Wilsonville Enjoys Christmas with Sunset Lodge, A. O. U. W.—Fine Program—Presents and a Dance.

WILSONVILLE, Jan. 1.—The Christmas tree festival given at Wilsonville December 23d by the honorable brothers of Sunset Lodge No. 43 A. O. U. W., was in all respects one of the grandest affairs ever witnessed in Wilsonville, and was so well patronized that every inch of space was jammed with humanity.

THE LITERARY PROGRAM. Christmas Song, by the Misses Maud Seely, Priscilla Miley, Sarah Probst, Amelia Haslebrink and Messrs. John Probst, Leo Harness, Archie and Charlie Seely.

Opening Address, by C. T. Tooze, which was lively and witty from beginning to end.

Song, Maggie Darling, by Mrs. Lettie Tooze and Mrs. Lillie Jolly, of Portland. Cantata—"Mother Goose," by Misses Anna Wagner, Maud Seely, Sarah Probst, Amelia Haslebrink, Cora Seely, Minnie Butson, Grace Vowell, Daisy Seely, Ellen Probst, Lillie Seely, and Messrs. Alvan Miley, Fritz Wagner, Frank Probst, and many others.

"Rock of Ages," by Miss Jones. Instrumental Music—"Prize Banner Quickstep," by Mrs. Lillie Jolly. "Little Midget," by little Miss Myrtle Tooze.

Story of a Stowaway, by John Tyler, Esq. Song—"Carol, Sweetly Carol," by Mrs. Tooze and Mrs. Jolly.

"Execution of Montrose," by C. T. Tooze. Instrumental music, by Mrs. Jolly. Remarks by R. L. Spencer, of Oregon City, deputy lecturer of the A. O. U. W., which were very spicy and instructive.

Closing address, by C. T. Tooze, which was wound up with several good hearty cheers in which all joined.

Next came in good Santa Claus, the jolly old fellow, well laden, to gladden the hearts of both young and old, with candy, nuts, pop corn balls, and many delicious things to eat, besides numerous valuable presents which weighed down two handsomely decorated trees, all of which were distributed to their little owners.

Mrs. Lettie Tooze was the recipient of a handsome gold watch and chain; Charles Seely a valuable gold chain; Archie Seely, a gold watch and chain; Miss Flora Seely a beautiful photo album; Childie Parker, Stanley's latest watch; Mrs. Henry Voss a lovely pair of vases; Mrs. Knight a dress pattern; Nellie Butson a superb gold ring; Misses Nellie and Mary Murray an elegant singing bird and cage. Besides these dolls, books, toys, fancy work, neck wear, lace, ribbons, kerchiefs, etc., were distributed to all. Also a lovely China maiden, about three inches high.

It was 9:30 when old Santa Claus took his departure and the honorable president announced that a dance would follow. In a short time the hall was cleared of seats and trees and the young were keeping time with their feet to the sweet strains of music rendered by Prof. W. W. Graham of Graham's Ferry. But all too soon midnight came and the company bid farewell to one of the gayest times that the people of this vicinity ever enjoyed.

CURRINSVILLE CULLINGS. Holiday Merriment—People are Indignant at the Governor's Letter.

CURRINSVILLE, Jan. 2.—The holidays are now a thing of the past and the youth of the community are now looking back upon the pleasures of the past week and laying plans for the future.

The Christmas tree at Currinsville was gotten up by Prof. Warner and his pupils and the exchange of presents between the teacher and pupils showed that the greatest good will was prevailing. The dance which followed was well attended and was kept up until the rays of Helion dispelled the gloom when all went home singing "After the Ball." The festivities of the week were closed by a ball at Mr. Crawford's last night.

The fourth month of school closed prior to the holidays, there being a marked increase in the attendance.

Miss Ollie Currin and Amy Wade, who have been visiting their parents during the holidays, have returned to school in Portland.

Miss Ella Currin, teacher in the Park Place school is at home on a short vacation. At the last meeting of the A. O. U. W. the wives of the members obtained a neighboring house and prepared a sumptuous repast and about ten o'clock invited the members to supper. After doing justice to the viands, they congratulated themselves that their wives were so thoughtful; but alas inconsiderate man; they parted without so much as giving the ladies a vote of thanks.

is true that business is languishing and that many people are not able to meet their obligations at present, however, the records of the courts do not show that judgement has been taken in a larger number of cases than heretofore, and as a matter of fact creditors are extraordinarily lenient. While there may be a large number of those itinerants called tramps, yet the statement that any considerable part of our population is in want is not borne out by the facts and is unworthy of the governor. If the president should return a reply such as would characterize the governor under similar circumstances perhaps his eyes would be opened. The people have remembered with kindly feelings the efforts of the governor to cut down the expenses and lighten taxation, but these are beginning to be overshadowed by his recent actions and instead of being denominated a crank he may find a much stronger epithet applied to him in the future.

HAZELIA NOTES.

Christmas Exercises—Neighborhood News—Distinguished Visitors.

HAZELIA, Jan. 2.—The holidays are past and the young folks have had a good time in spite of the rain and mud.

There was a Christmas tree for the little ones at the school house. Every child present was remembered and all went away thanking Santa Claus for his generosity.
