This consumed considerable time and it was late before the work of nominating a ticket was begun.

The platform which was finally adopted took the Omaha platform as the making laws; the free coinage of silver per captia; declaring the present road law its return to the precinct from which collected; demanding the printing of insurgent ships. school books by the state and the furnishing of them to pupils at actual cost, demanding a reduction of all official salaries for all; demanding the ownership by cities of all industries requiring municipal franchises.

A resolution branding any person accepting a nomination on any other ticket as a traitor to the party was ruled out of order by the chairman. One set of resolutions introduced by the Canby delegation demanded several changes in the present laws, all of which were to go into effect prior to the time when the officers elected in June take their places. The must have had some queer ideas relative to the manner in which laws are made.

The important experiences of others are interesting. The following is no exception: "I had been troubled with heart disease by years, much of that time very seriously. For five years I was treated by one physician continuously. I was in business, but obliged to retire on account of my health. A physician told my friends that I could not live a menth. My feet and limbs were badly swollien, and I was indeed in a scrious condition when a gentleman directed my attention to Dr. Miles New Heart Cure, and said that his sister, who had been afflicted with heart disease, had been cured by the remedy, and was ugain a strong, healthy woman. I purchased a bottle of the Heart Cure, and in less than an hour after taking the first dose I could red a decided improvement in the circulation of my blood. When I had taken three doses I could now my anxies, something I had not done for months, and my limbs had been swolden so long that they seemed almost putrified Refore I had taken one bottle of the New Heart Cure the swelling had all gone down and I was so much better that I did my own work.
