THE ENTERPRISE CORRESPONDENTS SWEEP THE FIELD.

A Strong Plea for Maddock—Sheep-killing Dogs—Glanders Among the Horses—Neighborhood Notes.

CARUS, March 19.—In this vicinity the political pot does not boil very furiously; but good cooks say the best flavors are obtained by gentle simmering. Hence we are confident that a savory stew will obtain when the political viands are served.

Calla noticed in the Enterprise, issue of March 2, a quotation from that paper, and comments thereon by the Oswego Iron Worker, relating to the nomination of Eli C. Maddock by the republican convention for Sheriff. Your correspondent herewith takes exception to those comments, because they seem entirely without point in view of the facts. Possibly the Iron Worker has a candidate in the field which accounts for its dullness. The many friends of Mr. Maddock heartily endorse the statement of the Enterprise that he was unfairly beaten two years ago. He was not beaten by an opposite political party, nor by the nominee of that party; but by a man in his own—the republican—party, who used all his influence, not alone to secure the nomination himself, but to defeat his rival at the polls, the latter having been given the nomination. Supposing, however, we admit that Mr. Maddock was fairly beaten, still the position taken by the Iron Worker, viz: "that the interests of the republican party ought not to be sacrificed by again placing him in nomination," is, we believe, without precedent. No doubt Mr. Maddock has manhood enough to rest content in the ultimatum of his party, if by refusing to nominate him they declared him to be "not in it." At any rate "if at first you don't succeed, try, try again," is a sound principle; and we admire the stick-to-it-iveness of a man who bears such an experience of defeat as Mr. Maddock had, in a brave, manly way, and when the opportunity is presented is willing to try again. Mr. Eli C. Maddock has a good, clean record as an upright, conscientious citizen among those who know him best. In this vicinity his name receives favorable mention for the office to which he aspires. A sense of the unfairness which clung around his defeat in 1892, inspires the writer to bespeak for him another trial for the honor which it is in the power of the republican party to bestow.

Will Jones had six young lambs and one ewe killed by dogs owned by Frank Jaggar and Fred Bullard. The latter parties promptly shot their dogs and offered reparation for the sheep.

A veterinarian from Portland came to Carus last week to examine a sick horse belonging to M. E. London. He pronounced the disease to be glanders; said he would send an order this week for the horse to be killed. Allowed Mr. London seven dollars and a half damage.

Dick Jones is taking a short respite from blacksmithing in Portland and is putting in some good work on his ranch.

H. C. Higley, a former resident in Carus, came from Mt. Tabor last Sunday and made a short stay with friends. O. M. May of Molalla also made his friends a short visit on Sunday.

Letters from Widow Griffith state that she made a safe and pleasant trip to Pasola, California. She will spend some weeks with her daughter before going on to Wisconsin to visit her aged father.

Father David Hunter lost a good mare last week. She had been ailing for some months.

MILWAUKEE MUSINGS.

The Republican Club Meets—Committees Appointed—Social Notes.

MILWAUKEE, March 20.—The Milwaukee republican club met Monday evening with R. Scott in the chair. After the reading of the minutes, C. H. Dye and J. U. Campbell of Oregon City were introduced.

Mr. Dye spoke at some length upon the issues of the day, producing statistics which fully corroborated his statements, thus impressing upon the minds of the people the necessity of voting the republican ticket in the future. As the time was growing late Mr. Campbell made a brief speech, but one to the point. Both gentlemen proved to be able speakers and we hope they will favor us in the near future with another visit. After the speeches the chairman appointed the several committees, as follows:

Executive—R. S. McLoughlin, Sam Hooley, M. F. Ambler, John Wetzler, J. W. James.

Finance—J. C. Hungerford, Chas. Lakin, J. D. Rusk.

Program—Prof. T. J. Gary, F. Harlow, Harry Hooley, jr.

The club then adjourned to meet pursuant to call of the executive committee.

Miss Annie Penman of New Era is now residing with her sister and attending the Milwaukee school.

Miss Daisy Curtis of Forest Grove came here last week and is attending the public school. She is stopping with Mrs. Sargent.

Misses Nellie and Lucy Lambert of Portland were the guests of the Misses Scott last Tuesday.

The St. John Episcopal church will hold evening services all this week and morning services Friday and Sunday at 11 a. m., and also evening services Sunday.

J. G. Wilson arrived home Monday evening from an extended business trip to California, where he visited San Francisco, Pasadena, Los Angeles, and the other important cities of the state.

Lacey Looting.

LACEY, March 17.—We are having plenty of weather here—snow, rain, then more snow. Just now it is snowing in good style. What is the matter with the weather clerk, anyhow? Or have we to lay the bad weather to the present administration, as all other things, such as hard times, scarcity of money and work are said to be caused by it? Why not this miserable weather?

Albright was elected director for the term of three years and James I. Hoops clerk for the term of one year. There is some talk of a spring term of school.

Ira W. Lacey and the wife of Wm. E. Myers are both confined to their beds being very sick.

Roads hereabouts are impassable. We travel the lower road when we go from home.

The young people talk of building a hall in this vicinity in the near future. Success to the boys. There is also some mention of a new store being built in this neighborhood.

The young folks had a good time at John B. Albright's dance on Friday evening of last week.

How it snows! One would think it was the middle of winter instead of spring.

NEW ERA NOTES.

A Land Slide—Spring Birds Returned—Republican Club Meeting.

NEW ERA, March 19.—A pretty good south wind and a little sunshine is the weather here today.

One of our weather prophets says we will not have settled weather until the 29th instant, and we have reason to believe the same.

John Bond has about finished a job of grubbing two and one-half acres of hazels for Erastus Covey.

John E. Bradle of this place has had the misfortune to lose about one acre and a half of his farm. It moved from the hillside into the creek. While real estate is coming down you can't buy it any cheaper.

The hill and valley telegraph line between the Waldron farms had to be repaired one day last week, a tree having fallen on the wire and breaking it.

We note the blue birds and some of the German song birds have returned and have been doing their best to bring spring with them.

Don't forget that our republican club meets at Brown's school house next Friday evening at 7:30 p. m. Everybody is cordially invited.

Palmstee Plums.

GARFIELD, March 19.—We are still having bad weather, mostly rain, but some are plowing nearly every day. Several are ready to commence seeding as soon as the weather settles. That is the beauty of our land up here. We can plow it almost any time. It does not have to be the middle of summer before we can get in our grain.

The young people of this neighborhood have organized a debating and literary society to meet every Friday evening at the Irvan school house.

Mr. Switzer is teaching the Irvan school. It is his second term in that district. He is well liked by patrons and scholars.

W. Snuthins has lost his pony so has to go it about.

Doc. Palmateer has a very sick horse—one he got last summer.

Feed is getting scarce in this vicinity. Stock turned out to pasture comes up full. We are better off than some in the world. We have wood and too much water.

If the June election gets men on their ear worse than the school meetings did in the Porter and Irvan districts, they will need several deputy sheriffs to keep them straight.

Jack Knife Whittlings.

EAGLE CREEK, March 19.—Cas. Simpson is confined to his house by a cut in his foot made by an ax. He will soon be out again if he continues to improve.

Craig Stingley, who has been very low with consumption, has gone to Southern Oregon where he hopes to regain his health.

J. Williams and sister will start overland for Southern Oregon soon.

The Eagle Creek debating society will hold their meetings Saturday evenings, when some of the leading questions of the day will be taken up and discussed. The question last Saturday night was, Resolved, That good wagon roads are more beneficial to the country than rail roads. The leading disputant for the affirmative was H. Gibson; for the negative, Ben Forester. After a heated discussion the judges decided in favor of the affirmative.

The question at the next meeting will be, Resolved, that the Indian has received more cruelty at the hands of the whites than the Negro. John Brackett leader for the affirmative and James Simpson for the negative.

JACK KNIFE.

Park Place Pointers.

PARK PLACE, March 20.—At the debating contest last Saturday night in the literary society it was women versus men, with a clean walk over for the ladies. The question debated was, Resolved, That the right of suffrage should be extended to women. The affirmative speakers were Misses Nora Elliott, Daisy Frost, Susie Straight, and Mrs. Walls who easily won the decision.

The negative was conducted by John Gibson, George Rinearson, Wm. Smith and Sam Holcomb. The judges were Mr. Chase, Mrs. Wheeler and George Owen. A couple of minstrel songs by the boys and select readings by Miss Rosa Frost and Miss Nora Elliott closed the evening's entertainment.

The Abernethy republican club was organized last Thursday night with a membership of 24. The club will meet again Tuesday night, the 27th, at 7:30. As there are no democrats the populists are cordially invited.

Mr. Light was taken seriously ill with typhoid fever last week, and at present writing is so low that his life is despaired of.

Maple Lane Leaves.

MAPLE LAKE, March 20.—W. H. Walker commenced another term of school for us Monday.

We have a union Sunday school with M. P. Bradley superintendent, Mrs. Dickerson secretary, A. Mautz treasurer, and Miss Elsie Brayton organist.

Mr. Filcroft is building a new bridge across the Abernethy, and pushing the road work as fast as the weather will permit.

Republicans are enthusiastic with a club of twenty-one and as many more to come.

Mrs. Shelley has been very sick but we are glad to know she is convalescing.

Clackamas Crumbs.

CLACKAMAS, March 10.—As I have not seen anything in the paper lately from Clackamas I will endeavor to write.

A republican club was organized here about two weeks ago with 53 members, and has since had an increase of about 30. The club has rented the brick building in which to hold their meetings.

The people of this vicinity are busy clearing the brush and trees off of the grave yard. I believe it is their intention to fence it as soon as the ground is all cleared.

The spring term of school will open next Monday with R. Hargreaves and Miss Mary Talbert as teachers.

Miss Anna Palmateer, who has been here on a visit, returned to her home in Eastern Oregon the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mills have gone to Eastern Oregon, intending to be gone all summer.

Prof. Thomson will begin a three months school in the Copps district Monday, March 20th.

OSWEGO OMELET.

Several Social Events of a Pleasant Nature—Another Incorporation Meeting.

OSWEGO, March 21.—On Saturday evening last Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Evans gave a delightful party in honor of Ireland's patron saint. A good time is reported.

In anticipation of the departure for Eastern Oregon of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Ridge, the Ladies' Reading Room club tendered them a farewell party the evening of the 13th instant.
