DROWNED AT THE CASCADES,-Jefferof age, employed on one of the fish grounds, beginning June 21st and conwheels scows at Cascades, met a horrible tinuing till July 2d, death Monday morning. He, with an Indian half-breed companion, were engaged in lining a small boat out in the current, when the cable parted and a moment later the boat, with the two mea aboard, was at the mercy of the League meetings. swift running waters. The little craft was driven against a scow, sucked under by the current and overturned. The halfbreed succeeded in jumping on the scow, but Wilkinson was thrown in the water and disappeared. It was thought possible that the wheel of the fish scow would pick him up, but that faint hope his form appeared and he was seen bat. afternood of each day will be given to financial depression. The grand mastling with the current and waves. His efforts were in vain, and with a despairing shrick the young man went over the rapids to certain death.

DROWNING OUT OF WATER.-According Denison and D. A. Watters. to the Dailes Chronicle the Sherer cloudburst cut some very queer capers. The Mrs. Rev. D. says the first shipment of big crawfish from down the river was received here Monday and some of them were whooppers, at least six inches in length. They look more like young lobsters than ordinary crawfish. There is quite a demand for these crustaceans now that the Americans have begun to learn what the French and Germans have long known, that they are delicacies. There is no end of them in the Columbia and Willamette, where they grow to large size, and smaller ones are found in nearly every stream in the state. Quite a business is done by several persons in shipping cooked and spiced crawfish to San Francisco, where there is a great demand for them, and they are now found regularly on the bill of fare at a number of restaurants. It is not likely that there will ever be so many millions of dollars in the crawfish fishery as in the salmon or even in the sturgeon and shad, but it can be made to yield a profit to many fishermen.

A Books Check .- Last Saturday evening Chas. Shafer, formerly of Baker Erdman Krisson to James Shaw lots City, went into Mr. McKittrick's shoe store and selected a $5 pair of aboes for which he offered in payment a check WILLAMETTE FALLS ELECTRIC RAILWAY, for $20.00 drawn upon the Commercial bank of this city and signed by Kelley, Dunne & Co. of Portland. The check was dated Oregon City and Shafer endorsed it with his own name on the back. He received for it the shoes and $15 in soin. Mr. McKittrick says that 8 B Califf to Daniel Fisher lot 7 blk one reason why he accepted the check was because he did not think think that Jas Shaw to Frank Warren lots I a man would put himself in danger of the state prison for the paltry sum of $20. "Keep a Jumpin'."

The following story from an exchange will interest the merchants of Oregon City:

"The storekeeper who expects to do much business in 1894 must practice the lesson taught in the following story "Two frogs found themselves in a pail of milk, and they could not jump out. One of them was for giving up, and said to the other 'Goodby: I sink, I die!' Said his mate, 'Brace up, you duffer! Keep a jumping and see what turns So they kept jumping up and churned the milk that it turned to butter and they jumped off the butter to the PRICE ?

Applied to business the fable means: ceed that of 1893 "keep a jumping." Don't cry, "I sink, I die!" The mertimes will not survive to see good times, The man who keeps a jumpin' will see good times first. Carry a level head, buy standard goods, and keep a good

KRUSE'S HEADACHE CAPSULES-War-

Read This Letter From a Chicago Lady Chicago, 735 W. Adams St. Apr., 20, '91

Mr. NORMAN LICHTY, Des Moines, Ia. Dear Sir: A Sample of Krause's headache capsules was left in my bushand's office a lew days since, and as I was subject to headaches, neuralgic, nervous, and in fact every other kind-he thoughtfully brought the sample box home. The very next day I had a chance to try them and one capsule relieved me in less than half an hour. Next day I was attacked again, took another capsule with the same delightful result, in less than half an hour my head felt as well as ever, with no bad feelings as the result, I have had these terrible headaches for twenty years, and have tried every remedy that I ever heard of, but nothing I have ever taken has cared or relieved me as quickly as Kruase's Headache Capsules.
