A JUST PENALTY.

Santo, Assassin of President Carnot Guiltined.

THAT DRAGGING ORIENTAL WAR.

Only One Minor Engagement Occurs to Break the Serene Equanimity of the Combatants.

LYONS, Aug. 16.—The republic of France avenged the death of her beloved president at 5 o'clock this (Thursday) morning at which hour Santo was guillotined in the public square. With the cry of "Vive l'anarchie" on his lips, the head of the trembling assassin was severed from his body by the keen blade, and another anarchist had died for a mistaken cause. There were no unusual demonstrations attending the execution.

Another Naval Engagement.

LONDON, Aug. 12.—The Times tomorrow will publish a dispatch from Tien Tsin confirming the press dispatches of the attack by the Japanese fleet upon the Chinese port at Wei-Hai-Wei and its repulse. A dispatch from Shanghai says that the Chinese official report of the engagement states that only 50 shots were exchanged between the Japanese warship and the forts. The report adds that one of the Japanese ships was hit three times and another one once. The fire of the warships did no damage to the forts. The Japanese squadron consisted of twenty vessels. It is not definitely known how many of the fleet were men-of-war. The warships drew up in line of battle off the portside and opened fire early Friday morning. There were no Chinese warships in the vicinity, and the engagement was entirely between the Japanese men-of-war and the forts. The whereabouts of the Chinese fleet was unknown. The forts, however, were able, without much difficulty, to repulse the attack. About 50 shots were exchanged, but no material damage was done on either side. The soldiers manning the guns of the fortifications showed themselves to be lamentably deficient in marksmanship. Most of their shots were ill-directed, the shells either falling short of the vessels aimed at, or going wide of the mark. When the fleet withdrew it went to Fort Arthur, which place it attacked Friday evening. Little, if any, damage was done. The operations are not regarded as having been attempts to conquer Wei-Hai-Wei or Fort Arthur, but simply ruses on the part of the Japanese commander to ascertain the exact position and strength of the Chinese guns at the two places. Thursday last two small gunboats were sighted going at full speed in the direction of Tien Tsin.

Murder At Roseburg.

ROSEBURG, Or., Aug. 13.—About 3 P. M. today at Oakland, Or., Fred Kincaid, about 21 years of age, was shot and killed by Sam Brown, about the same age. Kincaid was engaged in tearing down a building about a half a block from his home, and Brown had sent a small brother of Kincaid's to him several times for him to come home as he wanted to see him. Kincaid being busy said he would not go, but the last time the boy said Brown was going away and wanted to see him. Kincaid left his work and started on the street. He had gone a short distance when he met Brown. When within six feet, Brown pulled an American bull-dog pistol from his pocket and shot Kincaid in the left breast. Kincaid turned and ran into a blacksmith shop, Brown firing two more shots without effect. Kincaid was assisted to his house about seventy-five feet away where he died within ten minutes after being shot. Brown hailed from Bandon, Or., having been employed on the farm of Fen Southerlin, near Oakland for over a year. It seems they have been paying attention to a Miss Mattoon. Brown had an examination before Justice Evington, who committed him to the county jail. He was brought to Roseburg tonight and now occupies a cell in the county jail.

Train Wreckers Held.

WOODLAND, Cal., Aug. 13.—At 1 o'clock today Judge Fisher rendered a decision in the train-wrecking case. He refused to allow the motion of dismissal, and said the evidence warranted the holding of all five defendants to appear before the superior court. Mrs. Knox was visibly affected by the judge's decision, and cried bitterly during the course of the judge's remarks. The case is postponed until the 21st ult., when the defense will begin its testimony. Over 350 witnesses have been subpoenaed.

Of Interest to Wheelmen.

DENVER, Aug. 12.—The relay riders reached the city at 10:37 P. M. The time consumed in carrying the message from Washington to this city, a distance of 2037 miles, was 6 days, 10 hours and 37 minutes, a gain of 37 hours and 23 minutes over the schedule time. Geo.

M. McCarthy was the last rider. At Sand Creek he took the message and covered the necessary five miles in the dark in the remarkable time of 20 minutes. A. D. Black took the bag from him and delivered to Governor Waite the message from President Cleveland, and to General McCook one from General Greeley. Both recipients immediately telegraphed, acknowledging the receipts, and Governor Waite made a speech that suited his hearers. The streets were thronged with people, and as McCarthy sped down Arapahoe street into Sixteenth and up to the courthouse, a mighty shout encouraged him in his final efforts. All wheelmen are talking of the remarkable time made and congratulating the riders who have done such good work.

From One of the Stars.

OTTAWA, Ontario, Aug. 6.—Professor Ezekiel Wiggins, the weather prophet, concurs the opinion expressed in some quarters that the bright projections on Mars, seen by M. Javelle at the Nice Observatory on July 28th, is a signal from the Marsians to the people of the earth. He said: There is the best scientific evidence to prove that man is a native of Mars and lived millions of years before he was transplanted to earth, leaving the greater part of the human family behind. The Marsians regard us as their lost brethren and have been searching for us for thousands of years. They have been especially hopeful since they saw the electric light in our cities. We will be able to converse with them by signals before another century passes.

"It is much easier for the Marsians to see our signals than for us to see theirs, for the earth appears to them to wax and wane like the moon, so that they can easily see lights on our dark hemisphere, while their plane always has its light side toward us."

Evicting in Pullman.

CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—Mr. Pullman has decided to evict his striking tenants. He made up his mind yesterday. The legal papers which must be served on the strikers as a preliminary to setting their goods into the street, were understood to be in course of preparation. The reason given for evicting the strikers is that the houses are needed by the new workmen who have taken the places of the strikers. About 1500 strikers are tenants of the Pullman company. Most of them are men with large families. Few, if any of them, have paid a dollar of rent since the strike was declared.

Forest Fires Raging in Michigan.

NEGAUNEE, Mich., Aug. 12.—The forest fires, checked by the rains for two weeks, are again growing serious in the western portion of the upper peninsula of Michigan. The fires are causing great injury to the standing timber and the logs, poles and ties cut. Only a good rain can prevent the wiping out of a number of settlements in the next few days. The worst fires are in Gogebic and Ontonagon counties, covering a wide district.

Fording the Mississippi

ALTON, Ill., Aug. 3.—Calhoun county, a long, narrow strip of rich agricultural land between the Mississippi and Illinois rivers, is cut off from the world by the lowness of the water. It has no railroad communications, and boats cannot reach it. A horseman forded the Mississippi Saturday without getting his saddle wet. The oldest inhabitant never heard of the like. One light-draft steamer still touches from the Mississippi river side, but only hand ferries can cross the Illinois.

Gold Production in Montana.

HELENA, Mont., Aug. 12.—The receipts of gold bullion at the United States assay office at Helena during the past week amounted to $120,088. This is the largest week's business in the history of the office, not only in amount, but in the number of bars melted and assayed, 130 being handled.

A Washington Judge Drowned.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Aug. 12.—The Hon. E. A. Wiswell, judge of the superior court of this district was drowned at Clatsop beach today while bathing in the surf. The body has not yet been recovered.

Chinese Treaty Approved.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—The senate in the executive session approved the Chinese treaty.

McKees Rocks, Pa., Feb. 3, 1892.

Senate Tariff Bill With Its 634 Amendments Lays Over Wilson's Little Bill.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—The long struggle over the tariff bill came to a close at 6 o'clock this evening, when the house by a vote of 162 to 105 decided to discharge the house conferees from further consideration of the bill, receded from its opposition to the 634 senate amendments and agreed to the same. It was a complete victory for the senate. The house made an absolute surrender. The result grew directly out of the sensational course of events at the senate end of the capitol, precipitated by Senator Hill Friday. Up to that time the house conferees had stood firmly against the senate amendments, especially on the three disputed schedules—coal, iron ore and sugar—and the temper and voice of the house was for war to the end. But the indications that the democrats of the senate might be able to longer hold a majority of voters in line for the senate bill and the bill be thus placed in jeopardy forced the house democrats to immediate action. The democratic conferees of the house at last admitted they were beaten, and another vote could not be risked in the senate. It must be the senate bill or no bill. The whole question was precipitated with the caucus held just before the house convened today, at which, after a thorough review of the situation, and speeches in favor of receding by Speaker Crisp, Chairman Wilson and others, it was decided to take the senate bill and afterwards pass separate bills placing coal, iron ore, sugar and barb wire on the free list, and by so doing, place the house on record, and, at least, partially overcome the humiliation involved in its defeat. The program arranged in the caucus was carried out to the letter in the house after a special order.

The scenes in the chamber throughout the day and evening were exciting, and at times sensational. The galleries were packed, and the members applauded and cheered their respective leaders to the echo. Under the terms of the order only two hours were allowed for debate on the main proposition to recede from and agree to the senate amendments to the tariff bill. A parliamentary skirmish preceded the pitched battle, but the points of order raised by the republicans were swept aside. The speaker ruled the house with an iron hand. The principal speeches for and against the main proposition were made by Wilson and Crisp, on the one hand and ex-speaker Reed and Burroughs on the other. There was no time for preparing, and all the speeches were hot from the forge of the brain and were greeted with rounds of cheers and applause. Bourke Cockran of New York, and Tarnsey of Missouri, both democratic members of the ways and means committee, delivered scathing and sensational speeches denouncing the surrender of the house as cowardly and indefensible. The speaker replied to Cochran, whose effort was a brilliant one, with such temper that the latter took it as a personal affront, although the speaker disclaimed such intention, and made a vicious lunge at Speaker Crisp.

There was no attempt on the part of the democratic leaders to claim a victory. All admitted they were accepting the inevitable, justifying their action on the ground that the senate bill was better than the McKinley law. The most startling feature of the day, perhaps, was Mr. Cockran's eloquent appeal to Chairman Wilson to name the democrats in the senate who threatened the defeat of all tariff legislation if the attempt to adjust differences between the two houses was persisted in, but Wilson made no response.

When the vote came to be taken at 6 o'clock, 13 democrats, Moses, of Georgia; Bartlett, Cockran, Hendrix, Dunphy and Covert, of New York; Davy, Meyer, and Price, of Louisiana; Everett, of Massachusetts; Gorman, of Michigan; Johnson, of Ohio; and Tarnsey, of Missouri, voted with the republicans against the resolution. The democrats then put through, one after another, what the republicans described as the popgun bills, placing coal iron ore, sugar and barb-wire on the free list, and which, in the debate, they maintained would be proposed only to go to death in the senate.

Pullman Employees Retaining.

CHICAGO, Aug. 13.—The gates of the Pullman Company's plant were besieged this morning by a host of striking employees seeking work. At nine o'clock the foreman found he had 1788 men. All the old employees will get their places back until a full quota is at work.
