The recent heavy storms throughout the East prevented the arrival of eastern mail Thursday morning.

See at the head of the local column the conditions by which you can get the ENTERPRISE at a reduced rate.

If you want an attractive sign see Davis the painter. Portland prices. Shop back of Pope & Co.'s hardware store.

Now that spring is coming you will want to select your grass and garden seeds and the best place is at the old reliable store of Charman & Son.

B. C. Hawley, of Logan was in the city on business Wednesday and reports the roads between Oregon City and Logan in a very bad condition.

The Portland Dispatch of recent date announces that two new candidates are in the field. Steve Green, of Oregon City, for Governor, and Senator G. E. Hayes, of Oregon City, for Congress. Haddis—Both are good men.

Mid-Winter Fair excursion tickets, Oregon City to San Francisco and return, via Southern Pacific Co.'s Shasta Route, will be placed on sale January 23rd. Rate, $27.50, including five admissions to the fair. Tickets good for thirty days from date of sale.

There is no claim made for Ayer's Sarsaparilla which cannot be endorsed by scores of testimonials. This fact plainly proves that the blood is the source of most disorders and that Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best of blood-purifiers. Try it this month.

Last Monday the tax roll for 1893 was turned over to the sheriff with the warrant for the collection of taxes duly attached, and directly thereafter that official began to take in money. Mr. Hackett states that quite a number have already availed themselves of the opportunity afforded them to liquidate and have paid in full.

The drama, "The Last Leaf," which was presented by Canemah talent at Pope's hall last Friday evening was well attended and the program as presented was much enjoyed by all. The receipts from the two entertainments were sufficient to procure a bell as desired and Friday morning Directors E. C. Ganong, W. A. Hedges and T. M. Long, accompanied by the clerk, C. O. Rose, will go to Portland for the purpose of purchasing the bell and seats for the school house.

Anthony A. Cowing, just appointed receiver of the land office at Burns, Oregon, is a brother of attorney T. F. Cowing of this place, who was in the beginning of Cleveland's first administration appointed register of a land office in Minnesota. Speaking in connection with this matter he says that his experience was that at the expiration of his term his former lucrative business was practically lost, consequently a government position for him hereafter must show more than a coloring.

Mrs. A. S. Dresser writes the ENTERPRISE that there is living in the back room of the old Baptist church on lower Main street at the corner of Twelfth street a poor woman with three small children dependent upon her for support who would be glad of assistance in the way of work. She is not an object of charity but if those who have washing or other work which they put out will assist in this way they will be aiding a worthy woman, who wants to and can earn her livelihood if she can but secure the work.

During the past week there has been a change made in the arrangement of the Electric hotel which greatly adds to the convenience of the hostelry. Heretofore when guests wished to be shown to their rooms they had to pass out on the street. The changes consist in the cutting of a doorway through at the landing on the main stairs and the building of a stairway in the office so that there will be no more necessity of braving the elements in passing to and from the office and dining room and the rooms on the upper floor.

POLITICAL BEES.

BONNETS FULL OF THE BUZZING INSECTS LOOKING FOR MONEY.

Pointers for Republicans—Some Democratic Candidates—The Local Pot Begins to Simmer.

The Roseburg Review in referring to state politics says that Congressman Hermann is making a hard fight for the republican nomination for governor, but the chances are that he will finally give it up, and accept a renomination for congress. Other leading candidates for governor J. B. Eddy, O. N. Denny, Ex-Gov. Moody, D. P. Thompson, and Hon. C. W. Fulton.

For the other state offices, Frank Baker will probably be re-nominated for state printer, although W. H. Leeds, of Ashland wants it. Phil Metchan for treasurer. Ed. Hirsch, of Salem, ex-state treasurer, is slated for secretary of state, but E. B. McElroy will enter the race against him in the convention. If he fails in this attempt the latter will take a renomination for school superintendent. Frank Rigler, of Oregon City, would like to have that place, too. T. T. Geer, of Salem, H. B. Miller, of Grants Pass, and Geo. C. Brownell of Oregon City, will contest for the congressional nomination in this district if Hermann gives it up. In the second district, Congressman Ellis, of Heppner, J. C. Leasure, of Pendleton, and C. A. Johns, of Baker City, are the leading candidates. S. W. Condon will probably be nominated for attorney-general.

On the democratic side of the house, the most frequently mentioned candidates for governor are Attorney General Chamberlain, J. K. Weatherford and Judge L. L. McArthur. Gen. H. B. Compton, "jigadler brindle" of the O. N. G., and state railroad commissioner, wants it and claims that he can get the votes of 7000 republican G. A. R. men, in addition to the democratic strength. Judge Bennett, of The Dalles, late candidate for supreme judge, would, also, be a strong candidate, if he would accept the nomination. Regarding the other state offices there seems to be few aspirants, because, no doubt, of the uncertainty of an election on that ticket.

John Myers wants to be governor and is looking for the plum to fall in his lap from the democratic convention.

Congressman Hermann has announced in a telegram from Washington that he is not a candidate for governor but that if the people of his district see fit to renominate him for congress he will accept. This decision upon his part is in accordance with the wishes of the majority of the people of the district who believe that he can best serve the state by remaining where he now is. H. E. Hayes formerly of this county is expecting to secure the nomination from the populists in opposition to Mr. Hermann.

In the local political field rumors continue to fill the air and it is so mixed that it would be folly to try and predict the outcome. As the time of the convention draws near new candidates are likely to be sprung and some of those now mentioned are likely to draw out of the contest altogether.

Mr. Maddock's friends are urging as a reason why he should be re-nominated by the republican convention that he was beaten unfairly two years ago and that the party owes it to him to permit him to make the race again this year.

J. L. Pollock, of Oswego, is spoken of in connection with a nomination for the lower house.

George W. Prosser, who has been mentioned as a possible candidate for the state senate, was in the city on Wednesday and says that he is not a candidate for senator, but that his friends are in favor of his permitting his name to be used for sheriff and that he has consented to permit them to use it in that connection.

A note from the ENTERPRISE correspondent at Carus, states that the people of that locality are urging the name of Frank Jagger for county commissioner, and urge as good reasons why he should be nominated, his fitness and ability. They also point with pride to the fact that in all public positions which he has held he has performed the duties well, honestly and with prudence. Mr. Jagger is a man who has shown his ability to handle business carefully and economically, and he would make a good commissioner.

From Barlows comes the news that Wm. Barlow of that place is being urged for a place on the representative ticket.

The people of Clackamas are mentioning the name of Alex. Thomson as a suitable candidate for county judge. Mr. Thomson was for four years county school superintendent, and is pretty well and favorably known throughout the county.

H. G. Starkweather's name has been suggested as a suitable candidate for the legislature. He was mentioned for the office of school superintendent two years ago. Those best acquainted with him say that he is not tainted with the popular idiosyncrasies for which his father is noted.

The Visiting Journalists. Concerning the visit of the Chicago representatives of the press to this city last week in charge of a committee of the Portland Press Club, Mr. E. J. L. White, president of the club says in the Portland Chronical: The party was escorted to the Portland where they were served with breakfast after which, through the kindness of Mr. Jos. Simon, receiver of the East Side Electric line, transportation was granted to the entire party to Oregon City. Upon arrival there Charman Bros. invited the entire party into their handsome establishment and so royally feasted the boys that the Chicago journalists let out a yell that discounted any college that ever entered the field. It was as follows: Well! Well!! Well!!! This beats Chicago all to— Well! Well!! Well!!!

Leaving Charman Bros., President Geo. Brownell, of the board of trade, ably assisted by Messrs Rands, Burkhardt, Smith, Charman and others took the party in hand and visited the great plant of the Portland General Electric Co. Returning from there the party visited the woolen mills—where death reigned supreme—not a spindle was moving, and passed through its various departments. Leaving the woolen mills a special car was placed at the disposal of the party, through the kindness of P. F. Morey and Manager Good, who never let an opportunity pass to make it pleasant for the members of the press. A run was made to head of the falls, and the party was shown all over the great undertakings of this company. Returning to the city, a splendid luncheon was served at the hotel, where President Brownell of the board of trade, made an interesting address of welcome, dwelling upon the great future that Oregon City has in store, and impressed upon our eastern brothers that the day was not far distant when Oregon City would be the Lowell of the Pacific coast; her great and magnificent falls, whose enormous power was to be harnessed by wires of steel, was to furnish the power that would drive immense factories and create great industries. He firmly impressed upon the eastern journalists that only 8000 horse power was now in use and that there was thousands more that would soon be utilized in developing a new era of prosperity for this section. Mr. Brownell was more than eloquent in his remarks, and met a most enthusiastic applause at the termination of his address. Other short speeches were made until the hour for leaving arrived. The Chicago gentlemen, through the writer, desire to express their heartfelt gratitude for the generous reception extended to them by the citizens of Oregon City whom they will always bear in mind as the most whole-souled, liberal-hearted people they have met anywhere.

The Chicago Inter Ocean, that great Republican newspaper, has not suffered by the recent era of financial depression but has gone right along adding to its foundation stones—a large and substantial circulation—with a stride that under the circumstances is truly wonderful. At one time additions to the subscription list were coming at the rate of 800 to 1,100 per day for the daily issue, and as high as 1,500 per day for the Weekly Inter Ocean.

The result of this is to place it easily at the head of the list of great Chicago newspapers. It is certainly a good, clean, family newspaper of the highest order.

PASS WORD AND GRIP.

Still Active in the Camps of Joiners—Good Meetings.

It was nearly 11 o'clock when the Workmen left their hall last Saturday night to wend their way homeward, the lodge having been kept at their hall some later than usual on account of the large number of initiations and a large amount of important business which engaged their attention. Among the things which they are proposing to do is to found a library in connection with the lodge. New by-laws are to be compiled and a committee of five members has been appointed to do the work.

Invitations have been issued by Achilles lodge, No. 38, K. of P. for the meeting which the lodge will hold on the 19th in honor of the 30th anniversary of the founding of the order. A literary and musical program has been prepared which it is believed will prove very interesting.

At the meeting of the Woodmen on Tuesday evening there was a good attendance with initiations and business to engage the attention of the camp till a late hour. Past Consul R. V. Cooper and Consul Commander R. O. Moll of Portland were present and assisted in the work of initiation. Five new applications were received and acted upon. The committee on arrangements for the entertainment on Tuesday evening announced program comprising music and literary productions together with a brief address upon the advantages of the order. Woodmen are authorized to invite their friends as a good time is expected.

A. L. Bean furnished work for the Redmen to work upon at the last gathering of the council around the camp fire on Tuesday evening.

The G. A. R. and kindred organization, the Sons of Veterans and the W. R. C. are planning to move from the K. of P. hall to the A. O. U. W. hall on the hill.

A delegation of about twenty went from here last Thursday evening for the purpose of organizing Aurora lodge 127, I. O. O. F. There were present representatives from all surrounding towns including Oswego, Silverton and Butteville. The lodge was organized with ten scarlet degree members and twenty-one initiates. There were about 225 persons present including those who constituted the new lodge and they report a good time and royal treatment on the part of the Aurora boys.

The benefit for Co. F for Thursday night attracted general attention and from the way in which the reserved seats went it was evident early in the week that there was certain to be a good attendance, while all who saw the preparation of the play as it was being rehearsed were loud in its praise. "Our Boys," as prepared and staged, is certain to prove a decided hit.

The St. Helens Mist, conducted by Messrs. Davis Brothers is one of the live go ahead papers of the Fifth district and is alert in the interest of the people of Clackamas county and the state, and when it comes to politics it makes republican chips fly in profusion.
