IN SECRET ORDERS.

The Several Societies in this City Prospering.

Saturday evening of this week Falls City lodge No. 59 A. O. U. W. will meet at Shively's hall at 7:30 for the purpose of installing officers and to hold dedicatory service for their new hall. An interesting program has been prepared and the public is invited to be present and witness the exercises. Several of the grand lodge officers will be present and participate in the exercises besides conducting the installation.

Falls City lodge of Workmen elected officers for the ensuing term last Saturday night. There were no further nominations and as there was but one nominee for each position to be filled, the officers to be installed are those named as nominees last week.

Thursday evening of this week Oregon Lodge No. 3 of Odd Fellows will install officers and all members of the lodge and of neighboring lodges are invited to be present.

Star Lodge No. 55 K. of P. of Oswego installed officers for the coming term Wednesday evening.

There will be a meeting of the Woodmen next Tuesday evening at which there will be rank work. Neighbors are invited.

Thursday evening E. D. Baker camp of Sons of Veterans will meet for the purpose of installing officers for the coming term. Col. E. Hofer, of Salem, will be present for the purpose of installing the officers and will be the guest of Captain C. A. Herman while in the city.

In the evening there is to be a political meeting at the same place at which Hon. Geo. C. Brownell and others will speak.

Mrs. Whitlock's Will.

On Tuesday the last will and testament of the late Honor Marks Whitlock was offered for probate. This will was drawn on the 11th of May, 1893, with a codicil added on the 7th of August. It was drawn by Brownell & Dresser and witnessed by E. G. Caulfield and Mrs. M. A. Putrow. The will provides that W. T. Whitlock shall act as executor without bonds and makes the following bequests:

To Edward H. Whitlock $1,000 and use of the house in which he now lives during his life, after which it will revert to Wm. T. Whitlock or his heirs.

To Jane Marks Whitlock of London, England $1,000, to be paid in five equal annual installments.

To Thos. Whitlock of London $50.

To Thos. Marks Smith of Portland $200.

To the American Home Missionary society $200.

To the Congregational Sunday school $200.

To the Oregon City Congregational church $100.

To Rutherford Whitlock $250.

Grace Whitlock, $250.

To W. T. Whitlock all that remains of the estate after the above bequests are paid. The estate consists of the three lots and houses at the corner of Eleventh and Center street, lots in the eastern part of this city, property in Albina and sundry notes. No value is set to the property willed, but C. O. T. Williams, Jas. Wilkinson and A. D. Putrow were appointed appraisers.

Superintendent Henry Rushton of the East Side Railway who assumed his duties in that capacity a short time ago was in the city on Wednesday and called on the ENTERPRISE. In discussing the policy of the road he stated that he was studying the road to learn what would improve the service and so far as possible the grievances complained of by the ENTERPRISE will be corrected, among them being the heating of the cars at the earliest practicable date.

At the meeting of the city council on Wednesday night Mayor Straight was unavoidably absent being confined to his bed with a severe attack of sickness. No business was transacted except to listen to the reading of the mayor's message. The meeting was then adjourned to Friday night when it is hoped the mayor may be able to be present.

J. F. Jennings was in town for a short time Wednesday on business. He said that it was the first time that he had been in Oregon City since the 23rd of last June, as he had been too busy to come. That is a pretty good record for a man living within half a mile of the electric road and within three miles of the city.

Governor Penoyer was in the city on Saturday and appeared to be in consultation with T. W. Secor and other leading populists. Democrats did not appear to be cultivating his friendship while he was in town.

The Altona ran a big excursion from Independence and Salem on Monday to the football game in Portland, the boat being crowded. When they returned on Tuesday morning the band gave Oregon City a lively sendoff as they passed.

The Clackamas County fruit growers convention will meet at Milwaukie on the 11th of the month. Fruit growers should not forget the date and that officers are to be elected at that time for the coming year.

Straight From the East.

A Sultan of Turkey once said,

As he groaned at the pain in his head,

"Oh, my favorite wife,

I am sick of this life,

And I wish very much I were dead."

But his wife who was wise, answered "Fie if you will Pierce's Pellets but try,

You'll be well in a week—

And then you will speak

Of these Pellets with praise just as high."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cost only 25 cents and they are guaranteed to cure all the troubles which spring from constipation indigestion, and bilious attacks. If you have any of these troubles, why don't you follow the example of the Sultan of Turkey?

$500 reward for an incurable case of chronic Nasal Catarrh offered by the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. 50 cents by drug lists.

At a special session of the old council on Saturday night the ordinance taxing street railways delivering freight along the street $300 was passed with but one dissenting vote, that of Councilman Cooke, and the resignations of J. S. Purdom as chief of police, and Sidney Smyth, city engineer, were read and accepted.

Mary A. Wade, wife of Wm. Wade of Clackamas Heights died at her home on Sunday of quick consumption aged 32 years, leaving a husband and four children to mourn their loss. The funeral occurred on Monday.

It Should be in Every House.

J. B. Wilson, 371 Clay street, Sharpshurg Pa. says he would not be without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, that it cured his wife who was threatened with Pneumonia after an attack of "La Grippe" when various other remedies and several physicians had done her no good. Robert Barber, of Cooksport, Pa., claims Dr. King's New Discovery has done him more good than anything he ever used for lung trouble. Nothing like it. Try it. Free Trial Bottles at Geo. A. REBLAND.

Santa Claus Visit—Farmers Improving the Fine Weather Clearing Lands.

REBLAND, Dec. 27.—Christmas passed quietly here. The Christmas tree at the Bethel church was a decided success, being tastefully decorated and loaded with pretty and useful presents. The appropriate exercises were entertaining and well executed—the music especially being fine. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity and all appeared to enjoy themselves.

The pleasant weather is giving the farmers a chance to push their work and many are grubbing out new tracts of land.

E. C. Eckhoff has a man helping him clearing on his new home preparatory to putting a large tract into cultivation the coming season. W. J. Johnson is also clearing up a ten acre tract which he intends to break the coming spring.

Harvey Mattoon has so far recovered as to be able to return to his home in Viola.

D. C. Richardson took a load of apples to Portland last week for which he realized fair prices considering the times.

Messrs. Dillar & Cohn have just about finished hauling off their large crop of apples and hay to town, to their great relief as the condition of the roads have made their daily trips anything but a pastime.

The literary society whose regular meeting was postponed on account of the Christmas tree, will meet next Saturday the 30th, the leaders in the debate being John Hatton and Frank Linn.

REBLAND, Jan. 1.—The new year has greeted us with a mild pleasant morning, which would doubtless be refreshing to the frost-bitten denizens of some of the eastern states. We wish the editor and staff a happy new year, and the ENTERPRISE a year of prosperity.

The literary and debating society held its fifth meeting last Saturday, the house being crowded to its utmost capacity. The exercises were good and the debate spirited. It was resolved at this meeting to offer prizes to those of the young folks and children who had perfectly memorized recitations four out of five times. Also, first second and third prizes to the best speakers, from an elocutionary point of view. Those who received credit marks at this meeting are as follows: Eva Dempster, Otis Boylan, Royal Sprague, Mattie Dempster, Fred Berkey, Dan Mosher, John Gaskell, M. Mumpower; while those of the little folks who spoke with due regard to expression and inflection were, Ella Dempster, Irene Johnson and Olan Boylan. Ed. Johnson's singing was highly appreciated, and he was heartily encouraged. Among those from a distance who attended the literary were, Arthur Mattoon and James Scott of Viola, and John Hatton, M. Reed and W. E. Mumpower.

The question, "Resolved, That woman has more influence over man than money, was ably debated, but was decided in the negative, to the disappointment of the ladies present, who declare that the affirmative made the best argument.

The next question to be debated is, "Resolved, That intemperance has caused man more suffering than war," the leaders being W. E. Mumpower and J. D. Wood.

School will open tomorrow with an unusual number of large pupils. Many of Mr. Wood's former pupils in an adjoining district will attend.

Ed. Johnson visited the metropolis last week, being accompanied on his return by Mr. Nash, a Portland friend who is to spend a few days with him.

Asa Boylan is putting a new picket fence around his orchard. Wm. Stone is also putting up some new picket fence.

One day last week Mr. Stone caught in a steel trap a large wolf which had been making great havoc among his sheep.

Matthew Richardson has been suffering from a severe attack of the grip. John Richardson was also taken on the sick list.

Miss Anna Hiebuthorn is home from Damascus, where she has been teaching school for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Warner have removed out here from Portland.

Frank Wilcox has the additions and improvements to his dwelling about completed.

Our Candid Advice.

It is seldom that we appear in the roll of spiritual adviser or family physician, but there are times when we feel satisfied in calling the attention of our many subscribers to an article of true merit. We feel justified in saying that Moore's Revealed Remedy contains more actual merit than any medicine it has ever been our good fortune to test. One trial bottle will make you as enthusiastic as the writer. For sale by all druggists.
