BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PARTY.

On Monday evening Miss Edna Williams was delightfully surprised by a large party of her friends, the occasion being her eighteenth birthday anniversary. She was enticed from home by friends under the direction of Mrs. E. H. Barker and Misses Mollie Barkley and Annie Wilbert to go to town to a meeting and was taken to the Seventh street hall where she found a large party of her friends gathered for the purpose of celebrating the evening. Dancing, music, games and refreshments made the evening a most delightful one for all present and especially to Miss Williams who was wished many happy returns of the day. Among those present were the following: Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Cross, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Church, Mr. and Mrs. Max Scholpms, Mr. and Mrs. F. Joplin, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Williams, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Barker, Mrs. Geo. Moore, Mrs. Ben Barkley; Misses Foster, Etta Joplin, Lou Joplin, Mollie Barkley, Mossa Barkley, Annie Wilbert, Inez Riggs, E. Watson, T. Cross, Edna Garrow, Bessie Woods, Reiley, Hattie Church, Mary Williams, Eva Williams; Messrs. T. P. Randall, J. Gibson, W. J. Wilson, Geo. Wilbert, Chas. Wright, E. G. Farnsworth, Wm. Charles, H. Williams, M. Moran, Ralph Early, E. A. Newton, R. Puzh, Duane Ely, J. Garrow, Wm. Garrow and Geo. Blum.

A MULEY'S REVENGE.

An amusing incident is recorded from Sanvie's Island, where a herd of cows was destroyed. In the herd was a "muley" cow which had no horns. She always had to take a back seat, and if she ever came within reach of a pair of horns was sure to feel them, and was often "horned" and so much banged about that she wished she could grow a pair of horns or die. One day all of the rest were driven into a corral, and the poor muley left out in the cold, thinking that even her owner had gone back on her. What was her surprise and joy a few moments later to see the others coming out of the corral with bloody heads and no horns. She took one good look at the first victim and then sailed in and fairly wiped the earth with her, till she belted for mercy. Then another came out and was put through a similar course of sprouts, and so on with the whole lot, and from that day to this the muley is the boss of the flock and feeds in the choice spots and leads a gay life.

CLACKAMAN CREAMERY MEETING.

As the directors of the Clackamas County Creamery association were unable to meet at the time of the annual meeting on account of Mr. Lazelle's absence, they met last Friday and organized by electing E. M. Rands president, D. C. Latourte secretary and C. H. Caulfield treasurer. No business was transacted at the meeting except to authorize the president to take steps to have an abstract made of the land owned by the company as some question has been raised as to the boundaries.

LAST OF THE SENATE.

After several months of interesting meetings the mock senate of this city has adjourned not to meet again this season, as other and more important duties demand the attention of so many members. The meetings of this body have been in the main well attended and very interesting and useful to the members. At the meeting on Friday evening Senator Ferrin's bill for the improvement of the creek in Connecticut was passed without opposition after which a tariff bill was produced and argued with great interest till nearly 12 o'clock. Judge Meldrum, Chas. Meserve and J. P. Shaw were appointed to collect money due the senate for dues and to wind up all business of the society. The dues from those who joined if paid in are more than ample to liquidate all debts.

MONEY FOR THE COUNTY.

Saturday's Statesman notes that in pursuance of an act passed at the last session of the legislature the secretary of state will on Monday next divide all the proceeds of the 5 per centum fund now in the state treasury and the direct tax fund among the several counties in the state according to their area. This per centum fund arises from the sale of public lands and the whole of the apportionment is to be used by the counties in the building, maintaining and improving of public roads and bridges and is distributed among the counties pro rata according to the area. Last year it was about $66,000, but this year it will not be so large—probably not to exceed $40,000.

FALLS VIEW SCHOOL MEETING.

At the annual meeting in the Falls View school district E. B. Andrews was elected director to succeed I. E. Lawrence, and J. Doremus was chosen clerk to succeed himself. The question of consolidation with Oregon City was discussed, there being two factions, one in favor of building a fine school house and the other in favor of joining Oregon City. Those in favor of becoming a part of the Oregon City district think it will be feasible to build a foot bridge across the gulch to the Eastham school building high enough to do away with the hill on either side.

CLOSING CONCERT.

At the Baptist church, Thursday evening March 15 the closing concert of the vocal class, will be under the direction of Mr. W. F. Werschkul of Portland. The program is arranged to please everybody and will consist of choice solos, duets, quartets and choruses. The following persons will assist in solos and duets: Mrs. F. L. Montgomery, Miss L. Waggoner, and Mr. George Almale, jr. of Portland, Miss L. Bentley, a talented young elocutionist from the East, will assist in a recitation and act as accompanist. A first class entertainment is assured to all. Look out for dodgers.

FINE FRUIT PROSPECTS.

During the past week many farmers have been in the city and when asked concerning the fruit prospect they have without exception reported the outlook much better than usual. They say that the fall was conducive to a perfect ripening of the wood which was in excellent condition to winter without injury. The cool weather of the spring thus far has kept the buds from swelling and now there is every prospect that peaches and all other fruits will be a much better than an average crop.

CLUB MEETING AT LOGAN.

Hon. J. M. Tracey was in the city on Tuesday arranging for a meeting at Logan for the purpose of organizing a republican club, and has fixed upon the 15th of March as the time for the meeting in the evening. In order to have the use of his hall for the meetings of the club several of the young republicans of the neighborhood have volunteered to assist in moving the 1,500 bushels of wheat which is now stored there to another building.

LEAVES ASYLUM INJUNCTIONS ISSUED.

SALEM, March 5.—The demurrer to the complaint in the branch asylum injunction case was presented before the circuit court here last Saturday, without argument of any kind to support it, and it was taken under advisement. Today the judge announced to the attorneys that he had not had time to examine the matter sufficiently to render a decision as well matured as the case demanded, and that he felt called upon to further consider the demurrer. A. H. Tanner, of counsel for defendants, urged an immediate decision, so that the case could be taken at once to the supreme court, admitting, however, that it was hardly fair to the circuit court to ask for a decision without time for deliberation. After some parley it was agreed by counsel that the demurrer should be overruled, as having been presented without argument, that defendants should refuse to answer further, and that the injunction should be made perpetual, defendants waiving the usual injunction bond. The time for perfecting appeal to the supreme court was, by consent, extended to the 20th inst., and the case will be appealed at once.

Bland's Seigniorage Bill Passes

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The long struggle in the house over Bland's bill for the coinage of silver seigniorage and silver bullion in the treasury, ended today, by the passage of the bill by a vote of 167 to 130. The special order to bring the bill to a vote was adopted by a bare quorum, immediately after the house convened. This broke the opposition of the filibusterers, and they were powerless to do anything further. All amendments offered to the measure by its opponents were defeated, the one which polled the most votes being Outwaite's amendment to strike out the second section. The bill as passed is in the nature of a substitute for the original text of the measure. The chances do not affect the material features of the bill which provide for the coinage of silver seigniorage in the treasury, the issue of silver certificates thereon, if need be, in the discretion of the secretary of the treasury, in advance of the coinage, and thereafter the coinage of the remainder of the bullion as fast as practicable, and the issue of silver certificates thereon to take place of treasury notes issued under the Sherman act which are to be retired and cancelled as rapidly as the coinage takes place.

MURDER AND SUICIDE AT EUGENE.

EUGENE, Or., March 1.—Albert Moss, a young man about 20 years of age, and residing with his parents, entered the house of David Coleman, in this city, about 8 o'clock tonight, and after talking a few minutes, suddenly pulled a revolver from his pocket, and without a moment's warning, began shooting, seriously, if not fatally wounding David Coleman and also wounding his single daughter, Belle, and killing his married daughter, Mrs. Emma Osborne. David Coleman is shot twice in the breast; Belle is shot through the arm; Mrs. Osborne was shot in the breast and expired almost instantly. As soon as the officers could be summoned they began a search for young Moss. He was found dead lying in the back yard of his house, having shot himself in the breast.

A BRAVE ENGINEER.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., March 2.—Engineer James McKinney, of the Rock Island saved his company from heavy loss tonight. As his train glided into a cut three miles east of here, a red light flashed across the track. McKinney saw several men with guns, and it flashed across his mind they were robbers. He pulled the throttle wide and jumped down into the bottom of his cab, and a minute too soon, for the robbers fired a volley into the engine and cab, but hurt no one. The train dashed through a shower of bullets, the bandits firing into the coaches as they passed. When the train reached Stockbridge it was found over 100 bullets had hit it.

CORBETT'S TRIAL A FARCE.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 1.—This afternoon the jury in the case against Jas. J. Corbett, charged with violating the laws of Florida, by engaging in a prize fight, retired to make up its verdict. Sixteen minutes later the jury returned and the foreman handed the verdict to the state's attorney, who read: "We, the jury, find defendant not guilty." Charlie Mitchell leaped over and grasped Corbett by the hand and whispered his congratulations.

DANBURY NEWS MAN DEAD.

DANBURY, Conn., March 4.—James Montgomery Bailey, the famous Danbury News editor, and originator of "American Domestic Humor," died today.

POLLARD-BRECKINRIDGE SUIT.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Next Thursday morning has been fixed upon for beginning the suit brought against Representative W. C. P. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, by Madeline V. Pollard, for breach of promise and seduction. The case will be tried before Judge Bradley, of the circuit court.

REFERENDUM RESOLUTIONS.

At a regular meeting of Highland grange No. 261 of Clackamas county, Oregon was passed the following resolutions with regard to the initiative and referendum system of legislation. Resolved, That we endorse the initiative and referendum issued by the joint committee on direct legislation.

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves that we will not support any candidate for the legislature at the next June election who will not pledge himself and sacred honor to work and vote for the proposed constitutional amendments.

Resolved, That one copy of these resolutions be sent to each of the county papers.

To Chew or Not to Chew.

A man may have used tobacco for years with seeming impunity, little dreaming that he is slowly being poisoned, until the time of dissolution approaches. He has an attack of heart failure, a stroke of paralysis or apoplexy, or some organic disease, and his days are numbered.

The enormous sum of $624,000,000 is spent yearly in the United States for cigars and tobacco.

How many of us would be glad to be rid of this terrible habit if we could only get something to HELP us give it up.

The Ohio Chemical Co., prop. of Hill's Chloride of Gold Tablets, offer a reward of $100 for any case of tobacco habit that cannot be cured by the use of Hill's Tablets. Should you desire to know more about this remedy, come to our store and get a circular.
