Sandy Preparing for the Fourth and Summer Travel—Ho, for the Summit of Mount Hood!

SANDY, June 16.—Lightning, heavy thunder, and frequent heavy showers, characterized the weather of the past week.

Grain crops so far look well. Potatoes are all up and promising a heavy yield. Hay will be extra heavy this year; some of it is ready to cut. Strawberries are beginning to ripen.

It has been rumored here the past few days that the Union Pacific will build their railroad from The Dalles to Mount Hood down the route surveyed some time ago through Sandy to Portland, and that they will abandon the road from Troutdale to The Dalles, as nearly the whole road has been washed away, and in many places the road bed also; and to rebuild would cost as much as it would to build over the mountains. If said road should be constructed it would touch an immense amount of timber, some of the finest that can be found. Besides that, many tourists and sportsmen would go up if they could go to Mount Hood in a palace car.

W. G. Steel, of Portland, was in town on his way to the Summit House. Mr. Steel says that Mount Hood is going to have a big boom this year, and that more people will go up this season than have ever been before. Some of the leading sportsmen are contemplating building hotels and houses for tourists and travelers, and it is said that two stages will run between Portland and the mountain; also, that a post office will be established there for three months of the summer. The Mazamas is a society of mountain climbers about to form in Portland. They have decided to meet on the summit of Mount Hood on the 19th of July for permanent organization. All are cordially invited to meet, and no person is to be permitted to join thereafter unless he or she has climbed to the summit of a snow-capped mountain.

Mr. Meinig is busy at work building a big new barn which he is going to finish before haying.

John Straus was in Washington county visiting friends and to get some information about making cheese, as he is going to start in the making of cheese instead of butter, thinking it will pay better.

Work has been temporarily stopped on the pipe line on account of so much rainy weather.

Our roads are in a horrible condition just at present, and it looks as if they are not going to get dry this year.

Henry Cook will run the dining room on the Fourth.

Messrs. Meinig & Sons are making extra preparations for the Fourth. They are fixing up the park in a neat style.

Mr. Vanwackner, of Salem, is the guest of Charley Chase.

Viola Vaporing.

VIOLA, June 17.—Are we going to have any summer? This seems to be the most important question at present. Haying will soon be here and it will require more sunshine than we have had the past month for farmers to save their hay.

Mrs. Asa Boyland, from Bedland, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. Matton, the past week.

Rev. Mr. Forbes, who has been holding revival meetings at Bethel the past week, preached to quite a large audience in the Viola church Sunday afternoon.

Highland Happenings.

HIGHLAND, June 19.—Highland is still on top and everything is lovely.

H. W. Gard and Miss Elnora Jewell, both of Harmony, were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's parents on Sunday, June 17. Rev. Jacob Elmer officiating. A few minutes before 12 o'clock the happy couple took a position beneath a bell of flowers which hung from the ceiling of the spacious parlor. The groom was dressed in black. The bride was an image of loveliness, arrayed in a cream colored Henrietta trimmed with cream silk and lace, dattled with bows of satin ribbon. Immediately after the ceremony the guests were invited to partake of a sumptuous feast. The wedding cake deserves special mention as a "thing of beauty." The imposing ceremony, the excellent dinner, the good time enjoyed by all present, all go to prove Mrs. Jewell's capacity as hostess and cook to be equalled by few and surpassed by none.

Liberal Lootings.

LIBERAL, June 18.—Last Friday two peddlers, while traveling near Molalla, were stopped by two men armed with shotguns, who demanded their money. The robbers got about $40. The justice and several deputies are looking for them.

Some one shot L. W. Deeth's horses last week. One of them will probably die. It will be quite a loss, he having but two horses.

There will be a school concert at Oak Grove school house Friday, June 22. At Oak Grove last Friday the school had a mock trial which was very interesting. Several people from Liberal have visited Portland to see the high water.

Wm. Jess was seen in Liberal last week.

CARUS CULLINUS.

Death of Live Stock—Neighborly Notes—A Serious Accident.

CARUS, June 19.—Roses bloom, fruits ripen, crops mature in spite of dull skies and the envelopment of frequent wet blankets. The summer of '94 will be long remembered in Oregon for its unprecedented freaks of nature.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. E. Warner, of Oregon City, made a short visit with the family of W. W. May.

Prof. Evans and wife are this week entertaining Mr. Wilson, of Oswego, and also the Misses Rogers, of Portland.

Miss Hattie Hunter went down to Central Point on Monday to spend a few days with Mrs. George Randall.

Camp meetings and picnics are in vogue, and everybody is going somewhere soon.

J. J. Guyer lost a fine two-year old colt, making the second he has lost recently.

A good cow belonging to R. Milo Cooper died last week.

A. O. Hayward lost a fine sheep the other day—by butchering.

Calla, with friends, last Friday paid a visit to McCord's mill. It was a cheerfully busy place. Large quantities of lumber are turned off in good shape. As reported, there is a fair demand for marketable lumber. Mr. McCord has a good working force and expects to fill all orders in a satisfactory manner.

J. Kalbfleisch, sr., is hauling lumber for building improvements on his place.

Will Jones is making preparations to build a large barn.

W. W. May is repairing his barn and refitting it to make room for baled hay.

Tom Jones met with a serious accident last week at Evans's shingle mill. In feeding the saw a shingle split and his hand slipped under the saw. Four fingers were stripped of flesh and nails. At last accounts the wound was extremely painful.

Stafford Notes.

STAFFORD, June 17.—The past week has ground out few events worthy of notice.

Friday and Saturday evenings the weather was very threatening; the thunder rolled and long streaks of lightning flashed through the sky in the direction of the Cascades, but rain failed to drop in this locality.

The residence of Mrs. Melcher was entirely consumed by fire about 1:30 a. m. Thursday last while the entire family were at Portland attending the wedding of her daughter Manie. The property was insured, but to what extent is not known. [The house was new, the painting having been just finished, and cost $1200. The fire is supposed to have caught from a lamp left burning in the building by the painter who was in the house at the time.]

Oscar Larson, Agnes Gage and John Q. Gage returned home last week from a trip to Nautasca bay, where they have been for the past month camping, fishing, and visiting with friends and relatives. They report having had a splendid time and hope to be able to make another trip some day. Oscar and John made a detour up and down the coast for a distance of about twenty-five miles and saw many interesting things, one of which was a large sea serpent, probably forty feet in length, which had been washed ashore by the high tides.

Damascus Doings.

DAMASCUS, June 19.—The farmers are busy with their potato crop and getting ready for haying.

Frank Osborne, George Shary and some other farmers have been purchasing mowers and binders this spring in order to be ready for haying and harvesting.

Quite a number of grangers and others from Damascus attended the picnic at Gresham Saturday. They reported a fine time.

The camp meeting at Gladstone was well attended by the Damascus people last Sunday.

Mrs. Winston left Sunday to visit her daughter at Seattle.

Albert Bohna will leave this week for Washington on business. He intends to be gone a week.

Misses May and Ella McMurry returned Sunday from Seattle where they have been attending school at the Ross seminary.

Don't forget the teachers' association here Saturday. Everybody is cordially invited. The people of the community will try and see that all enjoy themselves.

Boring Breezes.

BORING, June 4.—Thunder showers are abundant. The weather is good for farmers and bad for populists.

Orville Boring who has been attending school at the Portland University is out home again for the summer vacation. He intends to return to the school in the fall.

R. M. Bradley intends to start to Eastern Oregon on the fifth of next month.

Prospects for crops are good in this part. Most of the fruit crop is good.

T. M. Hickey had quite an accident at his mill. By running into one of the iron dogs a saw was broken all to pieces.

Mrs. A. B. Mulligan, of Molalla, has been down to Damascus visiting her parents. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Boring.

J. H. Boring and wife and Mrs. A. K. Mulligan were over and visited his brother W. H. Boring.

Mulino Mention.

MULINO, June 18.—Last Wednesday E. S. Keables and Miss Lottie Sawyer were married at Oregon City by Rev. Mitchell. Mr. Keables is an industrious young man who has resided here since a small boy. Miss Sawyer is a handsome young lady who formerly lived in the Highland neighborhood. The groom purchased a small place and furnished his house in due time, so that when the happy words were pronounced he had a home to where he could take his young bride. On Saturday night he gave a free dance to his friends in one of the hop store rooms on the Paine farm. Forty-three gentlemen and seventeen ladies enjoyed the night immensely until morning.

The Molalla grange society are making great preparations for entertaining the county school teachers' association on the 30th of this month. The Mulino musical talent will be present and furnish songs, solos, quartets and instrumental music with violin, cornet and organ.

Pembroke's hop yard is presenting a fine appearance. A short time ago lice made their appearance, but for some unknown reason they have disappeared.

Mrs. Anna Jones is the mother of a fine boy, and Mrs. W. E. Wells a girl.

Oswego Omelet.

OSWEGO, June 19.—"Cherries are ripe," both farmers and birds are saying.

Some of the Oswegoites are picking fruit for the farmers near us.

John Jinkins's Sermon—Willie Gower. The Baldheaded Man—Becca Fox. Song—Columbia—Class.

Asleep at the Switch—Miss Bessie Evans. To speak of each one separately would occupy too much space, but to hear Miss Evans and her class creates a longing to hear them again. This is the first entertainment by the class in which it has furnished its own music. Hereafter the class will have music as a pleasing feature to their entertainments. Miss Evans spoke as an encore, "The Goblins Will Get Ye." Quite a number of Oswegoites were among the audience.

Mr. and Mrs. Gans gave a farewell party at their pleasant home on Oswego Heights in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Sullivan, who leave for Wisconsin Saturday next. Quite a number of guests were present and had an enjoyable time, as Mr. and Mrs. Gans, with their charming daughters, Birdie and Lillie, know well the art of entertaining.

Mrs. Wm. Evans and her daughter, Miss Laura, gave a party Monday evening in honor of the Misses Dickenson of Oregon City.

Miss Gladys Jones and her brother William are expected home the latter part of the week from Pacific University.

Miss Grace Worthington is spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Ross, of Oregon City.

Children's Day was observed at the M. E. church Sunday evening last. The little folk deserve great credit for their assistance in the evening's entertainment.

At the Congregational church next Sunday will be Children's Day. Miss Gladys Jones will sing.

Dr. Sailor has moved into the Odd Fellows building.

Dr. Barber, of Portland, has taken Dr. Sullivan's practice in Oswego.

New Era Newslets.

NEW ERA, June 18.—The paper in New Era feel pretty sore over the result of the late election. We don't know the cause for it, but the republicans are making great gains since the election. On election day we had but about 65 and now we have over 100.

The young folks of this place gave sheriff elect Maddock and family a pleasant surprise party last Saturday night. A good time is reported by all who attended.

Thomas Blanchard has newly painted his barn which much improves its appearance. Peter Engle has purchased a fine hack of E. C. Maddock—consideration $60.

The correspondent from Central Point in your last issue seems to be considerably worried over the trouble George Blanchard is about to get into. The facts are that George has not fenced up one foot of the county road, while the Central Point correspondent has his fence within six feet of the center of the road the whole length of his place, according to the survey made by three different surveyors, and has raised crops enough on the county road to have cleared it of roots, stumps and stones the whole length of his place. George is willing to abide by the decision of the county court in regard to the matter. If we are going to live in glass houses we must not throw stones.

HAYSEED.

Bread, Bread.

Of all things the average housekeeper is particular about, it is the quality of bread for her table. Good home made bread is not equaled by the ordinary bakery and to meet this requirement, Mr. J. Egle of the Shively bakery has put on the market his celebrated home made bread. This bread is made from the same kind of flour that is ground for export and none of the processes are used in its manufacture that, while giving the bread a fine appearance, ruin its quality. The utmost cleanliness is observed in all departments and the patrons of the bakery are invited to inspect it at any time, that they may see for themselves how their bread is prepared and handled.
