THE CHAUTAUQUA.

ANOTHER GREAT EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTION.

Articles of Incorporation Prepared for Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association.

An important business meeting of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association was held in the county court room of the court house at Oregon City at 2 P. M., Tuesday of this week. Present, Robert A. Miller, chairman; Mrs. C. H. Dye, secretary; Rev. Thos. Van Scoy, Dean of Portland University. President C. H. Chapman, of the State University, Eugene, President P. L. Campbell, of the State Normal, Monmouth, Mrs. J. M. Bloss, of the State Agricultural college, Corvallis, Rev. E. A. Blair, of Portland, Mrs. Robert A. Miller, H. E. Cross, Dr. J. W. Cowan, Rev. Gilman Parker, Hon. S. Clarke, Salem, Capt. J. Apperson, Chas. H. Dye, and Charles Meserve. Meeting opened by Col. Miller with general remarks on object and purpose of the organization. Proposed that we incorporate under the laws of Oregon.

Remarks by Dr. Cowan in the same line. Prof. Van Scoy advised incorporation in the name of some prominent business men of Oregon City and Portland. Moved by Prof. Van Scoy that a committee of three be appointed to draft articles of incorporation; carried; chairman appointed Prof. Van Scoy, H. E. Cross and C. H. Dye; committee withdrew to draft articles of incorporation. During their absence the general subject was discussed. President Chapman, of Eugene, remarked at length on the value of these organizations to the community and to the state at large. Mrs. Bloss inquired as to the organizations throughout the state and was answered by Col. Miller and Mrs. Dye. Capt. Apperson discussed the financial problem. Pres. Chapman inquired about grounds, facilities, etc. Rev. Gilman Parker set forth the proposition of H. E. Cross at Gladstone, a ninety-nine year lease free of charge, provided the association would erect suitable buildings and look after grounds. Rev. E. A. Blair inquired as to incumbrances. There were none. A plan for 500 shares at $10 a share was discussed. Pres. Chapman suggested that with two branches of the organization one to look after the business, the other to conduct the literary exercises. Suggested that the business be centralized in three or four hands. Back of every successful Chautauqua there has been a real estate basis and a summer outing. The two combined with a Chautauqua school and lectures makes the permanent Chautauqua. The literary can do nothing without the business men to back them, the business men alone can not make a Chautauqua without the literary. This is the history of the great Chautauqua in New York and of every one since that has succeeded. The two make a strong combination. All the requirements are happily met here, provided the grounds are suitable. At this point the committee adjourned in a body to visit Gladstone. They returned at 6 P. M. with full endorsement and delighted with the situation.

The following articles of incorporation were read, discussed and voted on: Articles of Incorporation of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association, of Oregon. Know all men by these presents, That the undersigned, for the purpose of becoming a body corporate under the laws of the state of Oregon, do associate themselves together and adopt the following articles of incorporation, to-wit: First—The name of this corporation shall be "The Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association of Oregon."

Second—Its principal place of business shall be in the city of Oregon City, county of Clackamas, state of Oregon; it shall also have power to establish a branch office on the grounds owned or occupied by said corporation, for the transaction of such business as may be hereafter determined upon by its board of directors.

Third—This corporation is organized for the purpose of holding Chautauqua assemblies, and for the general promotion of religious, scientific and educational interests.

Fourth—It shall do business as soon as legally organized, and its existence shall be perpetual or until dissolved by a vote representing three-fourths of all capital stock then issued.

Fifth—It shall have all the powers of a body corporate given by the laws of the state of Oregon, including the right to hold real estate for the purposes of the corporation, and to receive the same by gift or otherwise, and to sell and transfer the same by deed, lease or other proper conveyance, to issue certificates of stock as herein provided, to incur indebtedness to the amount not exceeding one thousand dollars of its paid up capital, and to mortgage or pledge its real estate or personal property to secure payment thereof, and to perform such other acts as shall be consistent with the interests of the corporation.

The stock of this corporation, which shall be divided into one thousand shares of $5.00 each, shall be issued and distributed as follows, and no stockholder shall hold more than one hundred shares of stock at par value, and all shares of said stock shall be paid in full or in installments as may hereafter be designated in the by-laws, and when fully paid up shall be non-assessable.

Seventh—The number of its directors shall be nine, three of which shall be the president, vice president and secretary of the association, and shall be president, vice president and secretary of the board of directors ex-officio, who shall be elected annually from among the stockholders at the regular annual meeting of stockholders, and shall hold their offices until their successors are duly elected and enter upon the duties of their respective offices, which shall not be until the first Monday in September following their election.

Eighth—The officers of this corporation shall be president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, who shall be elected annually from among the stockholders at the regular annual meeting of the stockholders, and shall hold their respective offices until their successors are duly elected and enter upon the discharge of the duties of their respective offices, which shall not be until the first Monday in September following their election.

Ninth—This corporation shall not be subject to any state, national or other Chautauqua association, but shall be supreme and independent in all its acts under the statutes of this state.

Tenth—In case of dissolution of the corporation all property belonging thereto shall be converted into money, and the balance, after paying all corporate debts shall be divided equally among the stockholders, and in no case shall the private property of the stockholders or the officers of this corporation be liable for corporate debts.

Eleventh—Said corporation shall have a common seal which shall consist of the words "Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association" with the word seal in the center thereof.

Twelfth—The directors of this corporation shall have power to remove or suspend any of the permanent officers of the corporation by the exercise of a two-thirds vote of the whole board, and shall also have the power to fill all vacancies which may arise from whatever cause. The new appointees to hold office until the next annual meeting of the stockholders. They shall also have power to make by-laws, rules and regulations for the government of the corporation and the management of its affairs which may be repealed, amended or added to at any regular meeting of the board, and they shall have power to appoint such officers and committees as they may deem necessary, not otherwise provided for in these articles.

Thirteenth—The regular annual meeting of the stockholders of this corporation shall be held on the last day of the meeting of the annual assembly in each year at 3 o'clock P. M., commencing with the year 1895.

Fourteenth—The names and addresses of the officers and directors who shall serve until the first annual election and until their successors are elected and qualified, are: Robt. A. Miller, president; Chas. H. Chapman, vice president; Mrs. C. H. Dye, secretary; D. C. Latourrette, treasurer.

Moved and carried that the president, secretary and treasurer constitute an executive committee. Adjourned to meet at call of president.

The following is a clipping from the Sunday Oregonian in a dispatch from Jacksonville. W. L. Miller, clerk of the Oregon City land office, returned home yesterday. His father, Colonel J. N. T. Miller, has been in poor health for some time past, and was unable to superintend the packing and shipping of the products of his large vineyard, and the son now has the business in charge. The yield is estimated at 50 tons, and the first shipment of 200 boxes was started tonight to E. E. Williams at Oregon City.

Married, at the M. E. parsonage, Monday, Oct. 9, 1895 by Rev. G. Sykes Miss Mary Sykes and Henry Freeman. The bride is a daughter of J. Sykes, and a sister of Rev. G. Sykes, of this city. Brown; Lula Hardesty and Robert Corlett; Mary B. Hagey and Perry H. Hicks; Annie Thomas and F. J. Hayes; Nellie McClelland and R. R. Aldridge; Florence Dyer and Caleb Perry; Emma Roberts and W. G. Muir; Fredrika Inkhausen and J. S. Pease.

The Herald is not to be removed as supposed, as yet. Some of the stockholders who had not had as much experience as some of the others in supporting a paper decided that the paper should stay in Oregon City and have put J. B. Zeigler and R. Hull in charge of the office. They expect to cut down the size of the paper and hope thereby to make their expenses meet their income. Mr. Jas Shaw has retired from the paper and will devote his time to his private business.

Hon. Wm. Wealdon of Ilwaco, Wash., and a candidate for county commissioner on the republican ticket in Pacific county, arrived in Oregon City Sunday for the purpose of having a surgical operation performed.
