LIVELY MEETING OF THE COUNCIL.

Several Lively Tiffs Between Mayor and Council.

The city hall was crowded at the opening of the session of the city council Wednesday evening in expectation of war between the mayor and council. All members were present, and after several minor matters had been disposed of the ball opened. The business transacted was as follows: A petition was read from the residents of Falls View asking that the ordinance prohibiting cows from running at large be amended so as not to apply to Falls View.

The communication from "a taxpayer" asking that people be restricted from dumping refuse in the canyon on 12th street was read. There being no name signed it was ordered on file without action.

Application of Albert Schilling for permission to put new front in the Palace restaurant building granted.

The message from Mayor Straight vetoing the ordinance relative to the salary of the chief of police was ordered on table. Relative to the passage of the ordinance over the veto the mayor ruled that it was out of order to vote upon that question at that time, and on motion of Councilman Kelly seconded by Councilman Stevens an appeal was taken from the decision of the mayor. Upon the appeal, Councilman Cooke and Howell voted aye, all others no. The question of sustaining the mayor in his veto was then put and the ordinance passed by the same vote as above.

The recorder reported as follows concerning the city's finances: Six per cent bonds outstanding, due May 1, 1901, $30,000.

Five per cent bonds outstanding due May 1, 1913, 20,000.

Warrants drawn upon the general fund outstanding $5499.38.

Cash in hands of treasurer $3200.

Warrants drawn on Fifth street fund and outstanding $2463.45.

Warrants drawn on the Main street fund and outstanding $8629.74.

R. Glasspool having been granted permission to address the council stated that owing to a deficit in the sidewalk at the corner of Moss and Main streets he had met with an accident which hurt his leg seriously so that he was laid up and under the doctor's care for five weeks whereby he was loser both in time and money, and asked that he be suitably remunerated. He stated that if the council saw fit to make him recompense for his injury so that he would not be the loser financially he would not be disposed to stand upon the amount, but should he have to push his claim he should expect more.

The several bills were read in detail and referred to the finance committee who reported favorably upon the following which were ordered paid:

Table with 2 columns: Name, Amount. A. F. Asmus $ 7 90, Mrs. G. W. Church 8 00, Pat McGlaughlin 6 25, J. Forsythe 9 00, Jno. Green 2 00, E. Newton 1 00, C. Babcock 20 00, E. F. Driggs 15 00, L. L. Porter 25 00, J. Duffy 4 25, L. A. Noble 2 60, Port. Gen. Elec. Co. 172 46.

The bill of H. E. Cross for $46 for extras in building sidewalk on Main street between Twelfth and Fourteenth street was disallowed.

The bill of H. E. Cross for $300 for services in drawing contracts and ordinances relative to Main and Fifth streets was referred back for an itemized statement of account.

The bill of E. L. Shaw for services as night watch was allowed, Stevens and Broughton voting no, the others aye.

Upon the motion to pay C. R. Noblitt $70 for services as chief of police the question was raised that the charter required the chief of police to file a bond in the sum of $2000 and the mayor was asked if such bond had been filed and he answered not as he had thought it unnecessary in view of the fact that under existing conditions he had deemed the tenure of office of the chief so uncertain that he had not required a bond. The bill was allowed.

The bill of D. Canfield for $10 as chief of police was amended to $9.68 which Councilman Stevens stated was the proper proportion of the month's salary allowed a policeman, and then passed.

Upon the bill of D. E. Sheppard for services as night watch the police question was threshed over by the mayor and council. Finally upon the vote being taken Councilman Stevens, Jaggar, Broughton and Albright voted no, the others aye. The mayor declared it a tie and voted to pay the bill.

The bill of John Kelly for services as police officer was ordered not paid, all voting aye but Albright. A bill for $20 for ten days service was then ordered paid.

The city attorney was authorized to appeal the case of the city vs. the East Side Railway to the circuit court and empowered to employ additional council to cost not to exceed $50, this being the amount which he deemed sufficient.

The question of permitting the O. C. Manufacturing Company to lay a track from the end of the East Side railway track into their yard was brought up by the report of the majority of the street committee recommending that the prayer be granted, and an ordinance prepared fully protecting the city. Their report was adopted and the city attorney and committee authorized to draw such an ordinance. Councilman Stevens made a minority report adverse to the granting of such right.

E. L. Shaw was nominated for night watch and confirmed on a vote of 5 to 3.

C. R. Noblitt being nominated for chief of police was rejected by a vote of 6 to 2. The mayor then nominated C. E. Burns for Chief, and the nomination was confirmed by a vote of 6 to 2.

A resolution was introduced to dispense with all lights except at the council chamber and hose houses, but it was rejected.

The chief of police was authorized to bid in all property sold on Saturday for street assessments for full amount of assessment.

As the hydrants and hose on the hill do not fit, the committee on streets and city property was authorized to fix the same.

Ordinances were introduced and ordered published as follows: Prohibiting gambling of all sorts within the city and instructing the city attorney and chief of police to enforce the same; requiring all terms animals left in streets and alleys to be hitched; repealing the ordinance establishing fire limits within the city. An ordinance fixing the salary of the chief of police at $65 per month was rejected.

Drama at Canemah.

An excellent dramatic entertainment was given at Stoke's hall, Canemah, on Tuesday, February 6th, consisting of a drama in two acts entitled "The Last Leaf." Mrs. R. C. Ganong's acting was excellent. She shows strong dramatic power. Miss Clara Quinn and Miss Tillie Ganong both did themselves credit. Mr. L. O. Rose and C. Midlam as the rival lovers could not have been better while Messrs. W. A. Hedges, T. M. Long and Ralph Marshall deserve much praise.

A song by Messrs. Diller, Ed. Taylor, E. I. Fields, O. Taylor and D. Sheppard given between the acts, was appreciated by the audience and received an encore.

An orchestra of five pieces under the direction of Ed. Fields gave some good music. The entertainment with the addition of some recitations will be given at Pope's hall, February 9th, and Oregon City people will be sure of a treat. The proceeds are to purchase a bell for the new school house in Canemah.

Married.

WOLFE-HACKETT—At the home of the bride near Oregon City, February 7, 1894, by Rev. G. Wm. Giboney, Mr. John G. Wolfe and Miss Florence Hackett.

SWOPE-HOLMES—At the residence of the officiating pastor at Gladstone, Thursday, February 1st by Rev. Gilman Parker, Mr. Frank Swope and Miss Grace Holmes.

Mr. Swope is a promising young man of this city who has just been admitted to the bar and his wife is one of the excellent teachers of this county.

County Clerk Horton received the abstract of the work of the state board of equalization on the 19th of January and at once put a force at work making all needed changes and carrying out the totals. He has informed the sheriff that he will be ready to turn it over to him on Monday so that he can begin the collection of taxes on Tuesday. This is quick work and Mr. Horton deserves credit for pushing it to an early completion.

The Chicago Inter Ocean, that great Republican newspaper, has not suffered by the recent era of financial depression but has gone right along adding to its foundation stones—a large and substantial circulation—with a stride that under the circumstances is truly wonderful. At one time additions to the subscription list were coming at the rate of 800 to 1,100 per day for the daily issue, and as high as 1,500 per day for the Weekly Inter Ocean.

The result of this is to place it easily at the head of the list of great Chicago newspapers. It is certainly a good, clean, family newspaper of the highest order.
