To Meet the Times.

The subscription price for the Enterprise has been reduced to $1.50 per year; 75 cents for six months. Cash in advance. Subscribers paying at the end of the year will not be entitled to this reduction. The low price is made to get the list on a cash basis and induce all subscribers to pay up, and especially to prevent dead beats from taking the paper and not paying for it by reason of their being law proof. Reduced price will only commence with date of renewal. This makes the Enterprise the cheapest paper in Clackamas county—eight pages all home print and full of live local news.

SPECIAL COUNCIL MEETING.

The City Dads Looking After Municipal Affairs—Street Assessments.

There was a special meeting of the city council last Thursday evening called for the purpose of considering any business that might come before that body and among other the following action was taken:

The question of the delinquent Seventh street assessments together with costs and accrued interest was discussed and a committee consisting of Councilmen Stevens, Albright and Broughton was appointed to take such steps as may be necessary to collect the money due.

Complaint was entered about a stagnant pool on J. Q. Adams street near Seventh and an offer was submitted to lay tiling to drain it for $8. The committee on streets and public property was given full power to act in the matter.

The offer of W. W. Myers to sell three lots on Fifth street for $130 was accepted. These lots will be used for a dumping ground for surplus dirt in making the Fifth street improvement.

The finance committee was instructed to consult with the city, or some other attorney relative to the running of freight cars on Main street by the East Side Railway company and the committee was given full power to act either by bringing an injunction or by submitting an ordinance to be passed by the council.

Woodmen Will Entertain.

A special committee of Willamette camp of the Woodmen of the World met Wednesday evening and arranged for a social and literary entertainment to be given Wednesday evening, May 23, at A. O. U. W. Hall. The entertainment is given for the woodmen and their families, who may invite those whom they wish to attend. It promises to be even pleasanter than the several which have been given by this growing order during the winter. The exercises will be as follows:

Arrangements are being made by several firms in town to have electric clocks put up in their places of business for their own convenience and that of their customers. These clocks will be connected with the Lick observatory in California and may be depended upon to furnish standard time. Burmeister & Anderson will have one up by the first of the month.

The Rev. J. H. Teale, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church of Portland will preach in the Baptist church next Sunday morning and evening in exchange with Pastor Parker. There will be a mass meeting for gospel service at 5:30. Boys Brigade will parade at five o'clock.

That is a great scheme which Dresser & Co. of Portland are operating. They are grocers doing a wholesale and retail business and they deliver mail orders to boat or car landings in Oregon City free. They have the choicest line of staple and fancy groceries in Portland. Give them a trial order on a postal card.

Last Friday J. G. Porter left for eastern Oregon to buy wool and solicit consignments for a Portland firm. He does not know how long he may be away as that will depend upon the amount of business which he can do while this Wilson-bill congress is wasting its time at Washington.

Wm. Davis has just finished clearing up around his place and has also built a neat picket fence.

Ed Taylor is at work on a new house on the west side which he intends to occupy when done.

Among the notaries of public appointed the past week was Geo. C. Brownell and E. F. Driggs.

ENDEAVORERS IN CONVENTION.

Interesting Session at Corvallis Reported by a Delegate.

Delegates of the Y. P. S. C. E. of this state held their regular annual convention in the agricultural college buildings at Corvallis May 10 to 13. The following were in attendance from this city: From the Congregational society, Mrs. E. B. Andrews, Misses Mandville, Wilkinson and Berry and Messrs. Henry Andrews and G. H. Bestow; Baptist society, Miss Gray; Presbyterian society, Messrs. Prichard and Black.

The freedom of the college and grounds was tendered by Prof. Letcher in behalf of the president.

Response by Rev. H. A. Denton of McMinnville.

For the coming year Rev. W. P. Miller was elected president, Rev. C. H. Curtis, first vice-president; Rev. F. G. Strange, second vice-president; Rev. Wm. Smyth, third vice-president; Rev. W. H. Morrow, secretary; W. F. Mercer, superintendent of temperance work; J. C. Rhodes, superintendent of missionary work; Miss Caroline Strong, superintendent of junior work; Laura C. Preston; editor of the "Oregon Endeavor"; E. S. Miller; associate editor, F. R. Cook.

Committee on credentials reported 262 delegates in attendance and representing the various denominations as follows: Presbyterian seniors, 52, juniors, 7; Baptist, seniors, 4; Christian, seniors 70, juniors 23; Congregational, seniors, 38, juniors, 5; Friends, seniors, 11, United Brethren, seniors, 8; Cumberland Presbyterian, seniors 6; United Presbyterian, seniors 8, juniors 3; Evangelical seniors, 1; Episcopal seniors, 1; Union seniors, 18.

The secretary reported that last year there were 182 senior societies and 44 juniors. This year his report shows 205 seniors and 83 juniors. Complete reports from 165 show a membership of 4600. In the state the membership is at present estimated at 11,500 seniors and juniors. Of the societies reported, 61 are organized in Presbyterian churches, Christian 58, Congregational 53, Baptist 11, Cumberland Presbyterian 8, United Brethren 5, Methodist Episcopal 4, Evangelical 3, Episcopal 2.

In the organization of new societies Multnomah county headed the list with 11 to her credit, Polk county with 7. The champion banner was thus won by Multnomah.

Reports from 125 societies show that 606 were converted and 452 were received into the church during the past year and that $1600 has been directed to missionary work. Nine counties are organized and six are without organization.

Six local unions are now organized. Coos county won the prize banner for greatest per cent of gain. 500 per cent. Sunrise prayer meetings were held every morning at 6:30 and were remarkably well attended. The convention was addressed on Thursday evening and Friday afternoon by John Willis Baer secretary of the United Societies. Friday morning at 11 o'clock he conducted a question service answering in a plain and practical way all questions pertaining to endeavor work. Other speakers of note were Miss Tillie Atkinson, a missionary of the Friends church who has lately arrived on the coast, Mr. Wm. H. Lewis of Seattle, a young Christian who is deeply interested in reform movements, Prof. J. R. Wilson D. D. of Portland, Rev. Thos. Boyd, of Portland, President Bloss of the Agricultural college and Rev. Holdridge of Portland.

On Sunday at 3 o'clock p. m. there was a junior rally at the college chapel led by Miss Preston, at 4:30 Rev. E. A. Holdridge conducted a most impressive gospel service in the opera house which was packed to the doors. At 6:30 a series of ten cottage prayer meetings were held throughout the city. At 7:30 the opera house was again packed to hear the closing services. An overflow meeting was held in the Presbyterian church. These last services were made very impressive by short heartfelt talks and responses of consecration from delegates. Counties responded to roll call by scripture verses or pledges or a verse of familiar song or perhaps all these together.

The convention closed with many expressions of gratitude from both officers and delegates to the hospitable people of Corvallis who had so royally and kindly entertained them. The time and place of the next convention is left to the executive committee for their selection. A host of endeavorers in Clackamas county would be glad to see it held in Oregon City. The Dalles and Salem are our only competitors so far and if this city's attractions and hospitality are properly represented before the committee we will not fear but what we will get the convention.

A Successful Worker.

Work cannot be successfully continued unless there is an active mental interest in it. If the mind is not clear, bright and buoyant, then the work is drudgery and the worker is a machine. An occasional dose of Moore's Revealed Remedy will put the body and mind in such harmony that the hardest tasks will seem play.
