A LITTLE TOO PREVIOUS .- According to the Engune Guard the late populist convention in this city made a nomination for an office that is not vacant till January 1897. It says the nomination of J. to act as a member of that body, not- called him to a better world. withstanding the action of the Oregon City convention However, the state militia may be called out by Governor Pennoyer, and the "friend" of the Oregonian and the tax escapers of Multnomah county, summarily deposed. The law plainly provides that the members from the evenly numbered districts shall hold for the term of four years, while those from districts bearing odd numbers were to hold for only two years. Therefore Mr. Weekly's nomination will have to be continued, at least until 1896.

COME IN CLAUKAMAS COUNTY .- F. H. Drews residing at The Dalles, claims to have discovered a six-foot yein of fine bituminous coal on a ranch in this county. The vein crops out upon the surface of a high bluff on the Clackathe subsoil at the foot of the bluff that the river bank were taken to Portland and tested. The coal is very clean, burns well and gives good heat Just he started to cross the plains with his now the property upon which the vein family, to Oregon. They stayed in Kanis located is in litigation, but as soon as sas during the winter of '67 and in the it is practicable Mr. Drews intends to spring renewed their journey across the sink a shaft on the vein, 150 feet above plains arriving in the Willamette valley the level of the river and to take out in the fall of '68. He bought some and ship a large quantity of the mineral land in the foothills of the Cascade Thursday the 19th day of April, 1894, at Portland,

REPUBLICANS AT SANDY .- The Sandy correspondent of the Troutdale Champion writes as follows: Politics are beginning to stir more and more as time lived at the time of his death. of the election approaches. In this part of Clackamas county the republicans seems to predominate. Sandy has not very many candidates in the field to fill position in the country. FOR COUNTY CLERK.-The Oswego Iron Worker quotes the Oregon City orrespondent's remark in the Three SCHEDULES OF TIME Sisters concerning County Clerk Horton and adds that the article voices the sentiment of a large majority of the voters of Clackamas county and that he has made such an efficient officer in every way, and has acted in such a gentlemanly manner to all, regardless of party or creed, that his friends throughout the country can be counted by the hunreds. Mr. Horton as county clerk has pursued an upright course without fear of adverse criticism from rings and to the delight of all honest-minded men. He is strong within his party and especially popular with the farming and laboring classes. That Mr. Horton will be the nominee of the republicans in convention April 4 is not to be questioned.

He also spoke of Tennyson's great love of freedom and of his
