Salmon Spray—Barlow Road Almost Clear of Snow—Travelers Crossing—Summit House Repairs.

SALMON, July 9.—A goodly number of people of this section went to Sandy to celebrate the Fourth, your correspondent among the number. A very good time was had, everything going off smoothly. The music was furnished by Cordray's orchestra of Portland and was excellent. A ball in the hall at night finished the day's entertainments.

Mr. McCoy, of Portland, passed here last Tuesday going to the water ditch in Eastern Oregon on which he has a contract. He had about forty "Dagos," or Italians, whom he was taking up to work on the ditch.

Our school teacher, Miss Birdie Galentine, went home to Hubbard to spend the Fourth.

H. S. Campbell passed here on Tuesday going to his station at the Summit House to make repairs, as it was reported that the snow had broken in part of the roof, and get the house ready for the summer. The road is nearly clear of snow now.

Messrs. Bernegger and Hobbie have been on a trip to the latter's claim at Clear creek. He wished to ascertain the damage done to it last summer by forest fires. He found it not serious.

SANDY SQUIRS.

The Celebration a Success—Teachers' Picnic on the 27th of July.

SANDY, July 8.—The Fourth was a lively day for this burg and every thing passed off in a very pleasant and agreeable manner. There was the largest crowd present ever seen in Sandy and all seemed to enjoy themselves in and about Meinig's park. The people were somewhat disappointed in the speaker's not coming, but after the reading of the Declaration of Independence, Richard Bradley consented to address the audience and made some very pleasing and appropriate remarks after which Clarence Stephens favored the crowd with a pleasing declamation. A Mr. Freemont then delivered a fine speech which was very appropriate and much enjoyed by all present.

A grand school picnic is the next thing on the program for the park at this place. It will be held on the 27th of July at the park and will be a gala day for the teachers and schools of this place and all the surrounding country. The Metropolitan band of Portland will furnish music for the occasion and a fine program is being prepared. Everybody interested in the schools or in educational work is invited to be present as a grand time is assured.

The M. A. Ross G. A. R. post, of Pleasant Home, is planning to have a reunion and picnic sometime in August which will probably last a couple of days. The announcement of this meeting will be made later.

Springwater Spores.

SPRINGWATER, July 9.—People are very busy trying to get their hay made before it rains again.

The morning of the Fourth dawned with brightness and beauty, and by ten o'clock the grove in which we celebrated was filled with a happy looking crowd of people from every direction. The program was made up and at 11 o'clock Walter Holcomb, Esq., took the platform as chairman. First on the program was the singing of "America" by the choir. Miss Helen Taylor was then introduced and recited the Declaration of Independence. H. S. Strange of Oregon delivered the oration which was principally devoted to the necessity of educating the youth of our country to patriotism. A song, "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp," was sung by the children while marching under a flag, after which a recess till two was taken for dinner, which was indulged in heartily by all. Dancing, swinging, croquet and other amusement filled up the time of the afternoon. During the speaking a tremendous roar came from the direction of the anvil that had been used in the morning in the place of cannon. It had been heavily charged and left by some thoughtless person to be fired at the close of the address. Some small boys went too close with firecrackers and the charge was set off. Little Harry, son of Carl Howell, was badly shocked and his face powder burned. Lester, son of Jack Marra, was hurt about the legs but not seriously.

Mr. Bullard, an old gentleman of Currinsville, was stricken with palsy at the celebration of the evening of the Fourth. It has been reported since that he is recovering. A protracted meeting held by the Presbyterians began the evening of July 6th, conducted by Rev. J. Sylvanus of the Springwater church, and Dr. Gwyn of Salem. Other ministers are expected.

New Era Notes.

NEW ERA, July 9.—The republican club of this place met last Friday evening with a very small attendance. It was postponed till the busy time is over and the evenings get longer. No definite time was named but we hope to see a large attendance when the time comes to meet again. Every body is busy having with scarcely time for Sunday rest.

The Spiritualist campmeeting is in full progress at this place. Quite a number of campers from abroad are on the ground. It is feared that the wheat crop will suffer somewhat from the green aphids which has attacked every field, some pretty badly. Oats seem almost exempt from their attack.

We are informed that there will be a basket sociable at Union Hall, Wednesday evening, July 18th, for the benefit of the Phelps school, it being the last day of the summer term. Everybody is cordially invited to attend. Ladies please bring a well filled basket and a bouquet. The Sunday school at Central Point resumed meetings last Sunday after a postponement of two Sundays to go to Canby campmeeting, where everybody enjoyed themselves to their hearts content.

Stafford Squibs.

STAFFORD, July 9.—Hot! That is but striking it easy. It is melting weather. Several hundred tons of clover have been cut around here the past week, and most of it is of a first class quality. Although there is quite a rush at present there is but very little hiring of hands being done, most farmers having hands enough on their places to carry them through.

Miss Minnie Moses, who has been spending a few weeks with relations here, has returned to her home in Portland.

Newton Syster bade farewell to these parts on the morning of the fifth and departed for the home of his parents on Dairy creek in Washington county, where he will spend the remainder of the summer.

Conrad Weolfe, sen., and Wm. and Fred Schatz left for Sheridan on Saturday last to look at a ranch recently purchased by one of their Dakota friends. Mr. Weolfe has some thoughts of trading his present home for a prairie farm.

Simeon De Neni has returned home from Salem where he has been attending school for the past year.

Caterpillars are becoming scarce. The few that are left are rolling up snugly in their cocoons. No great damage seems to have been done by them as they have taken but few leaves off from the fruit trees.

The wheat aphid is quite numerous, but as yet not much damage to the grain has become apparent. The aphid has also made raids on some of the oat fields.

All the winter and some spring grain is headed out, and it looks like harvest is close at hand.

Wilsonville Whispers.

WILSONVILLE, July 8.—A good many of the farmers of this place are feeling very uneasy over the fate of the grain crop this year on account of the little green insect which the wheat more especially is literally alive with. Unlike the insect reported by your Stafford correspondent last week. The one here has no resemblance of the hop louse whatever, it being from three to five times larger and of a greenish color, whereas the hop louse is nearly white. As yet, however, these insects have done no apparent damage and the crop looks more promising than for several years back. The hay crop which is now being cut is unusually large. The Sharp brothers from twenty-seven acres expect to harvest about sixty tons, and John Kruse, T. L. Turner, Bishop Seely, U. Wagner and John Aden will evidently have yields of like proportion.

The Miley brothers are credited with having the best looking hop yard in the neighborhood.

E. R. Seely and wife of Woodburn were visiting friends and relatives here the past week.

Your Stafford correspondent in giving an account in last week's ENTERPRISE of the spelling school given at Frog Pond the previous Saturday failed to give Miss Dora Thompson due credit for spelling the school down.

Mark Seely, senior partner of the well known firm of Seely, Tyler & Co., is reported to have embarked on the blissful sea of matrimony, a few months since. In behalf of the neighborhood, Stranger begs leave to congratulate the young couple.

CAPTURED THE SPEAKER.

TO THE EDITOR:—Please allow me the privilege to give an explanation regarding the celebration at Wrights Springs on the Fourth. After the celebration had been started, Knotts & Nash leased the grounds and went ahead with the celebration. C. A. Fitch, of Portland, was engaged to deliver the oration which he did giving good satisfaction. Shortly after his address was completed one or two gentlemen made themselves very persistent indeed by taking possession of the grounds without any consent of the managers and passed the hat to pay Mr. Fitch. The Courier published last week that we refused to pay the speaker, which is not true. Mr. Fitch will tell any one that he was taken away without saying one word to the managers, and how in the name of common sense could he be paid his fees. Furthermore the managers have $5 for Mr. Fitch. Strange indeed, but nevertheless true. Jealous and envious people can accumulate confusion.

C. E. KNOTT.

MULISO, July 9, 1894.

Sherwood Shavings. SHERWOOD, July 9.—The farmers near this place are improving the fine weather getting in their hay crop, which is not very heavy but generally good in quality.

The grain aphid has made its appearance up here. What damage it may do it is impossible now to say.

Quite a number of the old folks of this place attended the celebration at Hood View on the Fourth. The exercises of the day were good. Dinner was served on the grounds. A program consisting of music, recitations and appropriate addresses from Chauncey Calkins, W. F. Young, William Dodson and Rev. J. M. Barber was listened to, after which all gave themselves up to having a general good time. Services were held in the church in the evening.

A dance was given at Seney's hall on the evening of the Fourth. A large crowd was present and a merry time was enjoyed by all.

Misses Carrie Murdock, Estella Attaberry and Elsie Mosher are with us again after spending a few months in Portland. It seems good to meet old friends.

Farmer.

CLARKES, July 9.—Everybody is busy making hay while the sun shines. The yield is excellent.

The celebration at the Butte was enjoyed by all present.

Miss Amanda Tinneset returned from Clackamas Sunday where she has been attending school.

Mrs. G. W. Lee is very sick.

John Gard has taken his mother, Mrs. J. J. Gard, to visit relatives across the Clackamas river at Currinsville.

Quite a number are going from here to Milwaukee to attend the camp meeting there.

Letter List.

The following is the list of letters remaining in the post office at Oregon City, Oregon, July 12, 1894:

Brooks, Wm Staub, A J
Doering, Bertha Tuttle, Mrs J M
McGhan, Mrs Mattie Williams, J C
Schantzen, Mr Woods J M
If called for please state when advertised.
E. M. HANDS, P. M.

WHILE there is doubtless a question between Pullman and his employes which ought to have been adjusted for the betterment of the employes, it is a grave question whether it was of importance enough to justify discommoding almost the entire American people for the sake of the few dollars gain which would have accrued to the laborers. But when there was added to this inconvenience and loss destruction of property, disobedience to laws and the spilling of blood it is hard to find excuse or palliation. The demand of the strikers in many instances is for the restoration of wages received in 1893. They seemingly forget that others besides themselves have suffered. Indeed, it would be hard to find a class or an individual who has not suffered seriously. Business men consider themselves fortunate if they are not losing money, farmers are constrained to be satisfied if their debts are not becoming greater, laborers are in luck the country over if they have work at considerable less wages than was paid a year and a half ago. Why then should all of these, and the thousands of others in the various occupations throughout the country, be inconvenienced and made to suffer loss for the sake of the few railroad workers and employes in Pullman's shops? The rest of the country and people have some rights which are entitled to respect.

Evangelical Lutheran's in Oregon City.

Last October Rev. L. Grey, a member of the Evangelical Lutheran body was sent to our city by the mission board of his church to establish the Evangelical Lutheran faith in our city. The few Lutheran families who had petitioned for a minister were reorganized into the "Evangelical Lutheran's Congregation of Oregon City, Oregon, and are being faithfully served by their pastor. The membership has increased fourfold in number in the short period of nine months, the congregation now numbering twenty-five families and is still growing rapidly. Among her own members and also among charitable friends she has raised a neat sum of money for a building fund. The trustees have been instructed to buy a site for a church and parsonage in a good location in the next few weeks. An appropriate church edifice will be erected this fall.

Church Dedication.

Sunday, July the 22d, will be a happy day for the "Evangelical Lutheran St. Peter's Congregation of Mink at which time they will dedicate their grand new church which has been erected this spring in spite of the hard times. Rev. L. Grey from this city is pastor of said congregation. He has worked in Mink for the last eight months with the best of success and the congregation is now ready to call a pastor who will take charge of the Mink field in about six or eight weeks. At the dedication there will be grand singing and speaking in both the English and German language, and the eloquent Revs. A. Kruse and J. Herting from Portland will be present. All are cordially invited.

Preparing to Impeach Olney.

CHICAGO, July 11.—Sovereign was in consultation today by long-distance telephone with General Secretary John W. Hayes, T. B. McGuire and Charles A. French, members of the executive committee of the Knights of Labor, who are in Washington. Sovereign said: "proceedings will be commenced today under the direction of members of the executive committee to impeach Attorney-General Olney. We have the best legal advice in Washington, and the petition against Attorney-General Olney is ready for filing."

Want the President Impeached.

CLEVELAND July 11.—At the meeting of the local lodges of the Knights of Labor, held tonight, resolutions were adopted demanding the impeachment of President Cleveland for high crimes and misdemeanors, that the majesty of the law may be vindicated.

Bread, Bread.

Of all things the average housekeeper is particular about, it is the quality of bread for her table. Good home made bread is not equalled by the ordinary bakery and to meet this requirement, Mr. J. Egle of the Shively bakery has put on the market his celebrated home made bread. This bread is made from the same kind of flour that is ground for export and none of the processes are used in its manufacture that, while giving the bread a fine appearance, ruin its quality. The utmost cleanliness is observed in all departments and the patrons of the bakery are invited to inspect it at any time, that they may see for themselves how their bread is prepared and handled.

If you want an attractive sign see Davis the painter. Portland prices. Shop back of Pope & Co.'s hardware store.
