the Curse of Millitarism Our Prague correspondent says that

MAKE the Bohemian deputies in the Austrian parliamentary delegations continue THE strongly to oppose the new military expenditure required by the war department on behalf of the triple alliance.

WEAK The figures the opposition gives are significant, From 1868 to 1893 the Austrian STRONG army budget rose from 68,699,640 florins to 107,374,863 florins. During those years

2,883,000,000 florins have been expended Song Service, led by Mrs. Cami-bell of Canby. on the army. The navy and the landwehr pre not included in this vast sum. The occupation of Bosnia alone has cost the empire since 1878 245,993,500 florins.

On the other hand, nothing is incurred for works of peace. Not a mile of a navigable channel has been made. The support of primary schools, asylums, road building, etc., rests entirely on the shoulders of the provinces themselves. Other figures are no less suggestive. In the whole of Austria-Hungary there are 4,000,000 paupers and 16,000,000 persons unable to work-viz, children, old people and cripples; 9,000,000 women and hand workers earning no more than 180 florins a year: 2,000,000 workmen and servants whose yearly income does not exceed 200 florins, and only 1,681,060 persons getting from their work, trade or capital more than 300 florins. The physical and moral condition of the impoverished population is deteriorating. -London News.

Pecuniary Prospects of the Chicago Fair.

If the Columbian company will discharge its bonded indebtedness and refund to the government the amount of its donation, it will do marvelously well. Every effort of the directory ought to be exerted in that direction. Operating expenses are far in excess of reason. Struggle has been made and successfully a "Its Author," Prof. Gary of Mil- to a certain extent in the direction of reduced expenditure on current account, but the field is still full of possibilities. The banker's estimate of a 33 per cent return to Chicago and the shareholders, Chicago being on a footing with all shareholders, is optimistic. The estimate takes no account of the fact that it is the purpose of the Columbian Ex-Address, Prof. Gray of Park Palce position company to continue expenditure after the closing of the fair. The Columbian guard have been assured that large numbers of them will remain for a year or more. The whole department of construction, reduced in number, but still an expensive outfit, will be Address, Rev. Gardner of Canby, continued. As the exposition is now managed, there will not be a penny of return for any shareholder. It is idle to make other prediction.-Chicago Times.

End of De Maupassant.

De Maupassant was very thoroughly discussed at the time he was taken insane, and now that he is dead at the age of 48 there is nothing to add save that the operation of a great natural law is completed. He was a master of condensation in literary style. His short, terse sentences are matchless, but most of his stories are earthly and doubly pernicious by reason of the masterly skill with which they are told. No man could portray such frightful dramas of passion without entering into the emotions expressed. His own soul caught every reflection, and the strain was too much for him. "A prematurely wornout nervous system" was the cause of his death. His career was only for 12 years, but he leaves behind a mass of brilliantfilth that will do harm for many decades .-
