

GOOD ROADS.

What Supervisor Cooke is Doing to Enable the Farmers to Get to Market.

On invitation of Supervisor Cooke, County Commissioner Jagger and a representative of the ENTERPRISE met Mr. Cooke at an early hour last Friday morning and put in the day inspecting the roads in his district, which embraces all that part of Clackamas county north of the Clackamas river.

The first roads inspected were those in the vicinity of Milwaukie, Harmony, Sunnyside and Damascus, where the roads were found in very good shape, Mr. Cooke having made special efforts to get the main thoroughfares connecting with the graveled roads in Multnomah county, passable at all seasons of the year, so that the farmers could reach their market in Portland during the winter months when their farm work was over.

From Damascus the party went to Eagle Creek, passing over the spot where a little child was killed last winter by being thrown from its mother's arms, by a wheel of the wagon dropping suddenly into a deep hole.

At another place on the Deep Creek bottom, the evidence of one of the monster mud holes that extended the entire distance across the bottom was passed, that had been left to one side in his work of straightening the road by Mr. Cooke, as a reminder to Henry Wilbern, the enterprising merchant of Eagle Creek, of the good old days when road working was a picnic to be devoted to yarn spinning and horse trading.

Mr. Cooke's work shows that he is the man for the place and proves him to be an engineer of no mean ability. His grades and fills are nearly as true as if set with instruments. His plan of road work is to first get the route permanently established on the best grade possible and on as direct a line as possible, cutting off all unnecessary crooks and angles regardless of whether it is through a forest or a field, he rightly figuring that for every rod of increase of distance the load has to be decreased just that much.

Drainage is another important point he looks after and on all of his graded roads that feature has been fully attended to. With another year's work such as Mr. Cooke has done this season, the north Clackamas district will be supplied with a system of roads not excelled even by Multnomah county, and which will add $10 an acre to the value of any farm in that part of the county.

Mr. Jagger was more than pleased with improvements of the roads, and expressed himself satisfied that the county's money had been well expended and only regretted that the county had not been able to appropriate still larger sums to the road work of the county.

He also expressed himself that the cash system of road work inaugurated by Judge Meldrum was the only plan by which the roads of Clackamas county could ever be permanently improved and rendered passable at all seasons of the year.

Relative to the cash system the ENTERPRISE man took special pains to ask of every farmer seen during the trip as to which he preferred, the cash, or the old system of road work, and he could not find one man, nor hear of one, that was in favor of the old work-as-you-please system. They only ask that Clackamas county give them a practical system for the improvement of their roads and they will willingly pay any reasonable increase to the road tax, otherwise they will renew their efforts to get set off into Multnomah county where a road system prevails that is covering the county with a net work of graveled turnpikes.

Chautauqua Notes.

A great platform 24x64 feet is being erected on the assembly ground for the speakers, singers, band and other dignitaries.

Meals can be had for sixty cents a day on the grounds. Geo. Wright Post G. A. R., of Portland, have voted to come in a body on patriotic day. So has Meade Post No. 2 of Oregon City.

The Assembly will be followed by a three days Christian Workers' convention under the direction of George Robert Cairns, the singing evangelist. Admission free. All Christian denominations invited. Our local ministers have a part in it.

The success of the Chautauqua meetings set for next week which now seems assured, will be due in a large measure to the active and persistent efforts of a goodly number of the leading citizens of this place, who have given much thought and work to the arrangement of the details for the meetings.

On Saturday morning there will be issued from the ENTERPRISE office the first copy of the Daily Chautauqua, which is to be issued during the session of the Willamette Valley Chautauquan Association at Gladstone Park. The paper is issued early so as to make announcements concerning the meetings and speakers. The other issues will appear on Wednesday and Thursday of next week. The paper will be a neat four page paper, well and artistically printed on a good quality of book paper. Those who are intending to attend the meetings of the association should not fail to secure the first number as it will contain full particulars of the meetings together with an official program.

One of the most attractive features of Wednesday's programme at Gladstone will be the band concert by the First Regiment Marine Band, O. N. G., of Portland. This is the finest band in the Northwest.

Rev. C. E. Locke, D. D., the popular pastor of the Taylor Street Methodist church, will give his lecture "Give the Girls a Chance," on Thursday afternoon, July 26. Dr. Locke will take occasion in this lecture to show how two women had a great deal to do with starting the first Chautauqua. Dr. Locke was a student at Alleghany College, Pennsylvania, at the time, not far from Chautauqua Lake, and was conversant with the early history of this movement that has spread world wide. Just after Dr. Locke's lecture on Thursday afternoon an important act will take place in the organization of a permanent Chautauqua corporation qualified to hold property, build buildings and secure speakers for another year. Officers will be elected, committees appointed to draft a constitution etc. Superintendent Smith will preside and Hon. H. E. Cross will state upon what terms he will grant perpetual use of these grounds for a Chautauqua Assembly.

On the evening of July 26, Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway will speak on "Remove the Cause of Strikes." Mrs. Duniway is the well known sister of H. W. Scott of the Oregonian. Although at the last Pioneer Reunion she was introduced as the "Patriotic Henry of the Northwest," amid tremendous applause. At the Woman's Congress at Chicago, Mrs. Duniway's address was said to have been the ablest given from that platform, and she was called for a second time. She did more to make Oregon known than any other speaker at the World's Fair, and all Pacific coast visitors were proud of Mrs. Duniway.

Rev. J. S. Smith, the bustling superintendent of Pacific Coast Chautauquas is the originator and manager of the Southern Oregon Chautauqua at Ashland. He formerly had wide knowledge in Chautauqua work in the east and has transplanted to this coast the ripe experience of his former activity.

Five bands have promised their assistance on the various evenings of the Assembly, viz: the Park Place, Oswego, Clackamas, Oregon City and Portland Marine Band. A fine band stand is in course of construction.

County Superintendent H. S. Gibson will assemble his teachers next week in time to take in Education Day. "I congratulate you," said Dr. Locke, "on the courage and enterprise that has built up this great assembly, Oregon has talent and the glory is yours that you have brought it together."

Plans are already on foot for a more extended Chautauqua Assembly next year. It is hoped to secure some speaker of world wide fame like Talmage or McKinley.

The G. A. R. posts of this and neighboring cities, the Sons of Veterans, Woman's Relief Corps and other organizations are coming out in force on Patriotic Day, July 25.

Visitors to the Assembly are invited to take a ride on the West Side electric motor that overlooks the falls and factories and electric light plant of Oregon City. Two million dollars are being expended on the power house. Just beyond lies Willamette Falls that promises to become one of the most charming suburbs of our growing city.

The greatest unanimity has been shown in all the arrangements for this Assembly. The Chautauqua people feel under special obligations to Hon. H. E. Cross, without whose assistance this Assembly would have been impossible. Almost equal obligations are felt toward the editors of the city papers, the Courier, the Herald and the Enterprise who have freely given the use of their columns to aid the cause. Behold how excellent things united enterprise can do.

All the churches are making arrangements to come more or less in a body with baskets for a picnic outing on the Assembly grounds.

The ticket business has been placed in the efficient hands of Mr. H. C. Stevens, who has had wide experience at fairs and other public gatherings.

Lunch counters on the grounds will satisfy all the wants of the inner man from a glass of soda water to a full set dinner.

Dr. Cowan who speaks on July 24, enjoys the distinction of being the founder of the Junior Y. P. S. C. E. Mrs. Gilman Parker, who will perhaps speak to the Juniors, is leader of the largest Junior society in the world.

The Mulrtor Quartette expect to be back from Mt. Hood in time to sing the last day.

Let everybody join in the Chautauqua salute.

As a platform speaker Dr. Wallace always charms and never disappoints.

Roland Grant has gone on the Mt. Hood trip and arranged to be back in time for Patriotic Day.

Over 200 speakers and singers are engaged for the great Assembly.

The star talent of Oregon will appear on the Chautauqua platform.

Prof. Wilson, of the Portland Academy, will give an address on Tuesday morning.

The Marine Band will be on the ground Tuesday evening for a band concert at 7 o'clock.

E. P. Elliott and family have gone to Netarts for a few weeks outing.

The family of P. F. Morey left on Wednesday for his seaside resort down the Columbia.

Geo. A. Kinzie and F. Hilton of Needv was in the city on Saturday and in speaking of the road work being done in this county expressed their warm approval.

The house of G. C. Kinney, at Willamette Falls, was struck by lightning in the thunder shower of Wednesday evening, and damaged about $75 worth. It was just being completed at the time.

Henry Githens of Eagle Creek is locating at the falls a few miles up the creek it being his purpose to fit up a summer resort at that point. No more beautiful spot than Eagle Creek Falls could be found for a resort.

Fourth of July Funds.

Following is the report of the finance committee which solicited and paid out the funds used in celebrating the Fourth in this city, as per vouchers in their hands:

Table with columns for RECEIPTS and DISBURSEMENTS. RECEIPTS: On hand from July, 1892 $199 85; Rec'd in subscriptions 468 00; Rec'd from sale of lumber 7 00. Total $674 85. DISBURSEMENTS: Com. on amusements, for prizes $218 25; on speakers, carriages, etc 42 50; on music 123 00; Liberty car 39 05; Advertising 68 54; Grounds, etc 71 97; Uncollected 5 00; Cash on hand to balance 120 22. Total $674 85.

C. O. T. WILLIAMS, J. G. PILSBURY, T. L. CHARMAN, Finance Committee.

Red Men's Council.

The great council of Red Men for Oregon closed a two days' interesting session in this city on Tuesday after electing and installing grand officers as follows:

A. A. Cleveland, of Astoria, grand sachem; A. A. Ellis, of Portland, great senior saganore; H. H. Newhall, of Portland, great junior saganore; C. S. Hannum, of Portland, great prophet; F. H. Saylor, of Portland, great chief of records; W. S. Norton, of Portland, great keeper of wampum; E. J. Ladd, of Portland, supreme representative.

The meeting was harmonious throughout, and a profitable one to the order, which is reported in a flourishing condition in the state.

Prendergrast Hanged.

Last Friday, Prendergrast the murderer of Mayor Harrison of Chicago, paid the penalty of his crime and was hanged. Nine months ago he gained admission to the mayor's house and without warning shot him several times, so that he died within an hour. He then rushed out into the street and eluding pursuit, made his way to a police station where he gave himself up. His case has been before the state courts in many forms since that date, every effort having been made by his attorneys to save his neck. It is gratifying to law abiding citizens to know that the law though slow has at length been vindicated.

If you are going to have a party, be sure to make the cake with GOLDEN WEST Baking Powder.

The Cross Dam Suit.

Thursday's Oregonian contains the following: "The trial of Harvey E. Cross indicted in the United States district court for interrupting the flow of water in a navigable stream, came to an abrupt termination yesterday afternoon. A jury had been impaneled, the evidence on both sides presented and argument closed, when Judge Bellinger instructed the jury to return a verdict for the defendant, as the Clackamas river was not a navigable stream within the meaning of the act. District Attorney Murphy introduced testimony showing that the river had been used for the purpose of commercial navigation, that rafts of logs, farm supplies and other material had been shipped, but it was evidently not satisfactory to the court, and the instructions to the jury were followed.

Mr. Cross has a dam constructed in the Clackamas river a short distance above the mouth, extending from bank to bank, and it was claimed that such obstruction prevented the salmon from ascending the river to the hatcheseries, also depriving people living along its course of fishing for food. Acting upon the suggestion of officials, Fish Protector McGuire filed an information with the district attorney against Cross, an indictment, trial and discharge followed.

Death of Mrs. Gaines.

William Barlow, of Barlow, was in this city Wednesday making arrangements for the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Gaines, who died at Grant's Pass that morning. The funeral will be at the Baptist church in this city Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements were made to hold the funeral on Thursday morning but the overland train was twelve hours late at Ashland which made it out of the question to set a hour for the funeral service on Thursday so it was postponed till Friday. Mrs. Gaines was 73 years old at the time of her death, and was an old pioneer in the state, having crossed the plains with her family in 1845, after which she lived in Yamhill county till about ten years ago, since which time she had lived with her children, most of this period with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Curry, of Grant's Pass, at whose home she died. She leaves, besides her brother in Barlow, two sons in business in California, and two daughters, Mrs. Curry and Mrs. William Reinhart, of Seattle.

William Barlow, of Barlow, was in this city Wednesday making arrangements for the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Gaines, who died at Grant's Pass that morning. The funeral will be at the Baptist church in this city Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements were made to hold the funeral on Thursday morning but the overland train was twelve hours late at Ashland which made it out of the question to set a hour for the funeral service on Thursday so it was postponed till Friday. Mrs. Gaines was 73 years old at the time of her death, and was an old pioneer in the state, having crossed the plains with her family in 1845, after which she lived in Yamhill county till about ten years ago, since which time she had lived with her children, most of this period with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Curry, of Grant's Pass, at whose home she died. She leaves, besides her brother in Barlow, two sons in business in California, and two daughters, Mrs. Curry and Mrs. William Reinhart, of Seattle.

William Barlow, of Barlow, was in this city Wednesday making arrangements for the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Gaines, who died at Grant's Pass that morning. The funeral will be at the Baptist church in this city Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements were made to hold the funeral on Thursday morning but the overland train was twelve hours late at Ashland which made it out of the question to set a hour for the funeral service on Thursday so it was postponed till Friday. Mrs. Gaines was 73 years old at the time of her death, and was an old pioneer in the state, having crossed the plains with her family in 1845, after which she lived in Yamhill county till about ten years ago, since which time she had lived with her children, most of this period with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Curry, of Grant's Pass, at whose home she died. She leaves, besides her brother in Barlow, two sons in business in California, and two daughters, Mrs. Curry and Mrs. William Reinhart, of Seattle.

William Barlow, of Barlow, was in this city Wednesday making arrangements for the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Gaines, who died at Grant's Pass that morning. The funeral will be at the Baptist church in this city Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements were made to hold the funeral on Thursday morning but the overland train was twelve hours late at Ashland which made it out of the question to set a hour for the funeral service on Thursday so it was postponed till Friday. Mrs. Gaines was 73 years old at the time of her death, and was an old pioneer in the state, having crossed the plains with her family in 1845, after which she lived in Yamhill county till about ten years ago, since which time she had lived with her children, most of this period with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Curry, of Grant's Pass, at whose home she died. She leaves, besides her brother in Barlow, two sons in business in California, and two daughters, Mrs. Curry and Mrs. William Reinhart, of Seattle.

William Barlow, of Barlow, was in this city Wednesday making arrangements for the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Gaines, who died at Grant's Pass that morning. The funeral will be at the Baptist church in this city Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements were made to hold the funeral on Thursday morning but the overland train was twelve hours late at Ashland which made it out of the question to set a hour for the funeral service on Thursday so it was postponed till Friday. Mrs. Gaines was 73 years old at the time of her death, and was an old pioneer in the state, having crossed the plains with her family in 1845, after which she lived in Yamhill county till about ten years ago, since which time she had lived with her children, most of this period with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Curry, of Grant's Pass, at whose home she died. She leaves, besides her brother in Barlow, two sons in business in California, and two daughters, Mrs. Curry and Mrs. William Reinhart, of Seattle.

William Barlow, of Barlow, was in this city Wednesday making arrangements for the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Gaines, who died at Grant's Pass that morning. The funeral will be at the Baptist church in this city Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements were made to hold the funeral on Thursday morning but the overland train was twelve hours late at Ashland which made it out of the question to set a hour for the funeral service on Thursday so it was postponed till Friday. Mrs. Gaines was 73 years old at the time of her death, and was an old pioneer in the state, having crossed the plains with her family in 1845, after which she lived in Yamhill county till about ten years ago, since which time she had lived with her children, most of this period with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Curry, of Grant's Pass, at whose home she died. She leaves, besides her brother in Barlow, two sons in business in California, and two daughters, Mrs. Curry and Mrs. William Reinhart, of Seattle.

William Barlow, of Barlow, was in this city Wednesday making arrangements for the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Gaines, who died at Grant's Pass that morning. The funeral will be at the Baptist church in this city Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements were made to hold the funeral on Thursday morning but the overland train was twelve hours late at Ashland which made it out of the question to set a hour for the funeral service on Thursday so it was postponed till Friday. Mrs. Gaines was 73 years old at the time of her death, and was an old pioneer in the state, having crossed the plains with her family in 1845, after which she lived in Yamhill county till about ten years ago, since which time she had lived with her children, most of this period with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Curry, of Grant's Pass, at whose home she died. She leaves, besides her brother in Barlow, two sons in business in California, and two daughters, Mrs. Curry and Mrs. William Reinhart, of Seattle.

William Barlow, of Barlow, was in this city Wednesday making arrangements for the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Gaines, who died at Grant's Pass that morning. The funeral will be at the Baptist church in this city Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements were made to hold the funeral on Thursday morning but the overland train was twelve hours late at Ashland which made it out of the question to set a hour for the funeral service on Thursday so it was postponed till Friday. Mrs. Gaines was 73 years old at the time of her death, and was an old pioneer in the state, having crossed the plains with her family in 1845, after which she lived in Yamhill county till about ten years ago, since which time she had lived with her children, most of this period with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Curry, of Grant's Pass, at whose home she died. She leaves, besides her brother in Barlow, two sons in business in California, and two daughters, Mrs. Curry and Mrs. William Reinhart, of Seattle.

William Barlow, of Barlow, was in this city Wednesday making arrangements for the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Gaines, who died at Grant's Pass that morning. The funeral will be at the Baptist church in this city Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements were made to hold the funeral on Thursday morning but the overland train was twelve hours late at Ashland which made it out of the question to set a hour for the funeral service on Thursday so it was postponed till Friday. Mrs. Gaines was 73 years old at the time of her death, and was an old pioneer in the state, having crossed the plains with her family in 1845, after which she lived in Yamhill county till about ten years ago, since which time she had lived with her children, most of this period with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Curry, of Grant's Pass, at whose home she died. She leaves, besides her brother in Barlow, two sons in business in California, and two daughters, Mrs. Curry and Mrs. William Reinhart, of Seattle.

William Barlow, of Barlow, was in this city Wednesday making arrangements for the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Gaines, who died at Grant's Pass that morning. The funeral will be at the Baptist church in this city Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements were made to hold the funeral on Thursday morning but the overland train was twelve hours late at Ashland which made it out of the question to set a hour for the funeral service on Thursday so it was postponed till Friday. Mrs. Gaines was 73 years old at the time of her death, and was an old pioneer in the state, having crossed the plains with her family in 1845, after which she lived in Yamhill county till about ten years ago, since which time she had lived with her children, most of this period with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Curry, of Grant's Pass, at whose home she died. She leaves, besides her brother in Barlow, two sons in business in California, and two daughters, Mrs. Curry and Mrs. William Reinhart, of Seattle.

William Barlow, of Barlow, was in this city Wednesday making arrangements for the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Gaines, who died at Grant's Pass that morning. The funeral will be at the Baptist church in this city Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements were made to hold the funeral on Thursday morning but the overland train was twelve hours late at Ashland which made it out of the question to set a hour for the funeral service on Thursday so it was postponed till Friday. Mrs. Gaines was 73 years old at the time of her death, and was an old pioneer in the state, having crossed the plains with her family in 1845, after which she lived in Yamhill county till about ten years ago, since which time she had lived with her children, most of this period with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Curry, of Grant's Pass, at whose home she died. She leaves, besides her brother in Barlow, two sons in business in California, and two daughters, Mrs. Curry and Mrs. William Reinhart, of Seattle.

William Barlow, of Barlow, was in this city Wednesday making arrangements for the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Gaines, who died at Grant's Pass that morning. The funeral will be at the Baptist church in this city Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements were made to hold the funeral on Thursday morning but the overland train was twelve hours late at Ashland which made it out of the question to set a hour for the funeral service on Thursday so it was postponed till Friday. Mrs. Gaines was 73 years old at the time of her death, and was an old pioneer in the state, having crossed the plains with her family in 1845, after which she lived in Yamhill county till about ten years ago, since which time she had lived with her children, most of this period with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Curry, of Grant's Pass, at whose home she died. She leaves, besides her brother in Barlow, two sons in business in California, and two daughters, Mrs. Curry and Mrs. William Reinhart, of Seattle.

William Barlow, of Barlow, was in this city Wednesday making arrangements for the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Gaines, who died at Grant's Pass that morning. The funeral will be at the Baptist church in this city Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements were made to hold the funeral on Thursday morning but the overland train was twelve hours late at Ashland which made it out of the question to set a hour for the funeral service on Thursday so it was postponed till Friday. Mrs. Gaines was 73 years old at the time of her death, and was an old pioneer in the state, having crossed the plains with her family in 1845, after which she lived in Yamhill county till about ten years ago, since which time she had lived with her children, most of this period with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Curry, of Grant's Pass, at whose home she died. She leaves, besides her brother in Barlow, two sons in business in California, and two daughters, Mrs. Curry and Mrs. William Reinhart, of Seattle.

William Barlow, of Barlow, was in this city Wednesday making arrangements for the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Gaines, who died at Grant's Pass that morning. The funeral will be at the Baptist church in this city Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements were made to hold the funeral on Thursday morning but the overland train was twelve hours late at Ashland which made it out of the question to set a hour for the funeral service on Thursday so it was postponed till Friday. Mrs. Gaines was 73 years old at the time of her death, and was an old pioneer in the state, having crossed the plains with her family in 1845, after which she lived in Yamhill county till about ten years ago, since which time she had lived with her children, most of this period with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Curry, of Grant's Pass, at whose home she died. She leaves, besides her brother in Barlow, two sons in business in California, and two daughters, Mrs. Curry and Mrs. William Reinhart, of Seattle.

William Barlow, of Barlow, was in this city Wednesday making arrangements for the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Gaines, who died at Grant's Pass that morning. The funeral will be at the Baptist church in this city Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements were made to hold the funeral on Thursday morning but the overland train was twelve hours late at Ashland which made it out of the question to set a hour for the funeral service on Thursday so it was postponed till Friday. Mrs. Gaines was 73 years old at the time of her death, and was an old pioneer in the state, having crossed the plains with her family in 1845, after which she lived in Yamhill county till about ten years ago, since which time she had lived with her children, most of this period with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Curry, of Grant's Pass, at whose home she died. She leaves, besides her brother in Barlow, two sons in business in California, and two daughters, Mrs. Curry and Mrs. William Reinhart, of Seattle.

William Barlow, of Barlow, was in this city Wednesday making arrangements for the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Gaines, who died at Grant's Pass that morning. The funeral will be at the Baptist church in this city Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements were made to hold the funeral on Thursday morning but the overland train was twelve hours late at Ashland which made it out of the question to set a hour for the funeral service on Thursday so it was postponed till Friday. Mrs. Gaines was 73 years old at the time of her death, and was an old pioneer in the state, having crossed the plains with her family in 1845, after which she lived in Yamhill county till about ten years ago, since which time she had lived with her children, most of this period with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Curry, of Grant's Pass, at whose home she died. She leaves, besides her brother in Barlow, two sons in business in California, and two daughters, Mrs. Curry and Mrs. William Reinhart, of Seattle.

William Barlow, of Barlow, was in this city Wednesday making arrangements for the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Gaines, who died at Grant's Pass that morning. The funeral will be at the Baptist church in this city Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements were made to hold the funeral on Thursday morning but the overland train was twelve hours late at Ashland which made it out of the question to set a hour for the funeral service on Thursday so it was postponed till Friday. Mrs. Gaines was 73 years old at the time of her death, and was an old pioneer in the state, having crossed the plains with her family in 1845, after which she lived in Yamhill county till about ten years ago, since which time she had lived with her children, most of this period with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Curry, of Grant's Pass, at whose home she died. She leaves, besides her brother in Barlow, two sons in business in California, and two daughters, Mrs. Curry and Mrs. William Reinhart, of Seattle.

William Barlow, of Barlow, was in this city Wednesday making arrangements for the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Gaines, who died at Grant's Pass that morning. The funeral will be at the Baptist church in this city Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements were made to hold the funeral on Thursday morning but the overland train was twelve hours late at Ashland which made it out of the question to set a hour for the funeral service on Thursday so it was postponed till Friday. Mrs. Gaines was 73 years old at the time of her death, and was an old pioneer in the state, having crossed the plains with her family in 1845, after which she lived in Yamhill county till about ten years ago, since which time she had lived with her children, most of this period with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Curry, of Grant's Pass, at whose home she died. She leaves, besides her brother in Barlow, two sons in business in California, and two daughters, Mrs. Curry and Mrs. William Reinhart, of Seattle.

William Barlow, of Barlow, was in this city Wednesday making arrangements for the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Gaines, who died at Grant's Pass that morning. The funeral will be at the Baptist church in this city Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements were made to hold the funeral on Thursday morning but the overland train was twelve hours late at Ashland which made it out of the question to set a hour for the funeral service on Thursday so it was postponed till Friday. Mrs. Gaines was 73 years old at the time of her death, and was an old pioneer in the state, having crossed the plains with her family in 1845, after which she lived in Yamhill county till about ten years ago, since which time she had lived with her children, most of this period with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Curry, of Grant's Pass, at whose home she died. She leaves, besides her brother in Barlow, two sons in business in California, and two daughters, Mrs. Curry and Mrs. William Reinhart, of Seattle.

William Barlow, of Barlow, was in this city Wednesday making arrangements for the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Gaines, who died at Grant's Pass that morning. The funeral will be at the Baptist church in this city Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements were made to hold the funeral on Thursday morning but the overland train was twelve hours late at Ashland which made it out of the question to set a hour for the funeral service on Thursday so it was postponed till Friday. Mrs. Gaines was 73 years old at the time of her death, and was an old pioneer in the state, having crossed the plains with her family in 1845, after which she lived in Yamhill county till about ten years ago, since which time she had lived with her children, most of this period with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Curry, of Grant's Pass, at whose home she died. She leaves, besides her brother in Barlow, two sons in business in California, and two daughters, Mrs. Curry and Mrs. William Reinhart, of Seattle.

William Barlow, of Barlow, was in this city Wednesday making arrangements for the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Gaines, who died at Grant's Pass that morning. The funeral will be at the Baptist church in this city Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements were made to hold the funeral on Thursday morning but the overland train was twelve hours late at Ashland which made it out of the question to set a hour for the funeral service on Thursday so it was postponed till Friday. Mrs. Gaines was 73 years old at the time of her death, and was an old pioneer in the state, having crossed the plains with her family in 1845, after which she lived in Yamhill county till about ten years ago, since which time she had lived with her children, most of this period with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Curry, of Grant's Pass, at whose home she died. She leaves, besides her brother in Barlow, two sons in business in California, and two daughters, Mrs. Curry and Mrs. William Reinhart, of Seattle.

William Barlow, of Barlow, was in this city Wednesday making arrangements for the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Gaines, who died at Grant's Pass that morning. The funeral will be at the Baptist church in this city Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements were made to hold the funeral on Thursday morning but the overland train was twelve hours late at Ashland which made it out of the question to set a hour for the funeral service on Thursday so it was postponed till Friday. Mrs. Gaines was 73 years old at the time of her death, and was an old pioneer in the state, having crossed the plains with her family in 1845, after which she lived in Yamhill county till about ten years ago, since which time she had lived with her children, most of this period with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Curry, of Grant's Pass, at whose home she died. She leaves, besides her brother in Barlow, two sons in business in California, and two daughters, Mrs. Curry and Mrs. William Reinhart, of Seattle.

William Barlow, of Barlow, was in this city Wednesday making arrangements for the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Gaines, who died at Grant's Pass that morning. The funeral will be at the Baptist church in this city Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements were made to hold the funeral on Thursday morning but the overland train was twelve hours late at Ashland which made it out of the question to set a hour for the funeral service on Thursday so it was postponed till Friday. Mrs. Gaines was 73 years old at the time of her death, and was an old pioneer in the state, having crossed the plains with her family in 1845, after which she lived in Yamhill county till about ten years ago, since which time she had lived with her children, most of this period with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Curry, of Grant's Pass, at whose home she died. She leaves, besides her brother in Barlow, two sons in business in California, and two daughters, Mrs. Curry and Mrs. William Reinhart, of Seattle.

William Barlow, of Barlow, was in this city Wednesday making arrangements for the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Gaines, who died at Grant's Pass that morning. The funeral will be at the Baptist church in this city Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements were made to hold the funeral on Thursday morning but the overland train was twelve hours late at Ashland which made it out of the question to set a hour for the funeral service on Thursday so it was postponed till Friday. Mrs. Gaines was 73 years old at the time of her death, and was an old pioneer in the state, having crossed the plains with her family in 1845, after which she lived in Yamhill county till about ten years ago, since which time she had lived with her children, most of this period with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Curry, of Grant's Pass, at whose home she died. She leaves, besides her brother in Barlow, two sons in business in California, and two daughters, Mrs. Curry and Mrs. William Reinhart, of Seattle.

William Barlow, of Barlow, was in this city Wednesday making arrangements for the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Sarah Gaines, who died at Grant's Pass that morning. The funeral will be at the Baptist church in this city Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Arrangements were made to hold the funeral on Thursday morning but the overland train was twelve hours late at Ashland which made it out of the question to set a hour for the funeral service on Thursday so it was postponed till Friday. Mrs. Gaines was 73 years old at the time of her death, and was an old pioneer in the state, having crossed the plains with her family in 1845, after which she lived in Yamhill county till about ten years ago, since which time she had lived with her children, most of this period with her daughter, Mrs. George B. Curry, of Grant's Pass, at whose home she died. She leaves, besides her brother in Barlow, two sons in business in California, and two daughters, Mrs. Curry and Mrs. William Reinhart, of Seattle.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

State of Oregon, County of Clackamas, ss. Notice is hereby given, that in pursuance of an order of sale issued out of and under the seal of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Clackamas, dated the 25th day of July, 1894, and to me directed and delivered as sheriff of said county, pursuant to a decree of said court, in a suit in equity, wherein V. O. Harding is plaintiff and Henry Omega and Laura Omega are defendants, and commanding me to make sale according to law of the land and premises hereinafter described, in order to make the sum of one thousand six hundred dollars, together with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum since the 23rd of April, 1890, and for the further sum of one hundred and fifty dollars attorney's fee, and for the further sum of $23.25, and that said sums bear interest from date of decree at the rate of ten per cent per annum until paid, and for costs and disbursements.

Now in order to satisfy said amount I will, on Saturday, the 15th day of August, 1894, at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m. of said day, at the court house door in Oregon City, Clackamas county, state of Oregon, proceed to sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand, the following described tract of land situated in said Clackamas county state of Oregon, to wit: The south-west quarter (S. W. 1/4) section 12, township 32 S., range 10 E., of the 1st Meridian, containing 160 acres, more or less, and to satisfy the same decreeing cost.

By J. H. HORTON, Sheriff of Clackamas county, state of Oregon.

State of Oregon, County of Clackamas, ss. Notice is hereby given, that in pursuance of an order of sale issued out of and under the seal of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Clackamas, dated the 11th day of June, 1894, in a suit wherein S. E. Green was plaintiff and M. O. Gard and C. Gard his wife, defendants.

State of Oregon, county of Clackamas, ss. Notice is hereby given, that by virtue of an execution and order of sale issued out of the circuit court of the state of Oregon for the county of Clackamas, bearing date the 11th day of June, 1894, in a suit wherein S. E. Green was plaintiff and M. O. Gard and C. Gard his wife were defendants, commanding me, in the name of the State of Oregon, that out of the real estate hereinbefore described, to realize a sum sufficient to satisfy the demands of said decree, to wit: $21.25, and the further sum