Legal Advertising.

Hereafter no legal advertisement will be inserted in the ENTERPRISE unless payment for the same is made at the time the affidavit of publication is rendered. This rule will be imperative and dead-beat litigants, who make it a practice of working the courts, lawyers and newspapers will have to look to some other paper to get their notices published.

SPRAY OF THE FALLS.

Prices the lowest—Red Front Stores. Cocoa-Coffee—E. E. Williams, the grocer. Miss June and Master Ray, the club swingers will surprise you. Call on E. E. Williams, the grocer and inquire what Cocoa-Coffee is. Only 25c per pound can for Cedar Campbor. Sold by all druggists. M. Horsford of Canby was busy on the streets a few hours the first of the week. First class loans placed without delay at usual rates. W. H. BURGHARDT. Barmeister & Andresen keep all kinds of strings for the violin, guitar, banjo, mandolin, etc. Steadman's Soothing Powders preserve a healthy state of the constitution during the period of teething. Little Ray Williams and June Charman will perform an Indian club "duet" at Mrs. Gray's entertainment on Friday evening. County warrants and city warrants on the general fund will be taken at par at the Store of Glass & Smith, in exchange for goods. F. S. Kelly intends to start for Coquille, Oregon, Monday to keep books for the saw mill of Davis & Ambler at that place. Barmeister & Andresen have taken the agency for the sweet toned Kimball organ. Sold at prices never before given in Oregon City. This is the time to set out your bulbs and plants for summer and fall blooming and the best place to get them is at the Clackamas greenhouse, Park Place, Jos. Collin's proprietor. There will be a meeting of Willamette Rebekah lodge Friday, May 11th at 7:30 at the I. O. O. F. hall, at which time the by-laws will be considered and adopted. By order of NOBLE GRAND. Bessie H. Bodloe, Burlington, Vt., had a disease of the scalp, causing her hair to become very harsh and dry, and to fall so freely that she scarcely dared to comb it. Ayer's Hair Vigor gave her a healthy scalp, removed the dandruff, and made the hair thick and glossy. Just received a fresh lot of genuine extra large, Norway bloater mackerel, white fish, anchovies in bulk, Mitchner herring in bulk and kegs, Marinerte herring. Also, a full assortment of canned fish both domestic and imported. Mail us your orders. We deliver goods free to boat and car landings. F. DRESSER & Co., 325, Washington street.

ROSWELL G. HERR

WILL SPEAK AT OREGON CITY NEXT SATURDAY EVENING.

The name of Roswell G. Herr is known throughout the land and he is everywhere recognized as an able writer on finance and tariff. He is one of the most logical and convincing speakers that we have in this country and it is with pleasure that we announce that the committee has secured him to deliver an address upon the political issues of the day at this place on Saturday evening, May 12th. No voter can afford to miss hearing Mr. Herr on that occasion. His speech will not be pleasing but it will be exceedingly interesting and replete in information. The tariff and finance are the two great questions confronting the voters today and no one should miss hearing this speech. A general invitation is extended to everybody to come. The band will furnish fine music, the Multicolor flambeau club in uniform will escort the speaker to the hall and numerous neighboring clubs will attend. You come too.

Grand Army Officers.

The state encampment of the Grand Army and kindred organizations at Roseburg this week is proving a decided success. Officers were elected on Wednesday as follows:

GRAND ARMY OFFICERS.

Captain Onisley, department commander; J. G. Floed, senior vice-commander; Myers, of The Dalles, vice-commander; and Dr. B. F. Hammel, of Roseburg, medical director; chaplain, G. W. Grannis, of Salem; councilman of administration, H. C. Allen and Eugene Clark, of Portland; S. W. Taylor, of Eugene; G. A. Harding, of Oregon City, and D. C. Sherman, of Salem; delegates to the national encampment, J. W. Maxwell, of Tillamook; J. A. Sladen, of Portland; and J. T. Apperson of Oregon City; alternates, J. S. Smith of Ashland, H. R. Compton of Klamath Falls, and B. F. Alley, of Florence. Oregon City was, by a decided vote, chosen as the place for our next annual encampment of the Grand Army.

THE LADIES' RELIEF CORPS.

The officers elected by the Ladies' Relief Corps are: Mrs. Nettie Ungerman, president; senior vice-president, Mrs. Jennie Stanton; junior vice-president Mrs. Allen McPherson; chaplain, Mrs. Julia A. Lawton; treasurer, Mrs. Tallmaize; executive board, Mrs. Blanche Patterson, Mrs. Sarah Adair, Mrs. Lizzie Smith, Mrs. Margaret Pillsbury and Mrs. Clara Fullerton; delegates-at-large of the national committee, Mrs. Ada Butterfield; delegates for the state, Mrs. Bertie M. Smith; alternate-at-large to the relief committee, Mrs. Isabel Horner.

THE SONS OF VETERANS.

The officers elected were: Commander, W. H. Bloss, of Corvallis; senior vice-commander, S. C. Brown, of Salem; junior vice-commander, L. P. Aldrich, of Silverton; division counsel, W. E. Johnson, of Oregon City; H. L. Wells, of Portland; M. Hemphill, of Corvallis; delegates to the national encampment, W. S. Beebe and H. L. Wells, of Portland; alternates, C. A. Herrman, of Oregon City and C. A. Stepiens of Pleasant Home.

Armstrong's Body Found.

Word has reached here from Salem that the body of William Armstrong, the second engineer of the steamer Elwood, who disappeared from the boat while on her up trip, about four weeks ago, was found Tuesday morning at the saw-mill boom, at Mission landing, several miles north of that city. As the steamer Elwood was passing on her up trip the captain was notified of the discovery of the body. A stop was made, and the first engineer went ashore and identified the body. When found, the gold watch of the unfortunate man was hanging by a chain attached to his vest. Two large scars were found upon his head, showing that he must have been struck by the wheel while oiling the crankshaft. The body was discovered about 18 miles below where it was supposed that it fell overboard. His father who has been looking for the body for some time was in town Thursday and stated that the body was in a fair state of preservation and that the funeral would be on Friday at the family burial ground east of Silverton.

Mr. Spencer Corrected.

TO THE EDITOR:—Word has come to me that R. L. Spencer announced to a large audience of people at Pope's hall on last Monday evening that I was one of the last converts to populism. In my old home in Columbia county it would not be necessary for me to deny so silly a falsehood. My republicanism is of too long a growth and burned into me too deep to be so easily uprooted and forgotten. Some immature boys might be influenced by the persistence of Brother Spencer, but to me the old path marked out by Lincoln and Grant and crimsoned and made glorious by the blood of thousands of soldier boys is a surer and better way. Commend me to the old ways—eternal truth changes not. NATHAN TINGLE. Gladstone, May 8, 1894.

Political Pointers.

Political speaking under the auspices of the several clubs will be held as follows: Highland—Friday May 14, at 7:30, H. S. Strange. Elliott Prairie—Monday May 14, 1: P. M. Brownell and Hayes. Milwaukee—Friday May 11, 7:30, Candidates. Clackamas—Friday May 11, 1:30, Candidates. Eagle Creek—Saturday May 12, 1:30, Hon. Henry McGinn. Sandy—Saturday May 12 7:30 Hon. H. E. McGinn. Marquam May 15, 1:30 Brownell and Hayes. Last Sunday the house of E. Mercese on Madison street was entered in the absence of the family by a burglar, but he seems to have been frightened away before securing any booty, for upon the return of the family nothing was discovered missing. F. T. Hamehaw came up from Portland Monday to assist in looking after the street work.

Company A of the boys brigade of the Baptist church was out parading the street last Sunday evening before the evening meeting for boys. It will be out again the coming Sunday evening prior to a meeting for men. On Saturday of next week this company will give a picnic outing to the other companies, B of the Presbyterian church and C of the Congregational church at Gladstone park when a pleasant time is expected.

Last Tuesday Constable E. T. Fields went up to Wilsonville and arrested Al. Names upon a complaint issued by Mrs. Epler charging him with burglary from a building. He was brought before Judge Fouts Wednesday and the trial set for Thursday evening at 7:30. He is charged with stealing a harness and several other things.

Caleb Davis of Corvallis was in the city Wednesday visiting his daughter, Mrs. H. S. Strange, being on his way to New York as a delegate from the Willamette Presbytery of the national general assembly. Miss Bertha Davis came down with her father and will remain here for several weeks.

J. F. Watson of the O. I. & S. Co. of Oswego, was up from the iron town on Monday paying $6,386 into the county treasury for taxes. He says that there is nothing doing at the works as the lessees are waiting for times to pick up and to see what will be done with the tariff.

In this issue appears the announcement of T. W. Fouts for justice of the peace of the Oregon City district. Mr. Fouts has served for the last four years as justice and has proven an efficient officer. He consented to become a candidate only upon the urgent request of many citizens.

D. W. Howard, one of the largest berry and fruit growers in the county was down from Canby the first of the week. He reports strawberries injured slightly by frosts, but thinks that growers will have all that they can sell. Peaches are no where but other fruits he thinks will be a fine crop.

Oswego turned out en masse to hear the Hon. Thos. H. Tongue. Standing room was at a premium. The speech was a master effort and great enthusiasm prevailed. Oswego is getting ready to cast a bigger republican vote in June than they did at the primaries.

It has been deemed best to use a dressing of washed gravel on lower Main street and the contractors began getting a supply from Moore's island on scows. It is run down to the sand bank and then hauled from there to the street.

Ernest Mathias who opened up the brewery beer hall the first of the month for the sale of beer in quantities of one quart or more reports trade very good. Farmers find his hall a pleasant place to lunch.

Jas. Nicholson of Highland returned from a two week's visit to Yaquina bay the first of the week. G. W. Parish who accompanied him will remain at the coast for some months.

C. C. Cross had all arrangements to move from Molalla down to Ely the last of the week when a new daughter born on Saturday vetoed the plans for the present.

The best political speech of the season will be that of the Hon. Roswell G. Herr of the New York Tribune, who will speak on Saturday night at Shively's.

Miss Lizzie Williams, of Woodbridge, California, and Miss Gussie Folger, of Stockton, are visiting Miss Williams's sister, Mrs. T. H. Fuller of this city.

Wilbert Davidson, an oldtime friend of E. G. Farnsworth, who is out from Ohio doing the coast, was visiting in town Monday.

George J. Currin, the democratic candidate for county commissioner, was in town Tuesday and Wednesday.

Mrs. T. A. McBride of this city, is spending a few days with relatives and friends in Columbia county.

L. B. Moore was stepping much higher than usual on Sunday on account of the new girl at his home.

Our old-time friend, C. W. Armstrong of Canby spent Thursday in the city.

W. C. Ward, the Viola merchant, was doing the city on Tuesday on business.

W. W. Porter has moved from town to a ranch in Mt. Pleasant.

Board of trade met Monday night. Don't forget it.

Something New! Cocoa-Coffee—the great food drink. Call on E. E. Williams, the grocer, Friday and Saturday and try a cup.

R. I. RAILWAY COMPANY WISS.

City vs. The East Side Railway Decided by Judge McBride.

The suit of Oregon City vs. The East Side Railway company which has passed through the city, county and circuit courts was decided by Judge McBride last Saturday morning at an adjourned session the decision being in favor of the railway company.

This suit was brought to enforce the provisions of the ordinance passed by the city council requiring the railway company to pay an annual license fee of $300 for the privilege of running a freight car over their tracks in this city. As the company ran its cars after the ordinance went into effect the conductor, Joseph Fields was arrested in accordance with the provisions of the charter and tried before Recorder Porter who fined him. From this decision the company took an appeal to the county court where it was argued and a decision rendered in favor of the company. This time the city appealed to the circuit court and at the last term it was argued and submitted to the judge who passed upon the questions involved and while holding that the city had the right to tax the railroad company or to stop them altogether from operating a freight car, decided that it had not been legally done in this case and that therefore the city could not collect under the ordinance.

It was claimed by the company that the ordinance was invalid for the following reasons:

- 1. It violates the agreement of the city that no tax should be imposed for 10 years.
2. There is no power given in the charter to license a railway car.
3. Even if the city has the right to license, $300 is a excessive amount and therefore void.
4. Providing the city has the right to license all wheeled vehicles and impose a license on the company's freight car, it has not done so and the license is illegal because it is imposed upon the business without respect to the number of cars used.

Upon the first of these points the judge holds that the franchise to operate a street railway applies only to passenger and not to freight business, and that it follows that the company was never granted the right to operate freight cars and that no agreement has ever been entered into by the city not to license the company's cars.

Relative to the argument that the articles of incorporation allege that the company intends to operate freight cars and that the right is therefore included in the franchise, the opinion is that such right is neither granted nor implied.

As the company has never been granted the right to operate freight cars on the street it is held that the company's cars are there illegally and that the city has the power to grant a franchise for that purpose upon such terms as they may dictate or to stop the company from operating freight cars altogether.

The water commissioners have just closed the contract for a lot of new cast iron pipe with the O. I. & S. Co. to be used in extending and improving the water system. The price paid is $28.25 per ton which is seven dollars less than the city of Portland pays for that used in their line. There will be about half a mile of eight-inch which will be used in laying a main from the pump, and three-quarters of a mile of six-inch which will be used in extending the line toward Ely. The new pump is working to the entire satisfaction of the commission, who contemplate putting in a small reservoir on the Darling addition.

A most enjoyable time was had by the members of the I. O. O. F. in this city Friday evening last, when a lodge of Rebekah's was organized here with eighty two members. The officers are, Mrs. M. M. Charman, noble grand; Mrs. C. O. T. Williams, vice grand; Mrs. F. R. Charman, secretary; Miss S. L. Stevens, treasurer; T. F. Ryan, R. S. N. G., and Mrs. C. N. Greenman, L. S. N. G. Over 150 were present from Portland to assist in the ceremonies. After the institution, installation and initiation a sumptuous banquet was served and then those who wished repaired to the armory for a social and dance and a glorious time was enjoyed.

The state convention of the Christian Endeavor societies is in session at Corvallis. Those attending from here are, Misses F. C. Andrews, Minnie Berry, Fannie Mandeville and Henry Andrews of the Congregational church; Miss Nannie Wilkinson of the Congregational Junior Endeavor; Miss Mattie Grey of the Baptist Endeavor; J. H. Black and R. Pritchard of the Presbyterian Endeavor. They went up on the Ellwood on Tuesday.

Cocoa-Coffee Is absolutely harmless and is an elegant drink. Call and try a cup tomorrow. E. E. WILLIAMS, the Grocer.

Bread, Bread.

Of all things the average housekeeper is particular about, it is the quality of bread for her table. Good home made bread is not equaled by the ordinary bakery and to meet this requirement, Mr. J. Egle of the Shively bakery' has put on the market his celebrated home made bread. This bread is made from the same kind of flour that is ground for export and none of the processes are used in its manufacture that, while giving the bread a fine appearance, ruin its quality. The utmost cleanliness is observed in all departments and the patrons of the bakery are invited to inspect it at any time, that they may see for themselves how their bread is prepared and handled.
