Sandy Farmers Rejoice in Good Crop Prospects—Campers from Sandy to Mt. Hood—Local Doings.

SANDY, Aug. 10.—A great many people have passed through here the last few weeks to secure cool spots in the mountains for the benefit of their health. The travel to the mountain this year has been the largest ever known from Sandy. In some cool place or by a pleasant creek dozens of camps are pitched.

Harvesting is in full blast and the hum of the self-binder and reaper can be heard from morn till night. The farmers are jubilant and happy over their grain crop which promises to be the best ever known in this section.

Considerable complaint of sickness is being made by people of this place. Mr. Gantendine's family is down with what is supposed to be whooping cough.

Mrs. Mary Minch, who was a terrible sufferer from a cancer for a month, died Sunday evening at ten o'clock. The body was brought out from the Portland hospital and buried in the Sandy Ridge cemetery last Wednesday. She leaves four small children to mourn their loss. They are now without parents and home.

The Sandy Ridge Sunday school held a picnic last week which was attended by a large crowd. All had a pleasant time.

At the last meeting of the Presbyterian church society it was decided that a church will be built at once, and an acre of ground was purchased on which to erect the building one-fourth of a mile east of town. Herman Bruns and Henry Cook were elected trustees. These gentlemen will at once make preparation for building.

J. R. Duncan is building an addition to his house.

Nels Nelson is busy building a big frame barn.

H. Bruns has several carpenters and a plasterer at work on his house.

F. A. Meinig is busy at work laying the concrete foundation for his new residence.

A large crowd of young folks of Sandy spent a pleasant and enjoyable time at the picnic at Currinsville on the 11th.

The people of Pleasant Home are making great preparations at their park for the seventh annual reunion of veterans and sons of veterans which is to be held August 18. All are cordially invited. Come one, come all, and enjoy yourselves with our patriots.

Sandy people are making arrangements to attend the reunion at Pleasant Home.

Smyna Smacks.

SMYNA, August 13.—Rev. E. B. Hughes filled his first regular appointment at the Congregational church yesterday at 11 a. m.

W. H. Yoder has his brick kiln well under way. He has been firing since Thursday last.

Yoder & Schwartz started their steam thrasher the last of the week. Grain is not turning out as well as last year.

S. W. Hardesty and his daughters, Edith and Mabel, attended services at Smyna yesterday morning and visited in the neighborhood during the day.

Several minor accidents happened in the neighborhood last Sunday. In the morning Miss Mabel Schwartz and Etta Wyland, while on their way to Sunday school, managed to upset their cart, throwing both girls into the dust. Aside from slight bruises and dusty clothes no damage was done.

While Mr. Wyland's family were on their way home from church three boys standing in the back end of the wagon were thrown out backwards. John Fortune had the misfortune to strike on the back of his head, rendering him unconscious for several hours. The other boys fell on John and escaped injury.

Sam Smith and his son Fred have their hop house about completed. Wm. Thompson also has a hop house under way on what is known as the Dolshag farm.

We hear talk of a new school house in the Samson (No. 6) district. It is badly needed. Our saw mill is running full time again, but with an all around reduction in wages, lumber and price of custom sawing.

Rev. McLain, of Clarks, preached to a large and attentive audience at the church on Sunday evening.

Fred Watson and son Jim are up in Polk county working with a threshing outfit.

Beaver Creek Breezes.

BEAVER CREEK, Aug. 13.—The people are returning from the coast. Miss Rowan returned from Newport on the 4th and Messrs. Davis and Harris with their families from Little Nestucca on the 6th inst. All report a good time.

A gentleman by the name of Imel has been employed to teach the Beaver Creek school.

Robert Gouther will teach the Upper Logan school the coming winter.

There were no services at the First Presbyterian church at this place yesterday. Rev. McKinley, the pastor, with his family is enjoying a couple of week's outing at Mt. Hood.

Some of the people of this community are talking of going to the mountains for huckleberries.

Molalla Mustings.

MOLALLA, Aug. 11.—The forenoon August fog has appeared.

The Steel Range company is doing business in this locality.

Herman Brothers rolled out their threshing machine today.

J. V. Harless has moved into his new residence on Triangular Eminence.

New road work west of this place has given the place much of an enterprising appearance.

W. A. Shaver had a barn raising last Friday.

Teasel harvest is under headway at A. J. Sawtell's.

John D. Jordan's hop house is nearing completion.

Mrs. Lily Scott, of Woodburn is visiting relatives here.

Grain is turning out light. Ho! for the huckleberry patch.

HOOD VIEW.

Interesting Neighborhood Notes—Good Crops Being Harvested.

HOOD VIEW, Aug. 13.—Born, August 8, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Seely, a ten pound boy. Farmers in our midst are busy cutting grain and harvesting is generally under good headway.

Miss Crockett, of Portland, is spending a few days with the Misses Moore.

Mrs. L. B. Brown, Mrs. Geo. B. Seely, and Mrs. Barber are on our sick list this week.

Mrs. Denny Bell of Newberg lately spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Brown.

John Bulson made a flying trip to the metropolis Saturday.

Mr. Sapp has fitted up his two new hop dryers with two stoves each.

Mrs. C. O. Davis and two children are on their farm for a summer's vacation.

Prof. W. W. Grahams intends spending the coming week at Soda Springs.

Prof. Yorkick, lately from the East, and Miss Brown of the Salem university, have just returned home after a two weeks' visit at Graham's Ferry. They were delighted with the country here.

Hops and hop pickers are in abundance in this neighborhood and picking time will soon be at hand.

Willsburg Whispers

(Crowded out last week)

WILLSBURG, Aug. 9.—W. A. Campbell and family will start for Mt. Hood with a party from Sherwood next Monday.

A. N. Willis is hauling lumber for a new house on his ranch six miles above Baker's bridge on the Clackamas.

Mr. Buchegger and family came home from the mountains last Monday.

W. S. Kerns and family have gone to the coast to stay three weeks.

Lee Willis was down from Eagle Creek last week. He reports crops looking fine.

Good fishing in Johnson Creek. Mr. McGuire had better come and try his luck. Suckers and crawfish are plentiful. Bring some salt.

John Storan has gone East with his family. They will stay three or four weeks.

WILLSBURG, Aug. 14.—The burg has been overstocked with tramps and thieves the past week. Sunday morning at 4:30 Mrs. Buchegger heard a noise outside, and looking through a window she saw some one near the chicken house. She woke her husband who gave chase. The burglar ran around the block owned by John Storan, where he dropped his sack which contained two chickens. At this moment two other men ran from Storan's place. It is not known what they got as Mr. Storan is at the coast. Mr. Carlson's place and several others were visited during the week. Last Saturday night some one went into Mr. Shriner's woodshed and stole a new pair of shoes and a pair of pants, and also helped himself from the garden patch.

A. N. Willis and wife went up to their ranch last Sunday to camp two weeks.

The new church building will soon be finished, as the Winkey Bros. are putting on the finishing touches.

Mount Pleasant Pointers.

MOUNT PLEASANT, Aug. 13.—Arthur Russell is beside the sea.

Miss Ednetta Chase, of Oregon City, has been engaged to teach the coming term of school.

A. S. Lawton is able to be around again, although sadly changed in personal appearance.

Miss Ada Hughes will leave us about the first of October to take charge of the school at Canyon Creek. We wish her success.

McArthur Bros. are in the neighborhood with their steam threshing machine doing good work. Messrs. Williams, Lawton, Johnson, John and Benj. Hendrickson report good yields.

Mrs. Will McCord's surviving twin, Ruby, has been very ill with whooping cough and malaria. The physician advises ocean breezes for the little patient. Mrs. McCord intends testing the efficacy of the prescription by taking the little girl to Nestucca.

The grain is almost garnered, and as it is now not modest for Ruth, to glean the stubble fields it will be rather dull, especially since the heirs of the butterfly have perpetrated such a rare joke on the bounteous springtime blossoms. There is something wistful in these blessed August days, that hint of the phantom of years long past coming down the glory of the autumn leaves. Glorified mother earth! your children, the forest trees, will soon strew at your feet the clothes you lavished upon them with April showers.

Boring's Breezes.

BORINGS, Aug. 13.—Threshing machines have commenced to run. Three are in Damascus now.

Most of the farmers in the vicinity of Damascus have not got their oats cut yet. The oats in this part have got lots of the aphid on them, but they do not seem to be doing much harm.

Mrs. Hickey had the misfortune to break her left wrist last Monday. They took her down to Clackamas for surgical treatment and she has not come back yet.

Mr. Shirley, a merchant of Pleasant Home, was drowned while over to the coast. A party were fishing in Slab creek and were not paying much attention when the tide was coming in and in attempting to cross the creek he was drowned. His body was taken back to Bloomington, Illinois.

Albert Richey had a runaway the other day, but it did not do any damage.

Springwater Shavings.

SPRINGWATER, Aug. 14.—Farmers are most through cutting wheat and are ready to begin cutting oats. They will begin stacking soon.

Rev. E. Sylvanus and family returned from the Willhoit Springs on the 7th.

Quite a number from Springwater attended the picnic at Currinsville on Saturday last.

Mrs. Sanson and little girl, of Portland, are visiting with her sister, Mrs. Annie Lacey.

K. Hargreaves and family are visiting relatives in Oregon City and Gervais.

An artist from Silverton is camped at W. J. Lewellen's store, and is taking some fine photographs.

REDLAND RUMBLINGS.

First of the Threshing Indicates Light Yield—Neighborhood Improvements.

REDLAND, Aug. 13.—Harvesting is in full blast in this section.

John Richardson has bought a steam engine to run his thrasher, and yesterday he commenced threshing, beginning with Cohn & Dillar's wheat, threshing over 500 bushels in a little over a half a day. The wheat is turning out lighter than was expected.

Campbell & Kelly have also bought a steam engine to run their thrasher.

Justice Funk had his first case last Monday, it being an action to recover money.

Misses Mattie and Mina Hoyt, of University Park, Portland, are visiting Mrs. Wm. Johnson, and last Thursday the neighbors gathered in to give the young ladies a surprise. A very pleasant evening was spent.

W. H. Dempster returned a week or two since from Amity, and yesterday he left for Eastern Oregon with L. Shank.

W. D. Berkey has been carpentering, having recently re-roofed, built on porches, and otherwise improved John Williams's house; also built a granary for A. T. Plowman.

Mr. Berkey has the contract for building a fine house for S. Krocetsky this summer. Many others are making extensive improvements on dwellings and barns.

Miss Anna Hickenbotham has just returned from a visit to relatives at Molalla.

Cottrell Conings.

COTTERELL, Aug. 13.—L. Shirley, who keeps store at the cross roads below this place at Pleasant Home, met with a sad fate on the evening of the 7th. He, with his wife and child, went on a pleasure trip to the coast for a month. They started from Pleasant Home July 30. The party were in high spirits, animated with the anticipated pleasure of the trip. Mr. Shirley, in company with his uncle C. Hedge, of Zionsville, in Multnomah county, was coming in from a day's fishing. They were driving in a buggy and came to Slab creek. It looking so clear they drove in, not thinking there was any danger. But alas, the horse went over the edge of a rock that was concealed in the water, throwing both men out. Mr. Shirley was an expert swimmer but got entangled in his fish line and drowned in ten feet of water, while Mr. Hedge, who could not swim, made use of the buggy cushion which floated to him and got out. Mr. Shirley's remains were sent to his parents who live in Lebanon, Indiana. His wife and uncle accompanied the remains over the Union Pacific.

P. B. Newman and wife, who have been visiting his brother at this place, started for Cal., on the 13th of this month, where he will visit his uncle for a short time and then return to his home and friends in Iowa.

Mr. Hangelman, who had his knee thrown out of place about three weeks ago, is able to be up and around again.

Damascus Dots.

DAMASCUS, Aug. 11.—The whistles of the numerous threshing machines can be heard in every direction. The grain in this section turns out to be more injured by the aphid than was expected. The Douglas & Seifer machine intends to go up in the Eagle Creek country the last of this week.

J. R. Morton is building a rock cellar. It is to be 14x16 feet.

Mrs. A. Bohna has been very sick since she returned from the mountains, but is now slowly improving.

Mrs. Houk has gone to Butteville to visit friends and relatives.

Born, August 7th, to the wife of H. Breithaupt, a son.

The Deep Creek club met the Damascus club last Sunday to play a match game of base ball. The Fiddler's Green boys were most decidedly "not in it," the score standing twenty-three to six.

John Johnson is getting the timber on the ground for a new house on his ranch.
