Joiners' Doings.

Tuesday evening Willamette Falls camp of Woodmen had a fine meeting at which seven members were added, making an even fifty members now belonging. Nine applications were read and acted on at the meeting.

Last Friday night six members of Falls City lodge of Workmen went to Canby with the paraphernalis for doing Sole Crowers the special work of the protection degree and conferred that degree upon members for the Canby lodge. They report a royal good time and the best of entertamment while there, and such a supper. They said upon their return that there was enough provided for 500 more. The only inference from this is that Gavel lodge has heard some of the stories relative to the appetites owned by members of the lodge here. Those who went from here were David Caufield, F. T. Barlow, A. C. Tower. Capt. John Kelly, Geo. Califf and John Drescher.
