FRUIT IS BADLY DAMAGED.—The fruit growers hereabouts find that orchards have suffered more severely from the recent frosts than was at first supposed. The following letter from the veteran orchardist S. A. Clarke to the Oregonian gives a fair idea of the condition of the fruit crop. He says great harm was done in Umpqua valley to all fruits. We hear that at Lake Labish nearly all fruits are a failure. Below Salem in Dr. Reynolds' and other orchards pears are killed, and prunes are generally lost. The cherry crop seems to be in best shape. The Wallace pear orchard, across from Salem, suffered severely. Pears will be a light crop on all low lands. The damage along the river is everywhere great, while the hills have sometimes escaped entirely. While bottom lands are devastated so generally, it is noticed that Ashland, in the foothills of Rogue river valley, has suffered less than the valley; Dr. Cardwell's farm, on the hill near Portland, is in good shape, and Candelaria orchard on the hill near Salem is loaded with fruit more than ever before. The hills are the natural homes for fruit.

A LUCKY SHOT.—The Eugene Register records the fortunate escape from instant death of Charles Lane of that country, a lad of about twelve years of age who got hold of a small revolver loaded with extra short cartridges, of 22-calibre, and boy-like was experimenting with it. In his maneuvers he placed the muzzle in his mouth, and just at that time it was accidentally discharged. The ball entered his tongue about an inch from the tip, and ranged downward. Dr. Paine was called at once and made such examination as was possible. The ball evidently passed through the tongue and into the neck. He did not seem to suffer particularly and bled but little. His escape from a probable instant death was due to the small calibre of the revolver, and the light charge of powder. Had it been a larger weapon the ball would undoubtedly have pierced the vertebra. What the result of the wound will be can not now be told, but it will not probably result seriously.

DUNIWAY-BARCK.—Wilkie C. Duniway and Miss Minnie U. Barck were married last Thursday evening, at the residence of Mr. B. C. and Mrs. A. S. Duniway, 294 Clay street, Rev. Dr. Wallace, of the First Congregational church, officiating. Mr. Duniway selects, compiles and arranges the matter for The Weekly Oregonian. He is the recipient of the hearty congratulations of many friends, and especially of the printers and newspaper men. The bride is an estimable and charming young lady, well known in kindergarten circles in this city. The wedding was a family affair some sixty relatives of the contracting parties being present. The parlors and dining-room were profusely decorated with vines and flowers. The collation was sumptuous and elegant. Mr. and Mrs. Duniway will be at home to their friends Wednesday, at 294 Clay street, after June 5. No cards. The above is taken from the Sunday Oregonian and is an account of the marriage of an Oregon City girl to one of Portland's staunch young business men. Quite a number of the relatives and friends of the bride were down from here.

THE LADD WILL.—According to the Pacific Builder there is likely to be a fine educational edifice erected in Portland this year. It says: "The late W. S. Ladd bequeathed by will $400,000 for charitable and educational purposes. He left it wholly to the heirs how this money should be expended, but mentioned the establishing of a home for indigent old ladies as one desirable object. It is well known that another warm desire of Mr. Ladd's was the establishing of a great educational institution as a monument to his memory. This was actually begun by him in the academy he established in this city, and which has always been regarded as the nucleus of the coming Ladd university. According to the terms of Mr. Ladd's will the money was to be expended just as soon as it could be withdrawn from his estate. Undoubtedly a sufficient time has elapsed at any rate it is certain that plans are being discussed for a magnificent new building to cost upwards of $500,000. It is asserted on good authority that two other Portland millionaires will join with the Ladd estate in this public enterprise and that they have already perfected an agreement to that effect. Plans have been submitted and it is likely that the enterprise will go forward this summer.

HIS FIRST SERMON.—Rev. John Whitman Cowan, D. D., the new pastor of the Congregational church of this city, occupied his pulpit for the first time on Sunday morning. He was fittingly introduced by his old friend and former parishioner, President McClelland of Pacific University, who assisted in the exercises. Dr. Cowan comes from one of the largest churches of Iowa, at the seat of Tabor college, where he has been a popular and successful pastor for eleven years. His sermon presented in a clear and forcible manner, the influence of Christ upon the world today. He spoke entirely without notes and completely captivated his audience with his breadth of thought and ease of address. Dr. Cowan is noted the world over as the founder of the Junior Society of Christian Endeavor. Not only the church of Oregon City, but Congregationalism of the state may be congratulated on having secured his services.

BOTTOM OF A POCKET.—For some time Engineer Sullivan has been working to find the bottom of a big pocket which came directly under the foundation wall of the outer side of the electric station. Divers were kept at the bottom of the hole on four hour shifts for days working at the loose rocks which had accumulated there, and among the stuff removed was one stone nearly four feet across each way. Last Saturday the divers reported that they had found bottom and Mr. Sullivan donned the diving suit and made a careful inspection of the bottom. He was satisfied with the result and on Sunday began putting in cement. At half past nine the hole was filled and it will now be left to dry for seven days after which the work of putting in the first section of the wall will be begun.

WHAT ABOUT HAY.—It is reported that California parties are now coming into Oregon to buy hay. The object is to get it before the price raises, as they know it will raise soon. The hay crop in California is practically destroyed, and stock men are already driving their stock out of the country in search of pasturage. Hay in California is now selling for twenty dollars per ton, and will go higher before fall. Oregon farmers who have a good hay crop will do well to hold it, for the price is not likely to fall.

DROWNED A BAKER.—On Saturday evening the Altona ran from Independence to Salem with a large party of excursionist to the republican rally in that city. When part way down a baker of Independence who had been drinking was leaning against the guard when he slipped and plunged overboard. Neither at the time nor with drags on the following day could the body be recovered.

FINE MILLINERY.—Ladies can save their round trip fare from Oregon City by boat or car if they purchase three or more dollars worth of millinery at the La Mode Millinery Parlors, 106 Union Ave. (old 4th street, East Side) Portland.

$100 Reward $100.
The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials, Address, F. J. CHENY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggist, 75c.

Mid-Winter Fair excursion tickets, Oregon City to San Francisco and return, via Southern Pacific Co's Shasta Route, will be placed on sale January 23rd. Rate $27.50, including five admissions to the fair. Tickets good for thirty days from date of sale.

MULTORPOR TO SALEM.—The Multorpor and Greenleaf companies went to Salem on a special train on Saturday to take part in the parade and republican rally. The train made a short stop at the depot here where a big crowd was gathered to cheer them. The train was gaily decorated with flags and banners. The first regiment band accompanied the clubs and played some of their most popular airs while the train was waiting here. In the parade at Salem these two companies are reported to have added largely to the success of the parade, as they did in Oregon City a week ago.

TOLEDO'S DAILY TRIPS.—Beginning on May 31st the Toledo will commence running daily round trips between Dayton and Portland. The service will accommodate McMinnville people as a hack is to leave there at four o'clock in the morning, make connection with the Toledo at Dayton, and return to McMinnville at night after the return of the boat. Mr. Geer of the Toledo who was in the city on Tuesday is doing all that he can to give the people along the upper river a good service and this daily round trip will prove a great convenience.
