ALEXANDER III IS DEAD.

Death Comes Peacefully—The Czarevitch is Crowned as Nicholas II. LIVADIA, Nov. 1.—The czar died at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Immediately after the body of the czar has been prepared it will be laid upon an inclined table preliminary to being placed in the coffin. The priests will then enter the bedroom and chant a requiem. This will be repeated three times daily until the burial takes place. All the members of the imperial family will be present at the ceremonies. It is expected the body will be removed tomorrow to the private chapel, where special prayer for the repose of the emperor's soul will be offered, and where once a day the litany will be sung, in addition to chanting a requiem as previously stated. It is understood that the czarevitch will immediately issue a proclamation declaring himself czar, and all Russian officials throughout the world will take the oath of allegiance as soon as possible. Alexander III (Alexandrovitch), emperor of all the Russias, who succeeded to the throne on the murder of his father by nihilist conspirators, March 13, 1881, was born March 10, 1845. For some time after his elevation to the throne he seldom appeared in public, but lived in the closest retirement at Gatchina, being in constant dread of the machinations of the secret societies of the socialists. His coronation took place at Moscow, May 27, 1883. He married in 1866, Mary Feodorovna, formerly Mary Sophia Fredericksa Dagmar, daughter of Christian IX, King of Denmark, and sister of the Princess of Wales and the king of Greece. The principal concern of the czar has been to put down nihilism; to develop the military power of Russia; to organize her Asiatic and Caucasian provinces, and to keep a steady eye on Constantinople. The czar never forgave his cousin Alexander Joseph of Battenberg for acting independently of Russia in the crisis of 1885. The czar struck the prince's name off the Russian army list and forced him to sign his abdication. Prince Alexander soon retired to his estates. In October, 1888, the czar with his family narrowly escaped death by a railway accident on the Transcaucasian railway. Of late years his life has been a little more tranquil, but still the ever occurring plots of the nihilists and socialists have rendered his life one of care and watchfulness. Republicans to Control the Next House. WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—At 11 o'clock tonight Mr. J. B. Babcock, the chairman of the republican congressional committee, telegraphed Mr. Apsley, the vice-chairman of the committee, at Boston as follows: "The returns from the congressional districts are yet incomplete. We have carried 24 districts in New York, three in West Virginia, three in Connecticut, three in Kentucky, defeated the free-trader, Johnson, in Ohio, and Wilson, in West Virginia, and I estimate that we will control the next house by a much larger majority than the committee has predicted. We have also carried Wisconsin by not less than 25,000 majority, and with eight members of congress. The reports received up to date indicate uniform republican gains. I estimate that we will control the next house by 25 majority. My returns so far have been very meager, but all indications point to a larger representation. I figured on only 20 members in New York, but shall have 24 at least. My estimate included one republican from Kentucky. It now looks as if we would have three from that state. I claimed two republican members in Connecticut. A dispatch from Mr. Benton, the chairman of the state central committee, tells me that the republicans have carried all four of the Connecticut districts. I am assured that we have elected 13 congressmen in Massachusetts, where the committee's greatest claim was 11. In Ohio we have exceeded our estimate, and from present appearances the results will be still more encouraging. In Wisconsin I estimated the election of seven republicans, but shall have eight. I made no calculations on securing representatives in Maryland, but my advices are that we have elected two. So it is going all along the line. From the limited intelligence received at headquarters, I am certain that Mr. Wilson is defeated. NEWS BY TELEGRAPH. Japanese Said to Have Made an Attack Upon Port Arthur. LONDON, Nov. 7.—A Chee Foo dispatch says: The Japanese land and sea forces made a simultaneous and victorious attack upon Port Arthur. LONDON, Nov. 7.—A Shanghai dispatch says it is rumored the Ping Yang squadron is in Port Arthur. The Chinese report that the Japanese are rapidly advancing in the rear of Port Arthur, and that a strong Japanese fleet is outside the harbor. It is probable Port Arthur and the Chinese fleet will fall into the hands of the enemy. Chinese deserters are arriving in New Chwang in large numbers panic stricken. A Japanese flying squadron is reported to be 100 miles off New Chwang. The first month with "R" opens the oyster season and Cram Bros.' Do you want to be able to tell the difference between a leather counter and a paper counter in a shoe? You do, eh? All right. Take the shoe or boot in both hands— toe pointing to the front—fingers of both hands clasped on the shank—the thumbs on the back about an inch above the heel—press the counter forward—if the shoe is a heavy one the counter will incline forward slowly. Now remove the thumbs and if the counter is leather it will come back to its original position instantly—but if it is paper it will remain in the position you pressed it to. Now to tell if the inner-sole is paper or leather—take out your pen-knife, cut a small skiving from the outer edge of the inner-sole, put the piece in your mouth, chew it, and if a ten-year-old boy cannot tell whether he is chewing paper or leather, he should have some one else to buy his shoes for him. The counter in a ladies' fine shoe should give under the pressure of the thumb instantly, but as rapidly return to its position. The inner-sole in a boot or shoe is of VITAL importance. If it is paper, the moment it gets wet the stitch will pull through, then away goes your shoe, and away goes your money. A paper inner-sole and a paper counter in a shoe will make a difference of $1.00 in the cost of a shoe. If a man tells you that he will sell you a $5.00 shoe for $2.50 put him down as an A I liar. Nobody gives their goods away—no one is in business for their health. We carry no shoes with paper counters or paper inner-soles. WE CARRY NO STORE SHOES. A dry foot will save a man a doctor's bill, and one doctor's bill will purchase a half dozen pairs of shoes. MCKITTRICK, "THE SHOE MAN," NEXT DOOR TO OREGON CITY BANK.

The County's Wealth.

County Assessor Bradley will have the assessment roll for 1893 completed this week and the duplicate copies, one for the secretary of state and one for the sheriff, will be finished in a short time. The assessor's work has grown to be of considerable magnitude. The roll for this year contains 8000 names with 16,327 descriptions of property, all to be arranged under the fifty different headings in the assessment roll. Another year the work will be greatly increased by census inumeration to be taken. Mr. Bradley will divide the county into five districts for next year's work and has had the necessary block books prepared in which he will enter up all real estate in the several districts. In preparing the roll the greatest care has been taken and for accuracy of descriptions and neatness of work it is a credit to Mr. Bradley and his efficient deputy, Mrs. Bradley. The following is a summary of the roll. It shows little increase in values and amounts over the roll of last year owing to the general depression of business:
