FRIDAY, MARCH 30, 1894.

FOUND IN THE RIVER.—Monday's Telegram contains the following: "While engaged in picking up driftwood in the river about a mile above Imman, Paulson & Co.'s mill on the east bank, about 10 o'clock this morning, a man named Smith found the body of an unknown 'boater' in the water opposite the residence of Judge J. H. Woodward. Smith notified Coroner Hughes, and Deputy Frank Hill went out for the body and brought it to the morgue, where it now lies, but has not yet been identified. It is that of an elderly man, probably about 55 years of age. When drowned he wore a dark overcoat, no coat or vest, a checkered cotton shirt and cheap black pants. His feet were encased in coarse leather boots. The hair was all off his head when found, and only a few gray hairs remained of his beard. On his person was found a cheap nickel teaspoon and five cents in money. No papers or other articles were found to reveal his identity. His body is in a terrible state of decomposition, and has evidently been in the water for several months. There are no bruises to indicate that he came over the rocks at the falls at Oregon City. Coroner Hughes will probably hold an inquest over the remains this afternoon." As soon as Chas. Athey and J. W. Cole heard of the report of the finding of the body and description given in the Telegram they went to Portland and examined the body and were able to identify it beyond a doubt as that of Joseph Rechner who mysteriously disappeared on the evening of the 26th of December last. Arrangements were made for bringing the body up on Wednesday. Mr. Rechner was an Odd Fellow and arrangements were made by the lodge here on Tuesday evening for the funeral on Thursday. Since the recovery of the body of Mr. Rechner the question arises with renewed prominence as to the cause of his death. There seems to be but three solutions tenable and these are suicide on account of melancholy or temporary mental derangement, accidental or foul play upon the part of some one who wished to gain by robbery. There seems no manner in which a solution can be hoped for. Some of the circumstances which were related at the time of his mysterious disappearance seem to be supported by the finding of the body, indicating that he was drowned upon the west side of the river and that it was his body that John Lewthwaite saw from the window of the pulp mill seven days subsequent to his disappearance.

AN EFFICIENT OFFICER.—The Oswego Iron Worker pays the present county recorder the following well deserved compliment: "There is every reason to believe that S. M. Ramsby, the present county recorder, will be his own successor. He is not only a very influential factor of the republican party of Clackamas, a gentleman who in the coming struggle will materially assist in leading the party to victory, but his past official course has been of such an elevated character that he has unconsciously won friends all over the county. He is certainly entitled to a second term and will doubtless receive it from the hands of an organization that is indebted to him. With all classes he is popular on account of his superior ability, exceptional affability, courteousness, and natural disposition to please all having business at his office. There is no question of his re-nomination in convention on April 4.

SOME SURVEYING NOTES.—The Oregonian of Tuesday contains the following notices relative to public lands: "United States Surveyor-General Byars is in receipt of information from the commissioner of the general land office that the surveys, executed by Alonzo Gesner, United States deputy surveyor in townships 8 south, ranges 2 and 3 east, in Marion county, are approved. The surveyor-general has sent the duplicate maps and description lists to the Oregon City land office for filing. After a notice to this effect has been published by the register of that office for sixty days, settlers may file their claims thereon. It is said this survey includes a large amount of good lands for homes as well as some fine bodies of timber.

HELD FOR MURDER.—On Tuesday H. S. Barnum was arraigned in Judge Fout's court charged with the murder of Oliver Achorn on the 26th of February, C. H. Dye appearing for the state and Geo. C. Brownell for the defense. While the evidence was not as conclusive as could be wished where a man is on trial for the murder of a fellow being it was sufficient in the eyes of the court to warrant the committing of the prisoner to jail to await the action of the grand jury which meets in April. It is expected that additional evidence will be procured before the trial.

ALL MONEY RETURNED.—L. L. Charman, of the Mid-winter fair committee appointed by the board of trade, reports that in accordance with the instructions of the board of trade the committee has returned all moneys collected. They had received $100 from citizens of the city and $12 from parties outside of the city.

BUCKLE'S ARNICA SALVE.—The Best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Itched Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by G. A. Harding.

MYRTLE LODGE No. 24.—This is the name of the youngest lodge in the city it having been organized last Saturday night in the A. O. U. W. hall as a branch of that order. It belongs to the Degree of Honor and is for ladies and gentlemen both, its membership being confined to members of the order, their wives, sons, daughters or sisters. Its objects are social and where desired beneficial. The lodge was instituted by Mrs. K. J. Young, Grand Chief of Honor of Portland assisted by Mrs. L. M. Morton, Lady of Honor; Mrs. Keyler, Chief of Evergreen; Mrs. E. Jackson, P. C.; Mrs. M. Graden, financier and Miss Mabel Young, recorder. Prior to the organization Mrs. Young delivered an interesting address upon the objects and benefits of the order which was listened to with marked attention. The lodge organized with 116 charter members and elected the following named officers: Mrs. H. Mel-drum, P. of C. C. of X.; Mrs. W. T. Whitlock, G. C. of X.; Mrs. R. G. Pierce, R. G.; Miss Kittle Paine, C. of C.; Mrs. C. C. Robbins, escort; Mrs. Chas. Merrill, inside watchman; Mrs. Geo. R. Callif, recorder; Mr. J. A. Stewart, financier; Mrs. A. C. Tower, receiver; Capt. John Kelly, outside watchman, Miss M. Langford, Mr. S. M. Young and Mr. P. Kelyer were present from Portland to witness the ceremony of institution. The lodge starts off under most favorable auspices and it is thought that the charter membership will mount up to nearly 200. There will be another meeting next Friday evening when many more members are expected to join. It is possible that the charter will not be kept open longer than this week.

SOME POLITICAL NOTES.—The Oregon City correspondent to the Three Sisters writes as follows concerning the political pot hereabouts: Republican candidates for county judge are arising on all sides. Among the number may be found Ezekiah Johnson and Judge Meldrum the incumbent; also J. M. Tracy, of Logan, and last, but not least, Thos. F. Ryan. Without disparaging the others, we venture to say that Mr. Ryan will be a popular candidate. The senatorial nomination will probably fall to Hon. Geo. C. Brownell. His sterling qualities, and well known ability, makes this almost a certainty. A good many Oregon City republicans are inclined to push Prof. Frank Rigler in the nomination for state superintendent. Prof. Rigler was principal of the Oregon City school for three years, and has many warm friends in this vicinity. There will be no change in the clerk's office this year. Geo. F. Horton has made many friends who will see that he gets another term. The same can be said of S. M. Ramsby, recorder. His office has not spoiled him and he has added to his already long list of friends.

ENCOURAGING REPORTS.—Republicans are taking an active interest in politics this year and the result is likely to be noticeable when the votes are counted next June. Dr. Hickman, of Clackamas, was in the city Tuesday and reported having spent a couple of hours the evening before in looking up members for the republican club which was recently organized there and had no difficulty in adding fifteen to the list, bringing the club membership up to seventy. Of those who signed, two had been democrats, two populists and three had not voted for four years. This is a sample of the way public feeling is trending this year. Let the good worked be pushed in every part of the county.

NO BI-METALLIC MEETING.—Notice was given that there would be a silver meeting at Pope's hall on Monday evening at which Hon. Van. B. DeLashmott would speak, but when the parties having the matter in charge went to engage the hall they found that the Young Mens' Republican Club had it for that evening, so it was taken for Tuesday evening, and the speakers at Portland were notified of the change, but the notice was not circulated here and upon the arrival of Mr. DeLashmott on Tuesday evening he found the meeting not well advertised and but few present. He decided that it would be best not to speak but to make a new date which will be done in the near future. The league has enrolled on its list something like 150 names hereabouts.

LIVELY RIVER COMPETITION.—Steamboat men who have known the river for years state that there has never been a time when competition for the up-river business was as close as it now is. As a sample of rates they mention the carrying of passengers a distance of forty miles for twenty-five cents. As this includes passage through the locks where ten cents of this amount has to go for lockage, it does not leave much for the boat. In the matter of freight it is even worse, so that a party who has anything to send can by running around to the different companies get his own rates.

DAMASCUS GRANGE OFFICERS.—Following is a list of the officers of Damascus Grange P. of H. for the present year, installed by P. M. M. W. Gardner, assisted by Brother E. Bates, of Springwater: M., S. C. Young; O., A. Welshe; L., Mrs. N. A. Morton; S., J. Bates; A. S., W. S. Bohna; Chap., A. Newell; Treas., F. Bates; Sec. T. H. Feathers; G. K., J. Johnson; P., Miss K. Feathers; F., Mrs. M. Newell; C., Mrs. M. Feathers; L. A. S., Miss I. Bates.

GRADUATED WITH HONOR.—Last week Linn Jones, who has been with C. G. Huntley in his drug store for the past three years, went to Portland for the purpose of passing an examination before the state board of pharmacy for a druggist's diploma. He has received returns from the examination showing that he passed with honors and has received his well earned diploma, of which he is justly proud.

WANT TO COME IN.—The people of Falls View school district voted at their annual meeting to apply for admission to the Oregon City district and in accordance with that vote the directors of the Falls View district had prepared two petitions, one for circulation in their own and the other to be signed by the voters of the Oregon City district. From the way in which the names were going upon the petition there seems to be no opposition on this side of the line.

BIDS ARE WANTED.—The surveyor-general is authorized to invite bids for the survey of the lands included in tp 39 s, r 1 e, tp 11 s, r 5 e, tp 8 s, r 2 e, tp 39 s, r 47 and 48 e, tp 3 s, r 47 and 48 e. These townships are scattered pretty well throughout the state.

Order Suspending Pensions Revoked.—WASHINGTON, March 12.—All suspension of pensions in cases where payment has not been already resumed, or where the pensioners have not been stricken from the rolls, will be removed by an order signed this afternoon by Commissioner Lochren. This action affects the cases of between 300 and 4000 pensioners. Pension agents will be instructed to pay these pensioners their former rates until otherwise ordered by the bureau.

Catarrh Cannot be Cured with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props. Toledo. Sold by Druggists, price 75c.
