THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

Cleveland Steals a March on Penneyer—Generous Giving Recommended.

The president Wednesday issued the usual Thanksgiving proclamation. After referring to the blessings enjoyed by the nation during the past year he says:

"Therefore, I, Grover Cleveland, president of the United States, do hereby appoint and set apart Thursday, the 29th of November, as a day of Thanksgiving and prayer, to be kept and observed by all people of the land, and in our places of worship and praise as well as happy reunions of kindred and friends on that day, let us invoke the divine approval by generously remembering the poor and needy. Surely he who has given us relief of the destitute and our ministrations of charity as the work of hearts truly grateful, and as proofs of the sincerity of our thanksgiving."

SUNNYSIDE SAYINGS.

SUNNYSIDE, Oct. 30.—Rain and mud, and the mud is getting quite deep. The good roads of this summer are changing to the bad ones of last winter.

A few families have moved away, Wm. Gage being among the number. Mrs. Gage and sister went to California. Mrs. Gage's mother and father went east and Mr. Gage is still in business on this coast.

J. Reed's family have moved down near Tremont, where he will go into the wood business with Mr. Henry, of Portland. They will use electric power to run three saws. Mr. Reed uses his engine to furnish the power. It will be a grand thing if they make it work successfully.

J. Clift has had a very sad sickness. He has been threatened with paralysis but is better now.

Mrs. Dave Deardoff is visiting her son, J. E. Deardoff, while she is doing some business, with the renter on her place at Rock Creek.

John Welch a former resident of this place has been visiting friends and relatives here. They went to Eagle Creek and then returned to their home at Fisher's, Wash.

J. S. Comstock is also visiting his relatives here.

Mrs. Faust is sick with a cancer in the breast of which she has been suffering for a long time. Physicians tell her that she cannot live more than two months.

The parsonage is about completed and the church should be proud of it as it is a very neat residence.

Farmers are in their potato fields turning out the spuds. They are a little below the average this year.

The ladies will find Slopers' barber shop the place to have their hair trimmed in the latest styles.

The case was decided Wednesday of this week in favor of Richardson as the plaintiff was unable to bring sufficient proof against the defendant.

A man by the name of Mr. Peoples purchased some oats from Wm. Davis both of Eagle Creek. When the oats were delivered to Peoples he was not at home but his wife to Mr. Davis to take the cart and harness as security. Last Saturday as Mr. Davis was driving to town and when passing Mr. Peoples' house the latter came out with a shotgun and told Mr. Davis that he had just three minutes to return and bring the cart and harness back. He obeyed and is now without cart, harness and oats.

For a pain in the side or chest there is nothing so good as a flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on over the seat of pain. It affords prompt and permanent relief and if used in time will often prevent a cold from resulting in pneumonia. This same treatment is a sure cure for a lame back. For sale by G. A. Harding, Druggist.

City Marshal Burns is deserving of a good word for making the many hobos who infest Oregon City and are an expense to the city for board and lodging, clean up the street crossings. Marshal Burns proposes to keep the crossings clean during the winter provided the supply of tramps holds out.

Eagle Creek News.

EAGLE CREEK, Oct. 30.—The debating and literary society opens up next Saturday night for the winter.

MINK NOTES.

Literary Society Organized—Hop Growers and Wheat Raisers Out of Luck.

MINK, Oct. 30.—The recent rains have put lots of farmers considerably back with their fall work in this neighborhood. But little fall wheat has been sown, and scarcely any potatoes have been dug.

Mr. Shannon started up his new haler last week. The first bale made with it weighed 250 pounds, 100 pounds more than it ought to have weighed. The haler was rusty inside and refused to discharge properly. The boys have it in good operation now and will bale hay at $1.50 per ton and straw at $1.75 per ton.

The Bolander brothers are repairing their horse stable and are also preparing to build an extensive poultry barn this fall.

The dance at Floyd Kirk's last Saturday night was not largely attended owing to the stormy weather.

The Presbyterian literary and debating society held their first meeting for this fall last Friday.

The hop growers are in for it as well as the wheat growers. The hop men of this vicinity put their hops on the market, and the highest price offered was 5 1/2 cent per pound, which will only pay for picking and drying them.

Logan Locals.

LOGAN, Oct. 29.—One of the most enjoyable dances of the season was given at the residence of John Schuttel last Friday in honor of his birthday. The crowd was comfortably large, the music was excellent, and the supper table was laden with good things.

Tom Gallagher is building a nest dwelling.

Our newly married couples, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown, have commenced house keeping.

Mr. Clark has again lost his house keeper. We heard that Clem was going to try one of the weaker sex.

Mrs. Stude is paying a visit to her sister. All three of the Logan teachers mounted their bronchos last Saturday and attended the institute in Oregon City.

Miss Edna Chase is on the sick list. Rev. Johnson is very low with typhoid fever. His son, Mike Johnson, of Damascus, has been visiting him.

Marquam News.

MARQUAM, Oct. 30.—Last night about five o'clock Mrs. Martha A. Doores, wife of J. W. Doores of this place, died of heart trouble. She had been feeling as well as usual during the entire day, and was in the act of preparing supper for her husband when without any sign of distress she suddenly fell to the floor a corpse. Her daughter had been visiting her during the day and had just bidden her mother good-bye and departed for home. Mrs. Doores leaves a husband and two children, Mrs. J. Murdock of Jefferson, Marion county, and Mrs. Rebecca Long of Elliott Prairie, this county. Her only living sister, Mrs. M. Wilkins, of Coburg, Linn county, has been telegraphed for and will arrive in time to attend the funeral tomorrow at the M. E. church—the services by Rev. Gardner.

Married, at the residence of P. J. Riddings, of Marquam, October 24th, by J. E. Jack, Justice of the Peace, Miss Rosa Callaban and Mr. Frederick Schafer of Molalla.

Cherryville Items.

CHERRYVILLE, Oct. 30.—The first snow of the season was seen on the mountains east and south of Cherryville on the morning of the 19th instant.

The fish are very plentiful in Sandy river, and the people of Cherryville and vicinity are having lots of sport with rod and line.
