THE ENTERPRISE CORRESPONDENTS SWEEP THE FIELD.

A Rumor that the Springwater-Baker Ferry Bridge Road is to be Planked—Redland-Logan Debate.

LOGAN, Feb. 5.—It is rumored that the County Court made a proposition to plank the road between Springwater and the Clackamas river at Baker's bridge providing the people living along said road will do the grading and lay the plank without extra expense to the county. Such a road would be a great improvement to this part of the county; but it is not probable that the road will be planked. The distance between the bridge and Springwater is about fifteen miles and it would cost the county not less than a thousand dollars per mile to build such a road, and people living along other roads would want like benefits, and it would be impossible for the county to meet the expense. The majority of the people here are in favor of grading the roads as it can be done much cheaper and is more permanent than a plank road, as the planks would rot inside of ten years. But if a road is once well macadamized it would not cost much to keep it in good order.

People are all busy plowing and getting ready to put in their spring crops. The weather has been favorable the past week, and we all look for an early spring.

The fall sown crops are looking well and the prospects are for a good harvest.

The Logan and Redland Literary and Debating societies met at a joint debate at the Harding grange hall last Saturday. The question, Resolved, That a warrior is of more benefit to his country than a statesman, was well argued on both sides, Logan having the affirmative and Redland the negative. After discussing the question for about two hours it was decided in favor of the Logans. The Redland boys defended the statesman side with ability and credit to their society. They have invited us to meet them again at some future time.

A very pleasant party was tendered the young people at the residence of Sam Gerber last Wednesday evening. The time was passed in games, music and dancing. An excellent lunch was served during the evening. The people also gave the Fishers a surprise last Friday evening, where they all enjoyed themselves in dancing until the morning hours.

J. Babler has made some permanent improvements by putting in a post fence along the east side of his place.

Lent Patterson is putting up a new granary on his place.

SANDY SNAPS.

The Railroad Meeting—For Another Term—Farmers are Busy.

SANDY, Feb. 4.—The railroad meeting which was held at the hall was attended by a large crowd, but the railroad men did not come. The mistake was made by advertising, as they could not be present on that day, although everybody here is heartily in favor of a railroad and several are talking of giving the right of way. The people should do all they can to make it a success because if we get a railroad through here our immense amount of timber we have here, of which thousands of feet are being destroyed and burned up would then be worth a fortune to the owners as we have some of the finest piping and bridge lumber that can be found anywhere so the people should do all they can to get a railroad, and if the people will do their part the railroad company will do their part.

The farmers who were idle all winter on account of the bad weather were blessed with some regular fine spring weather and nobody was so busy as the farmer, doing all kinds of work such as clearing, grubbing, fencing and plowing.

Geo. Beebe had the misfortune to lose a horse, also a cow by sickness last week.

Mr. Stone has sold forty acres of land to his brother. He also let the contract for clearing several acres.

Mr. Thompson, of Portland, will rent Kasper Arduer's farm on which he will move soon.

Politics are beginning to boil again here and ever once in a while a lively political discussion takes place.

A petition is being circulated to have Mr. Collet as teacher in our school for another term. Mr. Collet has taught two terms here already and most all of the people are well satisfied that he is as good a teacher as ever taught in this district. There are only a few against him for reasons unknown.

The Sandy Ridge literary and debating club was attended by an immense crowd last Wednesday. The question was "Resolved, That modern machinery is a detriment to the people." After a discussion of three hours it was decided in favor of the negative.

A grand ball was given at Thomas' hall Saturday night which was attended by a large crowd and everybody had a most enjoyable time on that occasion.

Sunnyside.

SUNNYSIDE, Jan. 30.—Our vicinity has been very quiet since my last writing. Every one is preparing for an entertainment next Friday evening to be given by the literary society at the school house. There will be a grand program and a stirring debate on the question, Resolved, That pride and ambition have caused more sorrow to humanity than superstition and ignorance. We are expecting a good time.

Our worthy neighbor, Mr. Hockenberry, has moved to Sellwood, and we are daily looking for the new tenant. The roads are in a horrible condition for movers to pass over.

Ditching is the order of the day in a great many fields. Men are out trying to run the water off. Mr. Ott is ditching his entire place.

Fires are seen in every direction, indicating that the brush and fallen timber is being burned.

Elder Hunter, of Carus, made us a short call on business.

WILSONVILLE WHISPERS.

Accident at the County Bridge—Good Literary Meeting—Prospering A. O. U. W.

WILSONVILLE, Feb. 6.—The team and wagon of William Brobst, driven by his son broke through the bridge near Boyce's mill on the 5th inst. and the wagon and team were precipitated to the ground about seven feet. The boy was thrown out, but soon recovered himself sufficiently to call very lustily for help, which came quickly and the team was released from its precarious position, but little hurt by the fall. The bridge is very rotten and should be replaced by a new one at once. It was a very fortunate affair for the county, as the team is one of the most valuable ones in the county, being valued at $400.

Hon. John Kruse has shipped 200 sacks of potatoes to San Francisco during the past week and if these do well he will ship more soon.

The A. O. U. W. lodge of this place is growing and increasing interest is manifested. The writer understands they expect to build a hall of their own during the coming summer and are looking up a desirable site to build on.

Hon. R. V. Short is back from Portland where he has been for several days assisting his daughter Lillie, who we are informed is trying to secure a divorce from her husband Frank B. Jolly, of Portland, and it is said the divorce was granted.

The Wilsonville literary society had a spirited debate on February 3d. The house was well filled and much interest was shown. The young people of this place are fully alive to the benefit of these meetings. The society will meet again on the 17th inst. and the young folks will try for a cash prize offered by C. T. Toose for the best speller belonging to the society. The society passed a resolution condemning the directors for closing the school house against the meetings of the society being held therein.

A large amount of grubbing has been done in this vicinity during the past winter. The most important of which are Bishop Seely, 15 acres, Martin Tauschmann, 5 acres, John Burton 3 acres, W. A. Crissell 16 acres John Epler 15 acres, and Mr. McClincy 10 acres.

C. T. Toose has bought property to the value of $2000 in Woodburn and the talk is that he will move there soon.

A. A. Silvey has rented the farm and hop yard of William Spicer for four years and has gone to work on it.

Mr. Ritter, who bought forty acres of the R. V. Short farm has his house completed and has moved thereon with his family. They are all rustlers and will soon have a fine home.

CARUS CULLINGS

Interesting Letter From a Live Correspondent—Politics, Railroad, and Public Hall.

CARUS, Feb. 5.—We hear the name of Frank Jagger mentioned in this vicinity as a suitable nominee for the office of county commissioner. Mr. Jagger is a staunch republican, a worthy citizen, a capable and efficient officer; honoring the votes of those who elect him to any position of trust and responsibility.

Last week two gentlemen from Sebraska were the guests of M. E. Kandon. They are much pleased with this locality and one expressed a desire to locate here if he can persuade his family to come.

The railroad meeting announced for Carus January 24th, failed to come off as the committee could not obtain the use of the school house. "Tis true; but pity 'tis 'tis true." A building at McConrd's mill has been offered for a future appointment. Carusites will not be backward in the furtherance of any practicable scheme looking toward the location of an electric railway from Wilhoit to Oregon City.

W. W. May has it in mind to erect a building on his premises conveniently near the road to be used as a hall. Mr. May has the promise of abundant financial help, if necessary, in putting up such a building. We suggest that he enlarge his plan to furnish room for store and postoffice.

Ranchmen in this vicinity have had the dehorning process applied to their cattle. It is a good way to control unruly stock, and, if done by an expert, does not cause any great suffering.

Horses have as a rule wintered very poorly in this locality. Many are sick and several have died.

Mrs. Carrick Cassidy, who since her illness of a year ago has suffered with a stiffened knee, recently met with a fall, striking the lame knee. It, of course, caused excruciating pain, but loosened the joint and she now walks without her crutch.

Evangelist Bran and wife, now holding meetings in Milwaukee, are expected at Carus this week to begin a protracted meeting in Graham's church. Notice of their arrival will be given and as their methods are unique, much interest is felt in their coming.

M. P. Root and John Shannon are digging trenches for drainage purposes.

Miss Lulu Traylor, who is not in school because of sore eyes, is no better.

Many in the neighborhood are taking advantage of the excellent weather to do their spring plowing. We in school are almost selfish enough to wish it would not continue so as it takes some from school.

Our second contest with the Mink school will be held at that place next Monday evening. We hope to have better success this time than before.

The next open meeting of the mock court will be held next Thursday evening. The boys hope all will attend as they feel sure they can make the evening pass pleasantly. There were four new members enrolled at the last meeting which is encouraging to the boys, as they feel that it shows that interest is being taken in this form of literary work. The membership is now nearly forty which shows well considering the fact there is an age limit permitting only those between the age of sixteen and forty to join.

NEEDY NOTES.

Death of an Old Citizen—Rousing Meeting of the Republican Club.

NEEDY, Feb. 5.—Last Friday morning at 3 o'clock John Laes passed from this life after a short illness of lung fever. The sad news cast a gloom over the neighborhood. Mr. Laes was an honorable, upright man and a Christian. He was respected by all who knew him. He came to this neighborhood about fifteen years ago and bought 80 acres of raw timber land which he had nearly all cleared and under cultivation, and upon which he had built a fine residence the last year. He leaves a wife and family of small children who have the sympathy of the entire community. Mr. Laes was aged 44 years, 8 months and 5 days. The funeral services were conducted by Reverends D. J. Kropf and J. Hauffmann on Sunday. The attendance was very large.

The republican club met last Saturday evening at the school house and enjoyed a glorious meeting. Patriotic speeches were made after the usual routine of business was transacted. Our chairman, R. W. Zimmerman, being absent attending the meeting of the central committee at Oregon City, Wm. Thompson was elected to occupy the chair which he did in a very creditable manner. Among the speakers were J. H. Wolfer and Charles Powell from Marquams, D. Zimmerman, Samuel Wolfer, William Thompson, B. F. Smith and others. J. H. Wolfer occupied the floor about two hours. He made the difference between free trade and protection very plain, and we are inclined to think that if Mr. Wilson had been a listener he would have slipped out of the door and left Needy never to return. If Mr. Wolfer is training for the senate it is evident from his speeches that he will be an ugly customer for his opponents to meet in the coming campaign.

The Needy republican club will meet again on Saturday evening, the 17th of this month. A grand turnout is expected by the club. Everybody in the precinct, old and young, are invited to come on that evening and join the club. We hope all the young men especially will come and put their names on the roll. They will not find a better time to enjoy themselves and educate their minds. The ladies are also invited to attend. The house will be appropriately decorated and every one will be made as comfortable as possible.

Marriage Bells at Redland.

REDLAND, Feb. 4.—On Thursday, February 1, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Armstrong, Miss Jessie Armstrong, one of our most estimable young ladies, was joined in the holy bonds of matrimony to B. E. Courtwright, Rev. Sylvanus, of Springwater, officiating. The bride was tastefully attired in a handsome gown of deep blue, which was exceedingly becoming to her faultless complexion and fair English type of beauty. The wedding was a quiet one. The newly married couple have gone to housekeeping in Mr. Courtwright's new cottage. The neighbors and friends join in wishing them happiness and a long and prosperous journey through life.

Stafford Snaps.

STAFFORD, Feb. 6.—The past week has been cold and clear, the ground being frozen nearly every morning.

F. Ellingson has been repairing his house and having quite a large quantity of land slashed.

Meint Peters and sons are downing the large trees and clearing the land ready for the plow.

The "Baby" saw mill is no more, the last of it having been torn away last week. Reint Deneni was thrown from his pony a few nights ago and dragged some distance but not seriously hurt.

Wm. Yoster broke one of his horses to ride last week, but came near getting broken of riding himself. His bones were sore for a few days.

Oscar Larson has been hauling hay from Sharp's. It seems rather early in the season for farmers to be out of horse feed, but that is the case with some of them.
