FRIDAY, JUNE 1, 1894.

STOLE A MEETING.—The populist party which runs a monopoly on all the purity God ever made and which has a lot of candidates with wings, to hear them tell it, is not above stealing a little thing like a democratic meeting, as is apparent from their action at Park Place on Monday night when the democratic candidates were advertised to speak there.

Two OREGON CITY BOYS.—Creed Stratton was in the city on Monday evening and brought the intelligence that he and John Baird had made arrangements to put in an electric light plant at Medford in Jackson county. They will go up there the last of the week and be busy for some time in erecting the plant and in getting in the machinery.

ONE SIDED TRADE.—It is given out on good authority that the populist candidate for assessor, who by the way is going to assess the county at the rate of fifty families per day, which would be at the rate of one every twelve minutes, went to S. R. Green, the democratic nominee for the same office and said to him, that there was but little chance for either of them to succeed against J. C. Bradley with both in the field, and that it would be well for Green to withdraw and permit aim to beat the republican, Steve agreed but argued that it would be more to his taste to have the populist candidate who proposed trading withdraw, but this did not seem to find favor in the pop's eyes, so the trade was declared off.

A MINING CLAIM.—F. H. Drews of Currinsville was in the city on Monday for the purpose of filing on a mineral claim in section 28, T 3 S of R 4 E. This is on the banks of the Clackamas a few miles above Currinsville, where he says he has discovered a fine quality of coal. He had surface croppings with him which appeared to bear out his claim. He says that the Clackamas is still too high to run in a shaft, but that as the river falls he will sink a shaft and see how much of a vein he has.

WE WILL PAY.—Your round trip fare, if you buy $3.50 worth of millinery at our Sweeping Reduction sale. The La Mode Millinery Parlors, 106 Union Ave. (old 4th street, East Side) Portland.

PLENTY OF WATER.—The flat below town and the docks in the city indicate that the water has reached a good stage for a June freshet. The county road on the flat is under water in places and much of the flat below the city submerged. This includes the Chinese gardens and most of the arable land between the county road and the river. Garden truck will be much injured by this rise, though aside from this the back-water here, is not likely to prove very damaging. In Portland it is reported the highest ever known and is doing much damage to goods and buildings. Of course it is not nearly as high here as it was at the time of the February, 1890, flood, but at Portland and other places on the lower river it is reported higher. At this point it is twenty feet above low water. In 1890 it was fifty feet and six inches. At Portland they have twenty-eight feet and over and at The Dalles fifty-three feet, which is considered a pretty good raise.

WILL BUILD A WAREHOUSE.—The Crown paper mill has for a long time felt the need of greater storage and warehouse facilities but have been deterred from building as they did not wish to place a building till it could be erected where it would be the most convenient. They have now placed the contract for a warehouse to be erected at once between the mill and the walls of the canal just south of the office building. Smyth & Perham have the contract and will begin work thereon as soon as brought in gets out the lumber which his mill is now at work cutting.

WEST SIDE SCHOOLS.—The school upon the hill on the west side of the river closed last Friday with appropriate exercises. The teachers of the two lower rooms, Miss Baird and Miss Lewelling took their pupils to the principal's room where under the direction of Mr. Starkweather, the principal, they had some very interesting speaking. On account of the recent exhibition given by the school there was no special effort made to prepare for visitors on this occasion.

A SURPRISE PARTY.—Last Friday was Miss Mary Waddock's 15th birthday and several of her young companions finding it out determined to surprise her. She had asked permission to go out for a little while in the evening and was just prepared to go when a troop of young friends came in upon her and proceeded to have a merry time. Games and delicious refreshments made Miss Mary wish that her birthday would come oftener than once a year. At a late hour the party broke up, the guests wishing their young hostess many happy returns of the occasion.

MAKING FRUIT PAPER.—The Crown paper mill made quite a quantity of fine fruit paper last season, most of which was shipped to California for use in the orchards there. So good did the quality prove that they received much larger orders this year from California as well as some good orders from this state. Their machinery is now busy turning out orders for this paper, which they find quite an addition to their trade.

A NEW PRESS.—The Oregon City Iron Works is busy getting out a new baler for the excelsior works, which is being built on an entirely new plan of Mr. Howard's designing. Instead of being as those heretofore in use, a horizontal press it will be a perpendicular, which will make it a great deal more convenient in feeding. The castings for this press were turned out on Monday.

BEAT HIS WIFE.—Last week Harry Clark got too much tangle-foot aboard and proceeded to deal with his wife in a summary manner. He beat her about the eyes and scratched her face quite severely. Complaint was entered before Justice Fouts, before whom Harry appeared on Tuesday and entered a plea of guilty. In default of fine he was committed to jail for twenty-four days.

SOME GOOD ROADS.—One day the past week we took a ride over some of the roads on the west side of the river in the district looked after by Geo. W. Prosser and while the road from Oregon City to the Fields bridge and up the Tualatin to Stafford was found to be in bad condition, the one from Wilsonville to Oswego was for the most part in very good condition, and for Oregon may fairly be called a good road. From Oswego to Oregon City the road has been worked and well rounded up so that with the exception of a very short distance a big load can be hauled or a team trot right along. Parties have remarked that these roads show the most systematic and thorough work in the county. Mr. Prosser certainly deserves credit for his road work.

State Grange Officers. The annual session of the Oregon state grange closed last Thursday at Eugene, after electing and installing the following named officers: Master, J. Voorhees, of Marion; overseer, A. S. Roberts, of Wasco; chaplain, J. C. White, treasurer, J. B. Stump, of Marion; lecturer, A. F. Miller, of Multnomah; steward, J. H. Scott, of Linn; assistant steward, G. R. Stevenson, of Clackamas; secretary, W. M. Hilleary; gate keeper, John Simpson; flora, Mrs. Phillips; cares' Mrs. Spores; L. A. S. Mrs. Tull. Executive committee, S. A. Dawson. Legislative committee, H. E. Hayes, W. O. Warren. The next meeting will be held at Oregon City the fourth Tuesday in May, 1895. The fifth and sixth degrees were conferred upon a class of about thirty.

The Blues! Away with them! Take Simmons Liver Regulator for that torpid liver which has put your digestive powers out of gear. That's at the bottom of the blues and who you take Simmons Liver Regulator you strike at at the root of the evil, and everything else that is wrong goes with it. No more Indigestion, Dyspepsia or Biliousness. That sounds bright enough, and is true.

Springwater Swells. SPRINGWATER, MAY 29.—Springwater is ablaze with politics struck by populist lightning and republican thunder with a good democratic rain.

Crops are looking fine. The fruit is damaged by frost but there will be a fair crop of apples. Springwater is still alive and trying to push ahead although times are hard.

Our enterprising merchant, W. J. Lewellen, is building a public hall so he people may have a comfortable and respectable place to gather in. He intends to have it dedicated by the school Teachers' Educational meeting on June 16. All are invited to be present.

There will be a celebration at W. B. Cornett's picnic grounds on July 4th. Everybody is invited to come and have a good time. The day's entertainment will end with a grand ball in the evening at W. J. Lewellen's hall where a good time may be assured. CITIZEN.

Stockholders Meeting. Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Oregon City Manufacturing Co., will be held at the office of the company in Oregon City, Saturday, July 14th 1894, at 10 o'clock A. M. of said day for the purpose of electing directors of the corporation to serve for the ensuing year, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the said meeting. G. B. Jacobs, Secretary. Oregon City, Or., June 1, 1894.
