

REDLAND RAMBLINGS.

Runaway Causes a Serious Accident—School Commenced—Huckleberry Pickers Return.

REDLAND, Sept. 20.—Miss Helen Taylor commenced teaching our school, district No. 75, last week, with a large attendance of pupils.

J. D. Wood, who taught nine months in our neighborhood last winter, writes that he is teaching at Roseburg.

We are sorry to record that an almost fatal runaway accident befell B. E. Sprague while he was returning from Oregon City last Sunday evening. His team ran away, upsetting the wagon and injuring him so severely that he lay unconscious in the road all night. In the morning Mr. Myers happened along and found him. He was taken to a residence near by and Drs. Carl and Paine called, who found that Mr. Sprague's spine was injured and his lower limbs paralyzed. He was taken to his home today and at this writing he is resting as comfortably as could be expected.

Harvey Matton is again very sick with one of his old attacks of heart trouble. Mrs. W. H. Dempster has been very sick but is now recovering.

Wm. Dempster and L. Shank returned last Saturday from their trading trip in Eastern Oregon. They report a very successful trip, and found money more plentiful in The Dalles country than here. They also state that work is plentiful up there and wages good.

Louis Funk wears a very smiling face and appears to be several inches taller lately. It's a son of standard weight.

Mr. Kreecheky is having a neat dwelling fixed up by Wm. Berkey.

The huckleberry pickers have mostly come home as it is getting rather unpleasantly suggestive of winter out in the mountains.

Miss Mattie Dempster attended to the postoffice during the postmaster's recent absence, and she deserves credit for the careful and efficient manner in which she performed her duties.

Logan Locks.

LOGAN, Sept. 23.—Mrs. John Schuttel, who has been visiting her daughter in Portland, has returned home.

Mr. Schuttel's horse has recovered. He traded horses this week and thinks he got a bargain.

Fred Gerber has a sick horse.

The engine of the Tellison boys finished the threshing this week in this neighborhood.

Little Allen Hutchins burned his face this week while playing near some burning brush.

Mrs. Will Allen, of Barlow, and her little daughter Elsie, are visiting Mrs. M. W. Baker. She brought with her a fine bouquet of asters from the garden of Mrs. John W. Shattuck, of Gresham.

There was a pleasant dance at Barney Fallert's last night.

PEARL.

Sherwood Shots.

SHERWOOD, Sept. 24.—Sherwood has appeared almost deserted for the last three weeks, quite a number of people living in town having been out picking hops.

The hop crop in this vicinity was very good. Mr. Johnson harvested one hundred and fifty boxes per acre, and other yards near here turned out better than was expected.

Samuel Taylor met with quite a misfortune on the 19th while hauling a load of hops from the field to the dry room. He fell in front of the wagon, the forward wheel ran over him, breaking two of his ribs and otherwise injuring him internally. He is expected to recover, however.

There was a dance at Seneey's hall on Friday evening. A large number of young folks were present tripping to the strains of merry music until 2 o'clock a. m., after which all went to their respective homes with the satisfaction of having had a good time.

Clarkes Conings.

CLARKES, Sept. 24.—Last Friday at about 11 o'clock the woodshed at the school house was seen on fire, which resulted in the burning of the woodshed and seven cords of wood that was stored in it ready for winter use. A. Stout and H. Kleinsmith first discovered the fire and with hard work kept the school house from burning.

Monday evening as Captain Lyons was returning home from Oregon City he dropped dead in front of A. Fairclough's house. As he rode up he said he was very sick and asked for something to make him vomit. Mr. Fairclough got him some salt and water, but when he returned, Mr. Lyons was unable to drink it and soon expired. He has considerable property and was an old man without any family and lived alone. He was an Englishman by birth and was once a sea captain.

Mr. Grace and A. Fairclough returned last Friday from the huckleberry patch. They got about thirty gallons.

Jacob DeShazer, of Eagle Creek made a short call with his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Jewell, last Monday.

There was a grove meeting last Sunday near the school house with a large attendance. An excellent sermon was delivered.

A. D. E. Elmer began school today. This is his first attempt at teaching and we wish him success. He graduated at Monmouth last June.

Mrs. Wilson and family are visiting her cousin, G. W. Grace.

MT. PLEASANT, Sept. 24.—Archie McCord is home from Independence.

Miss Mollie Barclay, of Oregon City, has been visiting Miss Ada Hughes.

Mr. George and family have moved into Oregon City.

John Howland has had twenty-one tons of straw baled.

W. E. Johnson expects to leave for California shortly.

Arthur Warner, of Locust Farm, is shipping fruit grown on his mother's farm to Portland.

People are growing somewhat aggressive in regard to the fruit rights of property owners, so much so that Mrs. Warner was obliged to erect notices requesting unknown parties not to trespass upon her berry patch situated directly in front of Mr. Kidder's. In consideration of such request the intruders desisted just as they ought to do. Of course picking berries from a patch is only petty or petty larceny, still it is always wise for the lawmakers of society as it were to put down crime with a firm hand. In this way we keep all social features as pure as the snow day's gift, too it is an unpleasant thing to have a raspberry stain on one's soul.

Rev. H. I. Bitner began a protracted meeting here Tuesday evening which is well attended.

Mr. Hogenberger, who has been quite sick, is about well again.

His Honor Mayor Straight of Oregon City says: "Gladstone can't be beat for a superb residence location. The location is extremely healthy and easy of access.

Rev. Gilman Parker, pastor of the First Baptist church of Oregon City says: "After eighteen months residence in Gladstone I am thoroughly convinced of its desirableness as a place for a home. Its many points of excellence make it highly preferable to any place between Oregon City and Portland.
