Giboney will conduct services appropriate to the day as will also Rev. McLain at the United Brethren church. If it is found necessary there will be an overflow meeting in one of the other churches down town.

SOME POLITICAL POINTERS.

Republican Prospects Brightening as the Canvass Progresses.

J. E. Wetzer of Milwaukee was in the city on Wednesday arranging for a German republican meeting at Milwaukee on Friday evening of this week at eight o'clock. The well known speaker, C. U. Gantenbein of Portland and other speakers are to address the meeting. The Milwaukee male choir will be present and contribute some of their best songs to help in making the evening a pleasant one. This is an opportunity which our German friends have frequently desired and it is expected that many will be present.

There will be a grand rally at Oswego Friday evening, the 25th, at which several candidates will be present. Preparations are being made for a big time and Chairman Henry Meldrum announces that he has chartered the Ramona to make the trip from Oregon City so that all who wish to do so may attend the speaking from here and return the same evening. All republicans who wish to go and march in the procession will be carried without expense. Others must expect to pay.

R. Staub the live secretary of the Beaver Creek republican club was in the city on Tuesday. He says that their club is thoroughly in earnest and that they will keep at work right up to election. That precinct shows the effect of the work done by republicans and will give the ticket a good majority.

The republicans out upon the canvass report big and enthusiastic meetings all along the line. Republicanism affords the only business basis this year.

George C. Brownell is making friends wherever he speaks and in spite of the desperate attempts of the populists to defeat him will be elected by a good majority. Starkweather, just simply is not in it.

A German who was in the ENTERPRISE office the first of the week was shown the circular addressed to Germans, and after reading it, he laughed and said that Fred Hesse had a lot of gall to sign himself lots of Germans. "Why," he continued, "Hesse has hardly been in the county long enough to turn around and now he pretends to tell us how to vote."

Brownell and Starkweather will have another joint debate at Sandy on Saturday, after which Starkweather will look down his nose worse than he did at Sandy Wednesday, when he could hardly find a populist to shake hands with or console with over their waning prospects. The old man isn't in it.

It is expected that a big crowd will go from here to Oswego Friday evening. The boat leaves at seven o'clock.

Friday evening the Germans of Milwaukee are planning to have speaking in their own language at the hall and Saturday evening W. S. U'Ren and A. S. Dresser will discuss the financial question. Milwaukee is all right.

Capt. Apperson, Senator Cross and C. H. Dye are booked to address the New Era republican club at the Leland school house on Friday evening.

In view of the facts of the case it is amusing to hear the claims made by C. W. Ganong for credit not due him for collecting back taxes. The truth of the matter is Mr. C. H. Dye was employed by the court to collect the back taxes and the county court proceedings will show that he was paid for doing it. Capt. Calliff, county treasurer, or Coroner Holman will next be claiming credit for collecting back taxes.

The Lincoln Republican club of Orville sends word that it is making arrangements to have a grand rally on the first day of June at 7:30 p. m. It has secured Edgar Grimm of Portland as the principal speaker but there will also be other prominent speakers present who will deliver short speeches. Hon. Alonzo Gesner, nominee on republican ticket for joint senator for Marion and Clackamas counties is expected to be present and all are invited as a grand time is expected.

The speech of Hon. Thos. H. Tongue of Hillsboro on Monday evening was an able effort, and while his audience was not large on account of lack of advertising the hall was fairly well filled. He was introduced by Senator H. E. Cross in a brief but pointed speech after which Mr. Tongue proceeded to discuss the political situation in his terse and telling style. His speech was devoted largely to state issues. Governor Penneyer was deservedly scored in a telling manner, and the national issues discussed only so far as the tariff legislation relates to Oregon and her products. Altogether the speech was one of the most telling delivered here this year.

There will be a republican rally at Mt. Pleasant on Tuesday evening of next week at 8 o'clock to be addressed by Messrs. Dresser and Strange. The meeting will be held at Partlow's hall at the Apperson place which has been donated for the occasion.

Henry Meldrum, chairman of the county committee, has arranged to have Hon. C. H. Dodd of Portland make three speeches in this county, discussing politics from a business man's standpoint. Mr. Dodd is one of the solid business men of the state and will discuss the situation in a clear and concise manner. These speeches will be at 1:30 each day upon the following dates:

Wright's Spring Wednesday, May 30, Grace's Store at Clarkes on Thursday May 31st and at Eagle Creek on Friday June 1st. The celebrated Muldorper quartet will be present and contribute some of their liveliest campaign songs at the first named places. This quartet is in great demand and this county is fortunate to secure their services for these meetings. Both the speeches and the singing will be exceptionally fine and well worth driving miles to hear. Hon. H. H. Northup of Portland will be present at Eagle Creek and speak.

The populist candidates boldly proclaim that they are going to carry their peculiar doctrines into effect if not by the ballot then by the bayonet. This is anarchy pure and simple. Can good citizens afford to lend their aid to such people?

There was a big crowd, mostly republicans, out at Clackamas Wednesday evening to hear the joint discussion between Judge Hanum of Portland and D. E. Swank, populist candidate for senator and T. B. Hankins. The populists were the most completely done up that they have been yet. As usual, when the populists saw they were beaten, they began calling names and interrupting the opposition speakers.

S. B. Seeley, president of the Tualatin Union club was in town on Thursday and says that the club has arrangements all made for a big rally at Wilsonville on Tuesday evening. A big time is expected.

The Oregon City Chautauqua circle closed a very profitable year's work on Tuesday evening of this week at the home of Miss Mertie Stevens. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion and a short program of music and speeches was followed by an elegant banquet for twenty-seven numbers. The work pursued consisted largely of Roman History, Roman Literature and Art, Medieval Song and Legend and Ely's Outline of Economics. A good deal of faithful work has been done and the discussions in connection with these studies have been highly instructive. There is prospect of largely increased membership for next year. There is also talk of branch circles among those too far away to attend the central circle. The club adjourned to meet again the last Tuesday in September.

Rev. Franklin Johnson, D. D., passed through Portland, last Friday on a business trip to Tacoma. Dr. Johnson got his start in Oregon City; but went East thirty years since to grow. He is now Professor in the Theological Department of the Chicago University. Not having time to come to Oregon City he was met by his brother, W. Carey Johnson, at the Cascade Locks, and the two brothers thus had an afternoon and the evening together. Dr. Johnson greatly regretted not having time to reach this point, where his boyhood was spent, and sent good wishes to all friends and relatives in Oregon City.

Wednesday Supt. W. T. Gardner of the Boys' and Girls Aid Society came up from Portland and took the two children of a man named Staub to the Home in Portland. The boy is about seven and the girl about four years old. Their mother died nearly two years ago and their father, who came here with them last fall, has kept them in a small log cabin in the timber on the West Side. He not only neglected them but treated them unkindly. A complaint was made to Mr. Gardner, who after investigating the case, took the children to the Home where they will be properly cared for.

Those who heard Miss Skillman at the entertainment given by the Congregational church a few weeks ago will testify to her superior talent and will be pleased to have the opportunity to hear her at the school entertainment.

C. J. Mitchell, of Aurora, who is associated with one of the largest hop houses on the coast, has an ad in this issue which it will pay hop raisers to read.
