CLACKAMAS ABSTRACT & TRUST CO. Company F Election. Monday evening Company F held its regular meeting and elected its officers for the ensuing year. The reports of the secretary and treasurer showed that the company is in better condition financially than since its organization. Private Jones was elected secretary, and Private C. G. Huntley was re-elected treasurer. Private W. B. Wiggins, Private H. Fuller, Corporal H. Fancher and Sergeant W. A. Hurlley were elected council of administration. The company by an unanimous vote placed the names of Dr. W. E. Carl, H. E. Smith, J. P. Lovett and A. E. Graham upon its roll as honorary members.

A Notable Event.

It is not often in the history of a church that three such important events coincide as did last Sunday with the Presbyterians in the departure of the old pastor, the reception of the new and the dedication of the enlarged church edifice. In the morning a large congregation gathered to hear the farewell sermon of Rev. G. Wm. Giboney, who has faithfully served this pastorate for five years or more. His subject, "The building of the Tabernacle," from Exodus, was fitting to the occasion and was one of his most eloquent efforts in this city. At the close of the sermon the small amount yet due on the building was raised after which Mr. Giboney followed with the dedicatory prayer, offering the building free of debt to the perpetual service of God. The church was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums, and Miss Eunice Donaldson ably presided at the organ. In the evening the new pastor, Rev. Mr. Montgomery, from Nebraska, preached his first sermon and pleased all with his scholarly and dignified address. Although young in years, the new pastor bids fair to wear with grace and worthiness the mantle of his successful predecessor.

At this juncture a surprise party entered in the form of the Ministerial Association of Oregon City, who, shortening the services in their several pulpits, had come to give their brother minister a God speed and a good send-off. Scores of people from their congregations followed crowding in until the new building was closely packed with people. Dr. Cowan of the Congregational church, happily explained the nature of this intrusion, and after a few witty remarks, called upon Rev. Gilman Parker, Rev. Gabriel Sykes, and Rev. Mr. Gray, each of whom testified to the worth of the departing brother. Mr. Giboney departs with the best wishes of everyone in this community.

Canemah Entertainment.

There will be an entertainment given at the Canemah school house Tuesday evening, Nov. 13, commencing at 7:30 o'clock. The entertainment will consist of declamations, duets, solos, instrumental music and dialogues, a special feature being a recitation by Miss Bessie Evans, the well known elocutionist. There has been thorough preparation made to make this the best entertainment ever given in Canemah. Come and spend a pleasant evening. At the close of the program refreshments will be served. Admission 15 cents. This includes refreshments.

Cheerful Winter Evenings.

Nothing brings so much joy and comfort to the fireside as a genial visitor—one that entertains and instructs every member of the family. The latch string is always out for the Prairie Farmer, for it always brings a big weekly budget. It is brighter than ever, with a host of new writers, this year. The Thanksgiving and Christmas numbers will be worth more than a year's subscription. $1.00 gets 52 visits—The Prairie Farmer.
