go class were held in Prosser's hall on the any time. evening of June 11th. At eight o'clock the hall was entirely filled, and soon afterwards the sweet girl graduates filed through the hall in lovely robes of white. The young gentlemen who graduated with them looked very dignified, but managed to secure seats behind the young ladies. (They forgot to appear bashful when the time came for performance.) Elsie Walling open d the exercises with a piano solo, which was much appreciated by the audience. Rev. R. M. Jones followed with a short prayer. Superintendent H. S. Gibson had been chosen by the class to deliver the graduating address. His address was well received by the audience and listened to by the class with the closest attention.

The salutatory by Willie Webb, was not only well written and unmistakably original, but it showd earnest thought term of school at Mulino, district and painstaking study. Willie has a bright future before him.

"The Launching of the Ship" was recited by May Mark in a pleasing manner.

The essav on "Books as Companions," by Annie Larson is worthy of special remarks. Her ideas were good and well and clearly expressed.

The audience was favored with a beautiful song with plano accompanent, by Annie Larson, Agnes Nelson and May Mark, with Lillie Gans at the piano.

The declamation "Old Times and New," by John Bickner was good. John depicted the amazement of Ye Pilgrams in a laughable manner.

"Clars Chronicles" by Lillie Gans brought down the house. The writer was so plainly animated by a spirit of innocent fun that every one was delighted.

Mary Ghormley recited "The Tide of Death" in a creditable manner.

George Moreland's declamation "The +red. He seemed to believe every word pop. 97.

The class prophecy was written by Spencer, pop. 487. Birdie Cusick in a bright and intelligent style. Miss Cusick was unfortunately too ill to leave her home so Norma Fox bie, Peaman, rep. 167; Schnell, pop. 157. read the prophecy.

"The Daughter of Athena" was well recited by Elsie Walling. Miss Walling For constable, Owens, dem. 107; Wolfer. has been under the tuition of Berrie rep. 122; Zeigler, pop. 104. Evans for some time.

Agnes Nelson recited "No Seats in Heaven." Miss Agnes did well.

The va'edictory was delivered by Annett Pauling, was remarkably good. It was energetic, bright and helpful. The closing address was made by R.

H. Wilson, of Oswego, Mr. Wilson's ing to the graduates.

The diplomas were then presented to District No. 11-Armstrong, rep. 95: the graduates by Mr. Miller, of Oswego.

The important experiences of others are interesting. The following is no exception: "I had been troubled with heart disease 25 years much of that time very seriously. For ive years I was treated by one physician continuously. I was in business, but obliged to retire on account of my health. A physician told my friends that I could not five a month. My feet and limbs were badly swollen, and I was indeed in a serious condition when a greatloman directed my attention to Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and said that his sister, who had been afflicted with heart disease, had been cured by the remedy, and was nagain a strong, bealthy woman. I purchased a bottle of the Heart Cure, and in less than an hour after taking the first dose I could feel a decided improvement in the circulation of my blood. When I had taken three desses I could move my axides, something I had not done for mouths, and my limbs had been awollens so long that they seemed almost putrified. Refore I had taken one bottle of the New Heart Cure the swelling had all gone down, and I was so much botter that I did my own work. On my recommendation six others are taking this valuable remedy."—Mrs. Morgan, 568 W. Harrison St., Chicago, Ill.
