will celebrate the semi-centennial of Congregationalism in Oregon with an appropriate address by Rey. Geo. R. Wallace, D. D., of the first church of Portland, in connection with other exercises. Cowan, Mrs. Alma Brownell and Dr. H. E. Ferrin, of this city.

THE REAL MEANING OF "WE."-Somebody who wants to explain what the editorial "we" signifies, says it has a variety of meanings, varied to suit the circumstances. When you read that "we expect our wife home today," "we" refers to the editor-in-chief; when it is "we are a little late with work," it includes the whole office force, even to the devil and the towel; in "we are having The grand jury has appointed J. U. year," and it embraces the nation; but nected with the revenues and expendipaper and does not pay for it is very ill. well in securing his service. Much inreturns of the late republican sweep, and first made under the salary system. the patient wife heard her husband coming up the steps, at a very late hour saying "w-e-e!" well, she very soon knew the meaning.

"For fifteen years I was a constant sufferer with asthma without any relief, except that obtained by constant change of locality. Two years ago I tried Moone's Reynalase Rement and the benefits received from it were the most gratifying. It gave me relief from the first and prevented the terrible distress peculiar to the disease that made life almost unbearable. Any one who has over had asthma can understand the gratitude I feel toward this remedy. Believing it has added pleasant years to my life I have not hesitated to recommend it to all like sufferers, and always with the same happy results."
