promoted by prompt action."

LATEST ORDERS, DECEMBER 3.

"Your dispatch received by steamer November 25 seems to call for additional instructions. Should the queen refuse to assent to the written conditions you will at once inform her that the president will cease interposition in her behalf, and while he deems it his duty to endeavor to restore her as the sovereign of the constitutional government of the islands, his further efforts in that direction will depend on the queen's unqualified agreement that all obligations created by the provisional government in the proper course or its administration shall be assumed, and upon such pledges by her as will prevent the adoption of measures of proscription or punishment for what has been done in the past by those setting up or supporting the provisional government. The president feels by our original interference and what has followed that we have incurred a responsibility to the whole Hawaiian community, and it would not be just to put one party at the mercy of the other. Should the queen ask whether, if she acceded to the conditions, active steps would be taken by the United States to effect her restoration, or to maintain her authority thereafter, you will say the president cannot use force without the authority of congress. Should the queen accept the conditions and the provisional government refuse to surrender, you will be governed by your previous instructions. If the provisional government asks whether the United States will hold the queen to a fulfillment of the stipulated conditions, you will say the president, acting under the dictates of honor and duty, as he has done in endeavoring to effect restoration, will do all in his constitutional power to cause the observance of the conditions he has imposed."

THE CONCLUSION OF THE PRESIDENT.

Believing, therefore, the United States could not, under the circumstances disclosed, annex these islands without justly incurring the imputation of acquiring them by unjustifiable methods, I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has been a boast of our government that it aims to do justice in all the great questions that come before it. I shall now again submit the treaty of annexation to the senate for its consideration, and the instructions to Minister Willis, a copy of which accompanies this message. I have directed him to so inform the provisional government, but in the present instance our duty, does not, in my opinion, end with refusing to consummate this questionable transaction. It has