

The way to build up Oregon City is to give Oregon City people your patronage.

Clackamas Co. Directory.

Table listing county officers: Sheriff (J. W. Meldrum), Recorder (C. W. Hanson), Treasurer (J. O. Wetherell), Assessor (H. S. Gibson), School Superintendent (H. S. Gibson), Surveyor (H. S. Gibson), Coroner (R. L. Holman), Commissioners (Richard Scott, Cornelius Blair).

To Meet the Times.

The subscription price for the Enterprise has been reduced to $1.50 per year; 75 cents for six months. Cash in advance. Subscribers paying at the end of the year will not be entitled to this reduction. The low price is made to get the list on a cash basis and induce all subscribers to pay up, and especially to prevent dead beats from taking the paper and not paying for it by reason of their being law proof.

CHAT ABOUT TOWN.

Use Cedar Camphor for moths. Cash paid for oats, THAYER & ALDEN. Money to loan on good security. $200 to $500. Apply to T. P. Randall. G. C. Kinney is preparing to build a neat cottage at Willamette Falls. Watches, clocks and jewelry repaired at Burnmeister & Andersen's. All work warranted. 4t. Red Men's entertainments are always a success and their picnic June 10 will be greater than ever. Don't forget to see Tom Thumb's wedding at the Eastham school entertainment next Tuesday evening. A close shave. That is what all the candidates fear. Parker, the barber, is the man that can give it to them or you. Otto E. Olsen has the plans drawn for a neat eight room cottage which he will have built right away at Willamette Falls.

Cedar Camphor for moths at 25c. per pound can be four times cheaper and better than camphor at Laue-Davis Drug Co., Portland. J. L. Moore has opened up a fish market in the room adjoining the Williams & Stratton building at the corner of Main and Fourth streets.

Persons wishing fine work in photo portraits or views, interiors and exteriors will save money by going to Potter's photo parlors, 275 First street, Portland. Large stock of clocks just received at Burnmeister & Andersen's. Ornamental and useful, embracing all the latest designs from the finest oxynx to nickel.

H. E. Cross intends to move to Gladstone soon and desires to rent his city residence to a permanent tenant. Hot and cold water, bath, and good stable.

When the hair begins to fall out or turn gray, the scalp needs doctoring, and we know of no better specific than Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer.

This is the time to set out your bulbs and plants for summer and fall blooming and the best place to get them is at the Clackamas greenhouse, Park Place, Jos. Collin's proprietor.

The crowning of the May Queen will be one of the attractive features of the school entertainment to be given next Tuesday evening. Twelve little girls will dance around the May pole, weaving ribbons of many colors.

Good reliable agents wanted to sell Gladstone property. 2 1/2 cents fare to Oregon City. Liberal commission paid. Best selling property on the market. Call on or write to H. E. Cross, president Gladstone Real Estate Association.

The old veteran, Captain Bundy, has his new boat house all fitted up in running order and is now prepared to furnish at all times the finest line of pleasure boats to be found in the state. Prices reasonable and the best of treatment accorded all patrons. Foot of 11th street.

The Oregon City Dye works, Messrs. Welch, Wilson & Co., proprietors, will open up a few days in the building at the foot of Fifth street. Both are men of practical experience in the business and they will give especial attention to all kinds of cleaning and dyeing.

Although it is not claimed that Ayer's Sarsaparilla cures every ill to which flesh is heir, yet as a matter of fact, it comes nearer doing this than any other medicine ever compounded. In purifying the blood, it removes the source of nearly all the disorders of the human system.

It will cure you if taken in time and puts fresh energy into the system by making new, rich blood. The Oregon Blood Purifier has no equal as a preventative of any disease that is caused by impurities of the blood. It will purify the blood, restore the bowels to their natural function and bring back the life current to its normal condition. Beware of imitations. Sold everywhere.

ALL REPUBLICANS

Should Vote For the Ticket Named Below.

GOOD MEN AND SOUND PRINCIPLES

These Names Represent Good Government, Honestly Administered—Vote For Them.

For several weeks the ENTERPRISE has set before its readers the republican ticket. From time to time the names placed on that ticket by the convention have been commented upon, but in order to bring them more particularly to the attention of voters with the silent points of each which entitle them to recognition, they are here referred to in plain terms of approval. As an entirety it is a good ticket and should command the universal support of republicans. It is the only ticket which has any chance of winning which stands for honest principles, good government and better times:

Wm. P. LEEDS.—The best introduction to the people of Oregon which the republican candidate for governor could have is his long and efficient service as supreme judge of this state. His fealty to duty and the trust repeatedly reposed in him by the people of the state, has never been questioned. He has made an able and upright judge, whom neither fear nor favor could turn from the path of duty. As governor of the state of Oregon he will be no less efficient and faithful.

BINGER HERMANN.—Another household name. Known in every hamlet and place throughout the state for the painstaking, prompt and efficient work done at Washington in the many years that he has served the people there. To send a new man in place of Hermann, who has a stand equal to no congressman on the coast, would be to injure Oregon. He can do more for Oregon and her people than any new man who must win the confidence of the congress before he can accomplish anything in the way of successful legislation. Oregon needs many more appropriations for her rivers and harbors, and Hermann better than anyone else can secure these.

CHARLES E. WOLVERTON.—Mr. Wolverton is an eminent attorney of Albany, who stands well both with his neighbors and with the people of the state wherever he is known. During the canvass not one word was urged against his ability as a jurist or against his character as a man. This is the kind of a man that is wanted on the supreme bench of the state—one that will honor the bench and who will keep the judicial robes free from spot or blemish. The day has been when the Oregon supreme court did not stand in high esteem with the people of the state, but we are glad to say that that day is past and that no backward step will be taken in placing Mr. Wolverton on the bench.

HARRISON R. KINCAID.—Mr. Kincaid is the veteran journalist of the state. He is a plain, assuming every day man of recognized ability and possessed of those sterling qualities which will make him invaluable in the secretary of state's office, where all the accounts must be passed upon. The oath of office will be to him a sacred obligation which he will ever bear in mind so that both great and small transactions will be well looked after in his office. As he is amply competent to perform the duties of the office most efficiently there is no question but that the work will be well done while he is at the head of that branch of the state government. No better man could have been named for the place.

PHIL. METSCHAN.—Tried and not found wanting in the state treasury. Phil. Metschan is recognized the state over as the proper man for the place. He has kept and guarded the treasury well and no one has ever questioned his fealty to duty. It is due Mr. Metschan to give him the vote of confidence which is implied in re-election. It is also due the state to keep such an officer at his post for another term.

CICERO M. IDLEMAN.—Mr. Idleman is a representative of the young men in the republican party. In Portland where he has practiced law ever since his admission to the bar he is recognized as a foeman worthy of the steel of any attorney in the city. He is bright, cool and determined, with such an accurate understanding of law and such a ready ability to apply it that he will be invaluable to the state in the office of attorney general. As he has been associated with one of the best known and reliable firms in the city for many years, (Johnson & Idleman) he should receive a flattering vote in Clackamas county.

G. M. INWIX.—The candidate for superintendent of public instructions is a resident of Union county. He is well known throughout the state, having been presidential elector in 1892. He is a minister of the gospel and was for a time in charge of the Indian school at Chemawa.

W. H. LEEDS.—Mr. Leeds is a young man of marked ability who has made his way to the front in Oregon by sheer force of character and ability. He is a resident of Ashland and is the publisher of the leading republican paper in the southern part of the state. Straightforward, plain and unassuming he is everywhere recognized as well qualified to fill the important office of state printer. He is a practical printer, a good business man, thoroughly honest and in every way qualified to perform in a faithful and satisfactory manner the duties of the office. No person will make a mistake in voting for Mr. Leeds.

THE DISTRICT TICKET.

There are only three district officers to be chosen by the voters of this county, two from the judicial district and one from the senatorial.

W. N. BARRETT.—Mr. Barrett has for the past two years had to do with the prosecution of cases for the state in this county, and it is only due him to say that at no time within the history of the state has the criminal business been so well looked after as during his term of office. By his vigorous prosecution and conviction of the several criminals which were arraigned for trial a little more than a year ago he did much to check the wave of crime which seemed to be sweeping over this county. He has invariably sought to enforce the laws in accordance with justice and in the interest of the county, for he is not only a good and efficient officer, but he is an upright and conscientious citizen, who is a credit to the office and to the people whom he serves.

G. WINGATE.—When the state board of equalization was organized, Mr. Wingate was selected to serve upon that board for this district, and during the last two years he has performed well the duties required of him. In point of ability he is thoroughly capable to perform well the duties of the office, and if experience is worth anything at all, it ought to be recognized in this case and Mr. Wingate returned.

ALONZO GESSNER.—The candidate for joint senator from Clackamas and Marion counties lives in Salem and is favorably known throughout Marion where he has lived most of his life. He has held office in Marion county and under the national government, having been appointed by President Arthur to be agent at the Warm Springs reservation where he discharged his duties in a thoroughly capable manner. He is recognized as a good, solid and reliable citizen who will make a safe legislator.

THE COUNTY TICKET.

There are three county tickets in the field from which voters may select, but the republicans will be best promoting their own interests by selecting those names on the ticket after whom the word republican is written, since they represent principles which will restore confidence and prosperity.

GEORGE C. BROWNELL.—The man who heads the republican county ticket was unanimously chosen by the convention to be its candidate for state senator. He is a resident of this city who is thoroughly identified with her interests, and who has the ability to promote such legislation, not only as will be demanded by this county, but to help the state to enact such wise laws as will best promote her well being. No one questions Mr. Brownell's ability or his integrity. No other candidate named for this office can compare with him in ability or power to do that which he sets out to do, and the voters of the county can safely rely upon him to do what is best for the county and state.

F. L. MINTIE.—This is a man whom every voter in the county may safely support, and who should have the vote of every republican in the county. He is the unanimous choice of Oswego, which is enthusiastic in his support. He has been in business in Oswego for a number of years and every body likes and respects him. He is a representative republican, alert, discerning, and not only not afraid to do his duty, but actuated by enduring principle he will be found on the side of right and ably working with the Clackamas delegation to promote such legislation as is for the best.

Geo. O. RINEARSON.—Whilst George is the youngest man on the republican ticket, and has been picked at by some on that account, that is not the slightest objection to him. Indeed the party did well to recognize the young men by placing one of their number on the ticket. George was brought up on a farm near the mouth of the Clackamas below Oregon City, being a son of Peter Rinearson, whose name was a household word from almost the first settlement of Oregon till his death a few years ago. George was admitted to the bar, but is at present working the old place which was taken by his father as a donation land claim. He is a bright young man of recognized ability and is making a most favorable impression out on the campaign, as he will make a good record in the house.

C. B. SMITH.—Dr. Smith of Eagle Creek drives from Clackamas to the summit of the Cascade mountains in his practice which is very extensive. He is well and favorably known throughout all the section north of the Clackamas and will receive a flattering vote from that section of the county, as he is entitled to do from all other parts, as he is a well read and intelligent man, level headed and steadfast in his principals. Dr. Smith will do what he thinks is right and can not be swayed from duty by fear or favor. He is just the man that is wanted in Salem this winter to help to make some good laws in the interest of the people.

GORDON E. HAYES.—Born in Clackamas county and brought up to till an Oregon timber farm, which he helped to bring into subjection by the sweat of his brow, he yet managed to educate himself and to pass with honors the law examination which admitted him to the bar. Since his admission he has practiced law in this city where he is known to every body, and none question his ability. In fact his early life and education combine to fit him for the position to which he has been nominated by the republican party. He is familiar with every highway and bridge in the county as well as with the people on most of the farms and can act intelligently in all road matters. In probate and law matters his legal knowledge will be found of incalculable benefit to the people of the county, who will make no mistake in putting Gordon in the office of county judge. He is by all odds the best fitted man for the place that is on the big ballot.

SWETLAND'S KANDIES, You Have Heard of Them. TAKE HOME A BOX. Uncle Sam Will Deliver Them Anywhere. Morrison St. Between 2d & 3d, Portland.

E. C. MALDOCK.—Everyone knows Eli and republicans want to see him elected to the office out of which he was beaten by two years ago. The people, it seems to us, have made up their mind to see that Eli is made sheriff this time. Certain it is that he is supported by many men who were not for him two years ago. They have seen that they were misled by falsehoods then and are determined not to be fooled again. As far as ability is concerned, no one questions that. Eli will make a good sheriff and the party will be well served by him during the next two years. "Get there Eli."

Geo. F. HORTON.—No officer has made more friends than Geo. F. Horton, who was elected clerk two years ago and renominated at the last convention to succeed himself, for that is universally admitted now to be what he will do. George has gone about his business in the plainest kind of manner, without any more ostentation than he displayed on the farm before he was elected. Everyone that has had business in the office has been promptly and well served. He has kept the business records of the county in good shape, and was commended by the last grand jury for the good showing of his office. George is sure to get there with both feet.

S. M. RAMSBY.—"Little Mack," as he was known on the farm and as his friends still call him, has proven as good and efficient a recorder as any county would wish to have. He is always in his office during business hours and attending to the duties of the office in person. A fine penman, he has kept the records of deeds, mortgages and other papers in excellent shape. No one has any concern lest the work of the office be not well done while "Mack" is in there and for that reason he has a host of friends who are going to vote to keep him there.

M. L. MOORE.—For a long time it has been customary for the republican party to nominate an old soldier for county treasurer. When they placed M. L. Moore on the ticket they not only had an old soldier, but an old line, bed rock republican, one who voted the republican ticket before many of the voters of today were out of their cradles. Mr. Moore is a practical farmer of Mt. Pleasant and he is not only capable, but a most excellent man for treasurer. Industrious, careful and reliable, he can be trusted with the funds of the county and not a penny will slip through his fingers or stick to them.

H. S. GIBSON.—Two years ago H. S. Gibson was elected county school superintendent. He was then practically unknown except in his own part of the county, but in the two years of his supervision, the schools have been well looked after and they are now in a much more satisfactory condition than when he took charge of the office. Not only has he the respect of the teachers and pupils, but there is a reason for this as he has striven earnestly to elevate and help both. One particular branch of his work which has received special attention is the teachers' meetings which are held every month. He deserves to succeed himself, and the schools need to have him as his own successor.

J. C. BRADLEY.—John Bradley came off of his farm in the northern part of the county to perform the duties of county assessor and so well has he done his work that he had no opponent in the convention. He is esteemed most highly by all, and when the tickets are counted it will be found that the voters of this county, appreciating a good and efficient officer who gives his whole time to the duties of the office and does not meddle with other people's business, will have rolled him a handsome and well earned majority.

D. W. KINNAIRD.—If the voters of this county want a man to do the surveying who is well skilled in the business, practical, painstaking, careful and accommodating they will elect D. W. Kinnaird, who is well qualified in every way to do not only the surveying, but the draughting as well. He is the most efficient surveyor in the county and will do work entrusted to him promptly and well. As city engineer he is giving universal satisfaction and he will serve the county in the most acceptable manner. FRANK JAGGAR.—A practical farmer and a good business man combined is what is represented by Frank Jaggar, of Carus. No better man could be named for the place either at this or any other time. Just now he will help to reduce the county debt and make low taxes. Any voter who wants to see the affairs of this county carefully and economically administered should help to elect Frank Jaggar commissioner, as he can be relied upon to watch the expenditures in the most careful manner, and without being penurious.

R. L. HOLMAN.—The county has never had a coroner who performed the duties of the office as well and as economically as has R. L. Holman. Always at his place of business in this city it has never been any trouble to find him when wanted, and it has not been necessary to hire a rig to go away out in the country or to some outside town when a fatal accident occurred. In case of accident where not absolutely necessary to hold an inquest he has not put the county to the expense of holding an inquest. No coroner has ever done as much business as he at as small expense. In view of the fact that he has performed his duties well and has saved money to the county when by holding an inquest he might have made money for himself, should commend him to the voters of the county and insure his re-election.

Republican Meetings.

The following dates have been set for holding meetings in the various precincts of Clackamas county during the campaign, and at which places the candidates on the republican ticket will address the voters on the questions of the day: Park Place, June 1st, 7:30 p. m. Oregon City, June 2d, 7:30 p. m. The speakers at each of the above named meetings will be Geo. C. Brownell, G. E. Hayes, Geo. O. Rinearson, F. L. Mintie and C. B. Smith. Speakers will continue to address republican clubs throughout the county during the campaign, independent of the campaign meetings.

HENRY MELDRUM, Chairman Central Committee. GEO. L. STORV, Secretary.

Special Meetings.

The following special meetings other than those arranged for by Henry Meldrum, chairman of the county central committee, have been arranged for by Chas. Holman, state central committee for Clackamas county. These meetings will be addressed by some of the ablest republican speakers of the state. The German orchestra will be present at each meeting and furnish music. The ladies are especially invited to be present at the meetings. The public regardless of party is invited to attend and hear what the republicans have to say on the affairs of our country.

The places and dates are as follows: Meadow Brook June 1st. Upper Molalla June 2d.
