THE ENTERPRISE CORRESPONDENTS SWEEP THE FIELD.

A Successful Lodge Entertainment—Pipe Foundry Shuts Down—An Object Lesson for Free Traders.

Oswego, Oct. 30.—Pay day at the foundry the 23d. The usual number of socials immediately following and I am sorry to say the usual number of drunks.

The masquerade ball given by the R. R. C. last Thursday night was from a social standpoint a success, financially a failure.

The basket social on Monday night the 22d, given by Milette lodge No. 20, D. of H. was well attended notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The program was well rendered; the baskets were sold at a fair price considering the times, and after the contents were devoured the younger folks as well as some of the older ones engaged in dancing. At 12:30 everybody went home well pleased with themselves and the world generally.

Died, at the home of her brother-in-law, Robert Brown, on the 22d inst, Miss Lena Suelfohn, of consumption, aged 28 years. She was buried in the Oswego cemetery on Wednesday, the 24th.

The public meeting of Pig Iron lodge on last Thursday evening was well attended considering the beastly weather. Grand Recorder Newton Clark, of Portland explained the objects of the order in such a plain and practical manner that there could be no doubt left in the mind of anyone present that the A. O. U. W. was a grand and noble institution. He was followed by Grand Foreman Ramsbell, of Portland, who gave a good and interesting talk. Brother F. L. Mintie being present was called upon and for a few minutes held the audience spell bound while he eulogized the order of which he has been a member for a number of years.

Mrs. Bar and daughter Grace, of Vancouver, Washington, has been visiting Mrs. J. E. Hedrick this week.

Mrs. Ella B. Worthington was visiting friends on the Tualatin Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Green of your city was visiting friends in Oswego Saturday.

Attorney C. H. Dye visited Oswego lodge I. O. O. F. last evening.

Prof. Jones organized a singing class in Prosser's hall Monday evening. Mr. Prosser kindly furnishes the hall to the class free of charge and the professor gives his services as instructor free of charge. It is to be hoped that the young people will appreciate the kindness of these gentlemen and do their part toward making the undertaking a success.

Supt. Lovridge finished the contract at the pipe foundry yesterday. The foundry is now shut down, but it is to be hoped only temporarily.

Wanted, free traders from all over the state to visit Oswego and see for themselves the result of tariff tinkering. A splendid object lesson; a cold furnace, no smoke at the kilns, the ore mines shut down, no wood choppers nor haulers—everything dead. Oh, ye gods endow our would be statesmen with just a little common sense is the prayer of AMERICA.

My Pleasant Views.

Mr. Pleasant, Oct. 30.—Mr. Thorpe is cutting wood for Sim Feizger.

Mr. Molar and family continue to live on the Shoeps farm which Mr. Wautenpaugh and family vacated last spring.

W. B. Stafford expects to move his family to Ely very soon. We shall miss them.

Mrs. Duemus, of Oregon City, was visiting Mrs. M. L. Moore and her sisters, Mrs. James McKillican and Miss Ida Pease, last Saturday.

Miss Helen Warner, of "Locust farm," has been entertaining friends from Portland.

Misses Blanche B. and Nettie McCord were visiting Misses Emma and Sarah Albright and Mrs. Ella Creitzer, of Leland, Monday.

Mr. Hayes is making some improvements from time to time on his ten-acre farm, purchased from Will McCord. A young orchard is fairly started, which is a host within itself to a farmer.

C. C. Williams met with quite a loss last week. His hen-house was visited by some one who carried away sixteen fine Wyandott chickens. When one takes the pains to raise full blood poultry of any description they naturally dislike others to reap the reward unasked.

Miss Amelia Barreth, of Abernethy, was calling on acquaintances here last Sunday. It was a bleak day and Miss Amelia made the trip on horseback.

Mrs. Dan O'Neil expects to leave for Redondo beach very shortly, but her friends are doing all in their power to make her wish for her Oregon home at "Rose farm" again.

Mr. Taber's relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Jones, have returned to their eastern home. Word has been received that they had a pleasant trip eastward.

Mrs. Benjamin Hendrickson met with quite a painful accident while attending to her household duties Monday. Evidently her right hand will be useless for some days because of a deep glass cut.

Mrs. Jane Hedges and daughter, Miss Emma, have arrived safely at their destination. Now that their many friends and relatives have received such propitious advices, they naturally feel greatly relieved. We hope that both the ladies return in good health and spirits as a reward for their search after life's most precious boon.

Last Wednesday George Wier had a narrow escape while cleaning out his well. In making the descent into the well the rope broke, causing Mr. Wier to fall eighteen feet, striking his arm and shoulder heavily against a ladder at the bottom. His neighbor, Mr. Forbes, was present and Mrs. Wier called Arthur and Clarence Russell to his assistance. Together they soon extricated Mr. Wier from his perilous and unpleasant position. He suffered considerable pain but goes about his work as usual.

Miss Ella Williams arrived home from the East last Friday evening, after an absence of over a year. We presume that "Fir grove" will now be another feature in the higher social circles on the hill. Naturally from much travel Miss Ella is fitted to make the winter pass pleasantly for her less traveled friends.

The article in your last issue concerning a motor line in our direction is something delectable and one that our twin sister Ely must appreciate. We have every facility, in our opinion, at least, to make Mt. Pleasant a beautiful suburb to the city by the waterfall. There is ample room for drives and bolevards galore, besides saving a little for fox-hunting and other sports.

VOX HUMANIA.

HARMONY CHORDS.

Successful Revival Meeting—Attempted Hold Up By Footpads.

HARMONY, Oct. 27.—Our revival meeting which began on September 18th, closed Wednesday evening. There were fifteen conversions during the meeting. Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, about one hundred people gathered at the church and after a short service proceeded to Mr. Rusk's pasture where eight were baptised by Rev. Schuchnicht in Matlock creek. One of the ladies baptised is 77 years of age.

The Evangelical association organized a class of thirteen members Wednesday evening, Rev. Schuchnicht officiating. Several more are expected to join soon. The following board of trustees were elected: Albert Frankhouser to serve for one year, Geo. Wise for two years and Theodore Hognberger for three years. The class then authorized the board to incorporate.

Mr. Cliff has traded his farm here for one on the Columbia river and will move on to it soon. We wish him success.

John Bennett, of Clackamas, has moved here and is engaged in hauling wood.

Our esteemed citizen, John E. Rusk, has the honor of killing the bear in the big Milwaukee bear hunt last Saturday.

Rice and Smith are engaged in building a house for their occupation this winter.

Mr. Karr and Mr. Kanne have commenced clearing land.

Mr. McLaughlin and Henry Kanne were visitors at school this week.

Mr. Gratham, who has been quite sick this week was slowly recovering at last report.

Mr. Jones, our poultry merchant, has removed with his family to Fulton.

Eye Ridgeway, an employe of George Wise, was attacked by footpads Sunday evening near the lower Southern Pacific crossing. Mr. Ridgeway struck out with a stick he carried in his hand and breaking into a run got safely away without the contents of his purse being disturbed.

The school closed for this week with a spelling match and the reading of the Harmony Free Press, a paper edited by the scholars, which was quite newswy. Miss Martina Stuchler spelled down the school in the spelling match.

Potato digging has commenced. The yield is mostly short with a few exceptions. Mr. Rosenan harvested two hundred bushels from one acre. Mr. Karr has some that will yield about the same.

Needy News Notes.

NEEDY, Oct. 30.—Died, last Thursday, of croup, Amy, the little daughter of H. L. and L. Wolfer. The funeral took place at the little graveyard one mile east of Needy, known as the Donaldson graveyard. Amy was a very bright little girl, between two and three years of age, and was loved by all who knew her. She was an only child and her death has caused many sad hearts. It has been a sad blow to her bereaved parents and they have the sympathy of the entire neighborhood. But Amy has gone to a home where peace and love are everlasting.

Mrs. M. Kenage has returned home from the East where she has been visiting her parents for the last two months. She reports times in better condition than they have been for a year and business of all kinds looking up.

J. C. Miller of this place has been adjudged insane, and was taken to the asylum at Salem by his brother and the sheriff last Friday.

Some of the boys around here will do well and save themselves a fine and some costs if they will put in some of their time in studying the law instead of prowling around on other people's land with their guns and dogs. We have a few people in this county who are determined to stop this business, and especially the shooting around their premises every Sunday.

Smyrna Snacks.

SMYRNA, Oct. 29.—And now the "afternoon farmer" bewaileth his lot for, his seed wheat is yet in the sack, yet, even his spuds are still where his seed wheat should be.

Dr. Fisher, of Lockwood, Mo., who has been spending a week with old acquaintances in the neighborhood, left for home yesterday morning.

Frank and Roy Scott, J. W. and Ed. Yoder, accompanied by E. E. Garber, went on a hunting trip in the foot hills along Pine Creek. The boys were to initiate Mr. Garber in the mysteries of hunting in Oregon, but Emanuel thinks he came out one ahead as he was the only one of the party that succeeded in killing a deer.

The school in our district, No. 92, is progressing nicely. Mrs. R. L. Yoder is in charge.

Norman Buck has sold his farm of fifty acres adjoining the church to Mrs. J. P. Yoder. Consideration $1500 cash. The land is a part of the Benjamin Koop D. L. C.

Miss Ida M. Yoder was home from the Willamette University over Sunday, but left for Salem again Sunday evening.

Where is that road boss that promised us a new bridge near Frank Fishers. If we don't get it pretty soon there will be something to pay.

Josa.

Sandy Sayings.

SANDY, Oct. 28.—The weather the past week has checked the gathering of fruit somewhat. Fruit growers say that the apple crop is heavy and are selling at 25 cents per bushel and gather them themselves.

Henry Cook, our well known hotel keeper, is making preparations for building a livery barn to run in connection with the hotel. This will be another one of our annual extensive improvements to our little burg.

F. A. Meinig's residence is almost completed. The plumbers are engaged in fixing the water mains.

P. Logan and family have moved up to Grass Valley, Wasco county, where Mr. Logan will run a blacksmith shop. Robert Jonard will continue the blacksmith business here.

Geo. Beebe and family have gone to Washington county to spend a few weeks visiting friends.

Kasper Arduser, our prosperous stage driver has purchased him a brand new stage wagon and will now have one of the finest rigs ever run between here and Portland.

The estate of Richard Gerdes, located in the center of our valley, will be sold to the highest bidder by the administrator of the place, on the 19th of November, at Portland.

A large amount of king salmon are being caught at the Sandy falls. Johnnie Kopper holds the champion belt, having caught sixty-eight in one-half day with a grab hook. Well done Johnnie.

It is no wonder that one of our prosperous young farmers has been making such extensive improvements on his place in the way of building a house and the buying of furniture and household utensils, for a few days since he went to Oregon City and got his license to wed. He succeeded in keeping it a secret until the knot was securely tied by Justice Jonard. The contracting parties were Theo. Fischer and Miss Lena Fisher, and the marriage took place October 20, 1894. All wish them a long married life and no troubles but little ones.

CANBY CLIPPINGS.

Streets to be Lighted—New Road Proposed—Town News in General.

CANBY, Oct. 31.—Senator Cross, of Oregon City, was in town one day last week.

W. S. Hurst, of Aurora, was in town Tuesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Pixley, of Clackamas, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Hodges for a few days last week.

Geo. Subauer, of Washington county, was visiting friends here last week for a few days.

Mr. Sturgis moved into his new house a few days ago.

Wm. Johnson moved from here to a farm near Molalla postoffice last week.

J. B. Hayward moved from here with his family to a farm near Albany. He is to take charge of a large hop ranch.

J. Evans has moved his family to town in order to send his children to a good school.

McCarty & Schwibold, butchers, have dissolved partnership. Mr. Schwibold will continue the business.

J. Walzau, the enterprising meat peddler, is still running his meat wagon, furnishing beef to the surrounding country.

On Tuesday as two young men were riding through the town at a lively gallop one of the horses slipped and fell on his knees striking on a sharp rock and cutting a big gash in the knee. The men said it would have to be sewed up.

We see a notice put up in town requesting all in favor of political reform to meet at H. C. Gillmore's residence on Saturday evening, November 3d. Everybody invited.

Mr. Fisher has moved his family to Salem, where the former has found employment. Michael Greybill is attending school at that place instead of Corvallis, as was previously stated.

Miss Kitty Guyer and Mrs. A. O. Hayward went down to Portland last Friday. Miss Kitty went to Dr. Clarence Nichols for examination and treatment of her eyes.

Mrs. W. W. May was absent from home a few days last week visiting in Oregon City.

A. O. Hayward has had his farm surveyed off into 20-acre tracts, which he expects to sell as fast as practicable.

Mrs. J. K. Graham has so far recovered from her recent severe illness as to be among us again.

D. S. Moore is moving hay and straw from the Beauty farm to the new log barn on his own ranch.

Slashing, fencing, log-burning, rail-splitting and many like improvements are going on in this vicinity. The horizon widens, the face of the country grows clear and smooth, betokening thrift and energy upon the part of our farming population.

Will Editor and Mrs. Meserve accept again the warmest congratulations from a correspondent of the ENTERPRISE on the advent of that baby boy. May he prove a "well spring of joy" in the hearts and home of our good editor and wife.

Springwater Spray.

SPRINGWATER, Oct. 24.—The busy din of the city of Springwater and surrounding country is gradually dying away to give place to old winter. The long and busy summer days are gone, and fall, with its fragrance and beauty, will soon be numbered with the days of the past. We must soon be launched out on the bosom of another winter and be embraced in its cold and icy arms for the next four or five months. We know that she is coming, for we saw her out in her white on the lofty peaks of the Cascades this morning. Let us all take the ENTERPRISE, fill the wood shed, put the potatoes away in a safe place and put a little straw around them, prepare a good place for the pigs and chickens and we will all wake up together in the spring ready for another season's work.

Uncle Jack Hess and P. W. Graham were in this vicinity from Washington county this week on a hunt.

Jack Marrs has killed two bear the past two weeks.

Lon Akin left with his family on October 21st for Eastern Oregon.

Jack Tucker has also gone to Eastern Oregon.

Mrs. Carrie Marrs, who has been quite ill the past two weeks, is much improved under the care of Dr. Paine.

Sam Raney has lost two good horses with the fever.

C. A. Guttridge has finished drying his large crop of prunes and is hauling them to Portland.

The Presbyterian church of Springwater will put in a nice heating stove this week, a present from Rev. Thos. Boyd's church of Portland. Meetings are held in the church here as follows: Sunday school at 2 P. M.; preaching by Rev. J. C. Sylvanus every second and fourth Sunday at 3 P. M., and the society of Christian Endeavor the first and third Sunday at 3 P. M.
