Purdon has taken the position left vacant by the transfer of Mr. Pence. His place on the street is filled by Capt. John Kelly, and D. Shepard is holding down the night watch business. Mr. Purdon will not resign as chief of police till the first of the year.

A SEASON OF JOY.

Merchants of Oregon City Supplied With Santa Claus Goods of all Sorts.

It is true that the world does not look as bright and smiling as it has on some Christmases of the past and as we hope it will on many that are to come, but that is no reason why we should draw our faces down with a long scowl and refuse to see the good and bright things by which we are surrounded. We may not be able to buy as fine presents this year for those we love as we did a year or two ago, but we can show them that we still think of them and are glad to do all in our power to make the season pleasant for them.

The merchants of this city appreciate the fact that Christmas comes but once a year and knowing that their customers would expect them to provide themselves with a selection of good things suitable for presents from which a Christmas gift could be selected. They have stocked their shelves well. Their reports for the season thus far are very encouraging as all report a better trade than they had dared to hope for.

BOOKS ARE ALWAYS ACCEPTABLE. Ever since the art of printing brought books within the reach of the masses they have been used and prized as Christmas gifts, and they are proving none the less so this year when the art of man has brought the cost down to the minimum while in excellence and beauty they surpass all former years. The place to find the best selection of these is at Huntley's, who has also a full assortment of the latest stationery's novelties. So varied is his assortment that his store has almost the appearance of a novelty bazaar. Don't miss him when selecting your presents.

USEFUL PRESENTS ALWAYS ACCEPTABLE. Few persons in this world are so wealthy that they do not appreciate and prize some useful article for a Christmas present. The writer has a present of this description given him several years ago which is in daily use and which almost invariably calls to mind the thoughtfulness of the donors, when it is used. For an unsurpassed and attractive list of useful articles suitable for a Christmas present to either child or adult you should go to the general merchandise store of the well known and reliable firm of Thos. Charman & Son. You will know just what you are buying there and will find a selection that will surprise you if you have not already looked it over.

THE RIGHT TIME AND PLACE to go for a real nice present is to Burkester & Andersen's jewelry store where you can find something real neat. You may want a ring for your wife, a cane for your father, a watch for your brother, a pair of cuff buttons for your boy or a set of those decorated dishes just as a hint to your best girl that she ought to name an early day. If you cannot go amiss at this favorite store.

MULTUM IN PARVO and lots of other things to numerous to mention. If you do not believe it all that you have to do is to call at the store of Bellamy & Busch and they will speedily convince you that you have struck the right place. If you don't see what you want you have only to ask for it and you can depend upon it that they will look it up in some corner that you never thought of. The only trouble there is that you will see so many things that you want that in spite of their low prices you will not have money enough. N. B. Be sure and take the children there.

SOME SUBSTANTIAL ARTICLES. You may not have been in the habit of going to the hardware store to select your gifts in which case you will be surprised when you come to examine Pope and Co.'s fine stock, to see so many things they carry that are suited to that purpose. Your wife would like a new stove in the place of that old one, your boy would appreciate a new knife, or you can get a set of knives, a carving set, some sad irons, a fine lamp or—well we can't enumerate the long list, you will just have to go and look for yourself.

YOU ARE NOT SICK NOW, but you will be if you buy your Christmas presents before you have examined the fancy articles at Huntley's. Most people go or send to the drug store when they are sick but knowing ones go to Huntley's drug store because they can find a nice assortment of holiday presents. Say young man, just let me whisper in your ear. Your best girl will think lots more of you if you send her some bottles of that fine perfume at C. G. Huntley's. Try it once and see.

A TIME FOR USEFUL PRESENTS. Perhaps you have not yet visited the Red Front store and do not know what their assortment comprises. If such is the case now is a good time to go and while there you will have an opportunity to pick out a useful present for one or more members of the family. They have lots of things not usually classed as useful so you can look over what they have and if you are not suited, then you must be hard to please.

YOU HAVE HIT IT AT LAST. Don't come in here with a sour face or if you do keep your hand on your pocket book with the puckering strings drawn tight, and don't look around, for if you do you will see something that will just suit you for a present and just out of curiosity you ask the price and then—you buy it, and several other things for your friends before you leave the store. Where did I say? At Charman & Co's City Drug store, of course. Everybody goes there for presents because they carry such an assortment of fancy and useful articles. Go thou and do likewise.

NO! FOR A CHRISTMAS DINNER. Go hungry on Christmas day! Who is there so disloyal to old St. Nick and his court as to think of going without a better dinner on that day than any of the other 365 of the year? Now you will want some help about that dinner and the first man you will want to see will be your groceryman; and to have the very best dinner you will want some of the fine things kept by the following well-known firms in the city all of whom ordered direct from St. Nick himself a special supply of Christmas dainties. All you have to do is to call and see E. E. Williams, V. Harris, Marr & Robertson, Charman & Son or the Red Front.

FIFTY PRESENTS IN ONE. The familiar face of a paper containing the news from the home of a dear friend is always welcome and by subscribing for the ENTERPRISE for the coming year and ordering it sent to a friend you can afford that friend pleasure fifty-two times during the year and thus remind him every time the paper comes of your thoughtfulness in sending him the paper. You can find no more suitable present for the next year. Try it and see.

SUITS TO SUIT ALL. Why not buy your boy a new suit of clothes for a Christmas present. He needs it and will appreciate it every time he puts it on. For a fine assortment of silk handkerchiefs and gents furnishing goods you will not fail to be suited at Glass & Smyth's.

It is the talk among railroad men that there is to be a change in the running time on the Southern Pacific about the first of the year which will bring the Overland to Oregon City later in the morning and earlier in the evening. While no one seems to know anything for sure it is thought that the evening time will be about five and the morning time about half past nine. This is about a return to the schedule of four years ago before the Albany local was put on. Speculations vary as to the cause, some averring that it means the entire abandonment of the Albany local and others that it is meditated for the purpose of giving tourists to the Mid-Winter fair an opportunity to view the Willamette valley by daylight.

The Number of HARPER'S BAZAR issued December 9th overflows with practical holiday suggestions. It contains the first installment of a new and absorbing story entitled "The Vow of the Virgin's Heart," by M. G. McClelland, which will continue through several numbers, and be illustrated by Frederic Remington and C. D. Gibson. Other notable contributions are: "The Baby's Inheritance," by Mary G. L. Underwood; and "Belated Christmas Gifts," by Mary G. Hungerford. Forebodings of the Christmas season give a suggestion of the Special Christmas Number to be issued on December 26th. FRANKLIN SQUARE, NEW YORK, December 5, 1893.

There will be an open meeting of the mock senate at Shiveley's hall on Friday evening of this week to which the public is invited. At the last meeting of that body the silver free coinage bill was passed and it has been vetoed by President Carl. The bill upon the president's veto will be discussed with two bright young attorneys of the city to lead in the discussion. E. F. Driggs will take grounds sustaining the veto and J. U. Campbell in favor of free silver. It is expected that the meeting will be an interesting one.

A Portland man was in the city the last of the week for the purpose of looking up another location for the sale of eastern butter, eggs, hams and lard and was very favorably impressed with this point as a trade center. He already has four stores of this kind in Portland and one in Vancouver. He wanted to rent the front of the postoffice for his business but could not get it, and was uncertain about finding another place to suit his purpose.

When on a visit to Iowa, Mr. A. Dalton, of Luray, Russell County, Kansas, called at the laboratory of Chamberlain's & Co., Des Moines, to show them his six year old boy, whose life had been saved by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, it having cured him of a very severe attack of croup. Mr. Dalton is certain that it saved his boy's life and is enthusiastic in his praise of the Remedy. For sale by Geo. A. Harding.

The case of the State vs. A. Hunter, arrested for trespass, was tried at Milwaukee on Wednesday, C. H. Dye appearing for the state and Gordon E. Hayes for defendant. The jury after being out for a short time brought in a verdict for the defendant.

For a sore throat there is nothing better than a flannel bandage dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It will nearly always effect a cure in one night's time. This remedy is also a favorite for rheumatism and has cured many a severe case. 50 cents bottles for sale by Geo. A. Harding.

You are not ready for Christmas until you have seen our stock. BURKESTER & ANDERSEN.

CONSTIPATION

Is called the "Father of Diseases." It is caused by a Torpid Liver, and is generally accompanied with 25-CENT PACKAGE—Has our Z Stamp in red on wrapper. J. H. ZEILIN & CO., Philadelphia, Pa.

CITY DADS' DOINGS.

Meeting on Wednesday Evening Rather Lively—Assessments Ordered.

The city council met in special session on Wednesday evening to consider the freight license ordinance as applied to street railways and while in session transacted other business. The ordinance taxing freight cars on street railways was amended making the license $300 per annum instead of $100 and was ordered republished with a clause added making it a misdemeanor for the company or any employee to operate the cars without a license.

Hanshaw & Behm contractors on the Main street improvement were paid $1,200 out of the Main street fund and Periam Bros were paid $235.20 from the Fifth street fund. The bills of H. J. Harding for $11.20, J. Kober for $2.25 and Albright & Warner for $11.20 were ordered paid. These bills were for supplies furnished the hobos when in town last week.

The bill of Wilson & Cook for 75 cents was ordered paid.

The most important act of the evening was the issuing of an order to the recorder directing him to issue a warrant to the assessor commanding him to proceed at once to collect the Main and Fifth street assessments.

Drama and Operetta.

Thursday evening, the 28th of this month, there will be presented at Shiveleys opera house, a most interesting program under the auspices of the Catholic society, which will include a laughable farce entitled "The Little Chimney Sweep," or "Honesty the Best Policy," and the operetta, "Crown of virtue" or "Coronation." Besides these interesting features of the program there will be recitations and songs by the children of the school and music by the full orchestra, so that all who go will be certain of a rich treat. Admission, reserved seats 35 cents, general, 25 cents. Curtain will rise at 8 o'clock. Reserved seats at the postoffice.

New Stock of Novelties

You have not been accustomed to finding Christmas novelties on the hill but if you will call at J. Kober's on Seventh street you will find an assortment suited for presents for all that will surprise you. Don't fail to call and see these goods at once. J. Kober.

For One Week Only—Ladies fine kid gloves we sold for $1.25 now 85 cents—at the Red Front's Special Sale. Come early.

The rain of Thursday forenoon was the hardest that has been experienced here this winter, and fears were entertained that the sewers might not prove equal to the task of carrying off the heavy fall of water, but a careful examination showed that they were working finely.

RED MEN'S MASQUERADE BALL CHRISTMAS night. Grand march starts at 9 o'clock.

Mr. J. P. Blaize, an extensive real estate dealer in Des Moines, Iowa, narrowly escaped one of the severest attacks of pneumonia while in the northern part of the state during a recent blizzard, says the Saturday Review. Mr. Blaize had occasion to drive several miles during the storm and was so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to get warm, and inside of an hour after his return he was threatened with a severe case of pneumonia or lung fever. Mr. Blaize sent to the nearest drug store and got a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, of which he had often heard, and took a number of large doses. He says the effect was wonderful and in a short time he was breathing quite easily. He kept on taking the medicine and the next day was able to come to Des Moines. Mr. Blaize regards his cure as simply wonderful. For sale by Geo. A. Harding.
